bidding of merchants to sell food and supplies to the families of the men driven out of the state-all that they did in furtherance of their criminal conspiracy to destroy the Western Federation of Miners is competent testimony and it should be left to the jury to determine its value."

As to the Pinkerton detectives who were placed in the various local unions, Mr. Darrow said the jury should be allowed to take their acts into consideration.

"They should not be charged up to the union, these men who incited the acts of visience and the union should not be held wholly responsible for them. They were on the pay roll of the Pinkertons, these miserable agents who made incendiary speeches; are we going to convict Bill Haywood for responsibility for these vermin, who have even invaded this court house and tried to get upon the witness stand as our witnesses.

Let the Jury Decide.

"The jury should have all the facts that this case has developed. We objected to the state going to Colorado to convict these men of a crime in Idaho. We did not want to go into all these details, but the state was allowed to place before the jury every jot and tittle, every isolated circumstance. every bit of testimony that could in any way tend to corrobate any statement of Harry Orchard.

"Are they to be allowed to show every fact that might connect these defendants the right to present contradictory facts in order that the jury may determine for itself who was guilty and who responsible? Let the twelve men weigh the evidence. We shall rest content."

Borah Replics to Darrow.

Senator Borah began his address in reply to Mr. Darrow at 1:40 p. m. He said that counsel for the defense in his opening address to the jury claimed that a contectives, the Mine Owners' association and the Citizen's alliance to drive the Western Pederation of Miners out of Colorado and that many of the crimes charged to the

Senator Borah said the state did not wish to strike out any of the evidence introduced by the defense as to Bradley or the Vindicator incidents, as he believed it legal, but he said there was nothing in support of the contention that the Mine Owners' association had been responsible for any of the

He said that very actual issue involved-the assassination of Sovernor Steunenberg. If there had been vidence to directly connect with this offense the Colorado troubles would never have been heard of. But the state was reduced to the claim that the killing of

Steunenberg was but a mere incident of the giant conspiracy and in an effort to prove conspiracy had to go to Colorado and get hold of widely separated circumstances. Leaving Orchard's uncorroborated testinony out of the proposition, he said, the circumstances indicated a far stronger motive on the part of the Mine Owners' association than the Western Federation of Miners. 4

Mr. Richardson concluded at 3:25. Judge Wood announced that he might be prewith any responsibility, and we to be denied pared to decide the matter in the morning Court then adjourned until tomorrow morning at 9:30.
