OMAHA'S FIRST RUNS A GIFT

Remainder Are Made by Clouting the Ball Often and Hard—Omaha Outfielders Have Busy Time Trapping Flies.

DENVER, July 24.—Omaha won today's game by outbatting and outplaying the locals. Poor playing by Denver gave Omaha all three of the runs in the first inning, but after that the visitors did fine hitting for scores. White's home run gave Denver two in the first. McNeeley pitched a fine game and Welch did great work in center field. Austin had several difficult chances at third, losing two of them by poor throws, after wonderful stops. Two games will be played tomorrow. Score:

Williams Weakens in Ninth.

SIOUX CITY, July 24.—Williams' weakness in the last half of the ninth inning gave today's game, between Lincoln and Sioux City, to the Ducklings by a score of 7 to 6. Ducky Holmes' flock played a ragged fielding game, and it looked as though they were determined to turn down the splendid pitching of McKay and pass the game over to the Sioux. But at the last moment they took advantage of Williams' weakness and retrieved their losses. A single by McKay, passed to Ketchem and Fox, and a single by Reddick scored two to tie, and Granville's misjudgment of Gagnier's grounder let Fox in with the winning score. Score:
