It is very seldom that good outside space in a well appointed office building is available. At the present time we have a beautiful suite of two rooms on the fifth floor, with east and south light, a large vault, which makes this a most desirable space during either summer or winter. Room No. 546 is now vacant and is 14218, with a good-sized vault; has east light. A new hard-wood floor was recently put in this goom.

the Bee building; it is central, close to the city hall and county court house. There are several hundred people who spend more time here than in their homes and any one of these will testify as to the care they receive here. For further particulars call

DUNDEE

Why not take a car ride to Dundee one of these hot summer evenings and look over the many improvements that have been going on since early spring. The street car line has just been extended to the grounds of the Happy Hollow Golf club. Many blocks of choice building lots have been graded, trees planted, cement sidewalks built. You can reach Dundee in about fifteen minutes from 16th street by taking a West Farnam Dundee car, which runs every eight minutes on this line. You can have all conveniences in your home in Dundee that you can have in the city of Omaha, the same companies that furnish water, gas and electric light to Omaha, also furnish Dundee. Everyone who has visited Dundee recently remarks about the uniform shade trees and sidewalks all over the village. If you are interested in building a suburban home do not hesitate to call at our office and ask us any questions about Dundee property at any time. We are always willing to send a representative from our office to show you over the ground at your own convenience. We have some of the choicest building lots which are now being offered in this beautiful suburb, at the low price of $650 each; terms onefourth cash, balance at 6 per cent. As an investment proposition these lots are excellent. As a place to build a suburban home, they are ideal. Many beautiful residences have been built there during the past year, and many more are now in process of construction. GEORGE & COMPANY.

He had been abusing his wife and family all day and about 11 o'clock he drove them all out of the house and turned on five gas jets. Officer Shea, who was called to rescue him, was forced to break in the windows to reach him. By the time he had reached the station in the patrol wagon he had re covered far enough to laugh about his suicidal fit. The only damage from the gas was the untimely demise of the family cat.

ORPHANS HAVE A BIG TIME Little Ones from St. James Enjoy Hospitality of Knights of Columbus.

Who are, who are, who are we? St. James' orphanage. Don't you see? The shrill chorus of a hundred childish voices shouted this yell a thousand times more or less Wednesday morning as the two cars filled with the bits of humanity sped through the streets of the city. It was the annual trolley ride given by the Knights of Columbus to the fatherless and motheriess little wards of the church who are cared for in the big orphange at Ben-

Scarecely anything else had been talked about by the children for weeks. Father Flannagan and the good sisters had been kept busy just answering questions. Hoye and girls who had been on the outing in previous years enlarged and expatiated to the newer comers on the glories of the never-to-be-forgotten day, so that expectation was at the highest pitch when the time arrived.

Promptly at 9:30 o'clock in the morning two special cars stopped at the orphanage. A few minutes later they were filled with the breathless little ones and away they went. The ride took them to South Omaha and then back by a different route, out Farnam street and back to Krug park. Peter Bollen, Dr. Langdon, John O'Hearn, Tom Larkin and others accompanied the cars and acted as masters of ceremonies. Nor were the little ones under 5 years of age forgotten. They, by reason of their youth, had to stay at home, but ice cream and candy in abundance found its way to them. The spirit of that sweet charity which seeketh not its own reigned throughout the day. The fatherless found fathers and the motherless cuddled into maternal And on this same day, beside an oper grave in Germantown, a suburb of Philadelphia, stood a priest and mourners. Into the grave was lowered all that was mortal of the late W. P. McDevitt of South given at the Country club at noon Wednes- Omaha. The clods fell upon the coffin in that Germantown churchyard even while the hundred little orphans in Omaha were shouting in childish glee at the pleasures of the day. W. P. McDevitt instituted this annual outing four years party at Lake Manawa for Miss Estee, the ago. Its occurrence this year, by an odd coincidence, came on the very day of his funeral, and not too gay were the children to think of their dear, dead friend. Hazel Connell, and Sunday evening Miss SAM PREFERS OLD HAUNTS Faithful Dog Stays by Home He Knew Best Instead of the

New One. Sam was a dog-an old dog. For months his master lived in a house on North Nineteenth street. A week ago and Mrs. J. E. Summers, eight; Mr. and he moved to the south part of the city, taking the old dog with him. Two days after they moved Sam reappeared, much to the surprise of the neighbors. He took his old place on the grass, rolling around contentedly. Apparently he had walked all the way. Sam is too old to run. He lifts one foot at a time slowly and where there are steps he does not venture. Sam was so glad to be back in his old haunts that he permitted, with considerable sufferance, the frisky liberties of a young puppy which he had always repulsed with He stayed around all day lying in the front yard and looking up and down the street. No one thought of feeding him and Sam was not the kind of dog to beg. In the early evening he dragged himself to the front yard once more, looked up and down the street, then turned slowly and returned to the grass in the back yard.

The old dog was lying on the grass in the back yard-dead. Appouncements, wedding stationery and
