DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: SATURDAY, JULY 27, 1907.

Little Complaint of Mid-Summer Dullness from Any Quarter.

COLLECTIONS STEADILY IMPROVE

Sale of Seasonable Light Fabrics Now Up to Average and Prices of Cotton Goods Will Probably Advance.

NEW YORK, July 26.-R G. Dun & Co. s. Weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will

It is still noteworthy that there is practically none of the customary complaint of midsummer duliness in commercial or industrial channels. On the contary, reports from many cities announce that all the backwardness of the early season in lightweight fabrics has been made up and the liberal distribution of merchandise is accompanied by steady improvement in mercantile collections. In the loading industries there is little idle machinery, steel and cotton mills reporting orders further mio the future than other branches, and the only menace to more new records of pig Iron production is the interruption to ore movement by the strike that has reduced shipments about 2,000,000 tons in three weeks.

duced shipments about 2,000,000 ions in three weeks.

An undercurrent of increased interest is felt in the primary markets for cotton goods, and there is more evidence that prices will be maintained, while further advances are contemplated in some lines. The dominant influences are the strength of the raw material and the fact that finished products were never before sold so far alizad. Export trade has reappeared, moderate sales to China being recorded.

Footwear factories have fairly liberal orders for case goods, but the volume of new hushness thus far has not equaled anticipations. The feature has been the relatively better demand for high-grade shoes, and all quotations are well maintained.

Little improvement is noted in the demand for leatier, but prices are sustained by the curtailment of production, which has prevented accumulation, and the tanners are confident that shoe shops cannot defer action much longer. defer action much longer.

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW OF TRADE

High Temperatures Stimulate Retail Business and Help Crops. NEW YORK, July 26.-Bradstreet's to morrow will say:

High Jemperatures have stimulated crop developments as a whole, helped retail trade in light summer wear goods and improved recorder business for the latter with jobbers, all these influences favoring some growth of the feeling that early poorstarts in crops and trade have been largely made up for. There is about the usual midsummer quiet in future trade lines, but fall samples are prepared for low rate excursions beginning next month, shipments of fall goods are increasing and collections have improved at various markets. Industry exhibits a luil in some lines, notably fron and steel in its cruder forms, though the immediate effect of the strike of fron ore miners in Minnesota has been to stimulate, temporarily, at least, the demand for pig fron at all markets. Lumber is quiet, especially in the south, where production is being curtailed, and prices are easier as a whole. It is significant, however, that one of the country's basic industries, coal, is very active at the west, with general stocking up reported, and good quality of bituminous sells well at the east. Another industry showing marked activity is that of lewelry manufacturing, which is apparently showing no sign of a summer shutdown. norrow will say:

Electrolytic copper is slightly higher, but the general market remains dull and there seems to be an impression that a large buying movement will not set in until the metal works lower—to about 20 cents, say.

Wool is stronger, sales larger and prices at tend up for long staple wools. London sales closed earliet than expected because of large withdrawals, and low grade wools closed lower than expected, while high grades were firm.

Sugar is more active than of late, advancing 10 points on light receipts and good buying, while refined declined 5 points because of the backward season. Present tendencies are for an improvement in demand and a high range of prices, which are now slightly above those of a year ago.
