Pound Rastus Miller All Over the Lot and Chets Sporer to Called in to Take His Place.

Omatia, 7: Des Moines, 1. War Banders was in fine fettle Theaday and pitched shutout ball after the first finning, and at the same time his termmates were lambasting Rastus Miller and Chris Sporer for twelve hits and making all the runs they wanted, winning the game St.

by the score of 7 to L Rastus Miller struts around the diamond as though he cannot be beaten, but he has to take his medicine when he comes to Omaha. Buckerine Franck hit him twice before he was out and Chick Autrey hit bim three times, but these did not seem to fease him. It remained for Joe Dolan's two-sacker to put on the finishing touches, after which he crawled under the players' bench until the crowd had dispersed, when he came out and lay on the floor of the bus as it drove the players to the city. The game started just as though the Champs were going to run Sanders out of the lot. He was a trifle nervous-for there was a Cinci scout in the crowd sizing up the players and passed the first man who faced him. With all the confidence of a winner Hoggie sacrificed the first man to second and then Charlle Dexter hit a hard one, which went straight toward Graham, but just before it reached Grand Island made a bound and went over Graham's head, allowing McLaughlin to score.

Des Moines' Only Run.

That was the only run Des Moines made in the game. It was the only pass Mr. Banders issued in the game and it was the only hit made until the seventh inning, when Sanders tried one of his quick returns on Yeager. The veteran was looking for it and laced it out for a single. Edmonson and Sporer, the first men up in the eighth inning, each singled, but a fast double and a strike out put them back.

Thomas Saves a Shutout.

DENVER, July 30.—Fine base ball marked the game between Lincoln and Denver, the latter winning on a batting raily in the sixth inning. The second base play of Fox was a feature, he cutting off a number of what looked like sure hits. Lauterborn also played magnificent ball, but in general it was a duel between the two pitchers. Olmstead having the better of it. Lincoln would have been shut out but for Thomas home run. Score: double and a strike out put them back.

Rastus Miller got along pretty well with the Omaha batamen until the fourth inning, when he got into a hole which was a tough one, but one from which he came within an ace of extricating himself. Franck and Autrey, the first two up, each singled, which made Rastus a little nervous and he walked Weich, filling the bases. Could he get himself out of the hole? That was the question. He struck Dolan out and when Graham tried to bunt into a squeeze, Franck was caught at the plate, leaving the bases full with two out and Austin Austin hit a grounder to Frenchy Gochnaur, who threw to second, but somehow Andreas was not there when he threw the ball, and before it was fielded from the right field both Autrey and Welch had crossed the pan.

The fifth inning was even worse and saw the end of Rastus. Sanders flew out to middle and Belden bunted to Hoggie, who clawed all around the ball until Belden was safely on first. Franck singled and so did Autrey, making his third hit and Wild driving Belden home from second. Welch | pire: flew out and then Cosey Joe Dolan knocked one against the middle field fence for a double, scoring Franck and Autrey.

better ball. But for all that, two more were added, one in the sixth and on in the eighth inning. Austin singled, stole second and scored from second on an infield out.

The same teams play this afternoon OMAHA.

THE RELIABLE SPECIALISTS

consists of an infiammation, acute or chronic, of the bronchial tubes, producing a diseased condition of the mucous membrane. This treacherous and destructive disease is often primarily induced through contracting cold, or a series of through other causes as materially weaken the general system. The bronchial tubes branch off from the trachea like a network and conduct the air to and from the lungs. They are very delicate and easily effected.

The starting point is frequently a severe cold, or repeated colds, producing an infiammation or diseased condition of the mucous membrane lining the nose or throat, commonly designated as a catarrhal condition. Polasmous secretions then accumulate which are not only absorbed, affecting the blood and nerves, but there is also a constant dripping of this poisonous substance from the nose to the throat, etc., hence it extents to the bronchial tubes, frequently producing asthma, then into the lungs, causing acute lung disease and finally into the lung tissue, terminating in consumption. Through neglect and inattention it gradually weakens the whole pulmonary system, making it very susceptible to disease, as it seldom ceases in its destructive cource until it has invaded the stomach, liver and kidneys, affecting the entire system. If the infiammation extends into the lungs, it is very apt to render them susceptible to the pneumonia germ, tending to make the sufferer an easy prey to its rayages.

If the disease is allowed to progress until it has advanced to this stage the
