centage of the striking coats in the passage at the Grand Prix. Everything is fast. There are apparently no hard and fast rules. Originality and beauty excuse any extremes; and yet though originality is so ardently desired the general effect of the mode exhibits is not bizarre or spectacular. I think I have never known a time when French fashions struck me as so extravagant yet in such extraordinarily good taste.

The loose long casaque, without sleeves, has figured largely in the coat display and in linen is to be a particularly emphasized feature of the midsummer modes in Trouville. Already in Paris stunning linen costumes or costumes of linen in combination with other material, such as the popular gros tulle or heavy net, have been displayed.

COLLEGE GIRLS ARE CARELESS

"My troubles begin with vacation," said the matron of a girls' college. "Don't talk to me about the carelessness of boys—they are in it with the girls. May be it is because we expect more of the girls. Here's my experience; judge for yourself. The first crowd got off on the special, which left at 7 p. m. Before 8 next morning I had telegrams galore. Jeweled, fraternity pins, lace waists, a princess gown left hanging in a closet, a diamond ring and an opal necklace were a few of the things telegraphed for. One student left five shirt waists, her new gymnasium shoes and all of her small things. Washcloth, toothbrush, soap cup, whiskbroom, and never even wrote for them—forgot she ever had them, I guess.

"Do you know, I don't believe ten girls in the whole college had more than two-thirds of their belongings. They all left all their toilet articles. I think college life makes girls careless and slipshod. I asked the dean if one of the girls was very wealthy. 'Why, no, I don't think so—they are comfortably fixed, I believe, but not rich. What made you ask?'

"What made me ask? That girl left six almost new pairs of shoes, two hats, all her toilet articles, telegraphed for if found—leave those, two silver spoons, a lot of books, a beautifully carved sandalwood box and any number of small things—could not get them in her trunk, she said. Do you wonder I thought her family must be rich?"

"Sweaters, hot water bags, handsome waists by the dozen, aren't even written for. One girl did write for her bible she had forgotten and needed very much. When they leave valuable things we send them C. O. D., and of course forward all things written or telegraphed for if found—wagonload after wagonload of stuff, trash of all kinds taken from their rooms.

"It's a grand harvest for the maids. They find more than they can carry away. After a while they stop taking powder, shoe polish—black, brown and white—bottles of witch hazel, camphor, alcohol and tonics—never heard of so many kinds of tonic. They look with scorn on nail brushes and tooth powders. They really have more towels, handkerchiefs and washcloths than they can carry away. It seems an awful waste to me to have good things go in the trash hampers when I know all the mothers aren't rich and many have denied themselves to send their daughters to college."

Olive Oil for Health.
Many women exhaust their system by not taking daily care of their health. Those who are troubled to know how to proceed should take a tablespoonful of olive oil daily. It is good for the skin, the digestion and the liver, making them do their work well. Fill a wineglass partly with water, then put in the oil and more water, grip it down and you will not taste it. Get the best olive oil that is to be got. This is a treatment that may not suit everybody—it does suit most people—but ask your doctor, because he may know of some bodily peculiarity that might make it disagreeable. There is no treatment that will suit everybody, but in nine cases out of ten those who follow this advice will testify to its wisdom and will be quite astonished at the result. It makes you vigorous, brisk and not overburdened.

To Clean Paintings.
To clean oil painting that is covered with dirt and fly specks wipe the paint from the painting with a soft cloth. Put a little linseed oil in a saucer and, dipping a finger in the oil, rub the painting gently. It will require time and patience, but the effect will repay you. Artists say that in cleaning a painting nothing but the fingers dipped in oil or in water should be used.

Where Dress Fads Originate.
A number of popular actresses are responsible for many pretty fashions, says a writer. Miss Lillian Brathwaite set the fashion of bugle-trimmed dresses; Camille Clifford created the close-fitting princess gown; Miss Marie Tompset is responsible for a pretty coat with short sleeves. Sarah Bernhardt ruled the sleeve fashion for a time, while Mrs. Langtry gave a number of clever dress ideas to the public. There have been skillful modifications in all of Musicals at Country Club.

In spite of the rain last evening the musicals at the South Omaha Country club were given with effect before a fair sized audience. Mrs. J. D. It consisted of eight or ten numbers, mostly by South Omaha people, and some from Omaha.

The management has determined to require all visitors at the regular Friday evening dances to show their membership tickets hereafter. It is thought that some people who had no membership have been in the habit of imposing on the privileges of the club members.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

New Ordinance Introduced for Opening of Twenty-Fourth Street.

CORRECTS ERROR IN OLD ONE

Council Takes Reces Until Thursday Morning, When It Will Meet to Pass on the Monthly Payroll.

The city council held a short, but busy, session Tuesday night. The only important measure to come up was the ordinance to correct the error in the ordinance for the opening of Twenty-fourth street in front of Creighton college. This was read the first and second times and referred. Another ordinance was for the purchase of a number of lots in Mayne Place for park purposes. These lots are in a depression and will be improved by the Park board.

The council did not adjourn, but took a recess to Thursday morning at 9 o'clock, when the monthly payroll will be presented.

A communication from Reed Bros., offering to deed a tract of land fifty feet wide from the south line of Guise's addition to Binney street was referred to a committee. The offer would have the effect of opening Twenty-eighth street fifty feet wide upon the cancellation of taxes assessed at $204, but the land could only be used for street purposes.

Councilman Bedford introduced a resolution as follows:

Resolved, That the city engineer be instructed to notify the street railway company to abate the frogpond nuisance at the intersection of Thirtieth and Spalding streets, or to stock it with bulbheads and plant weeping willows to protect them.

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

William A. Higgins was named in place of Benjamin Robidoux on the board of appraisement for the extension of A street and O. A. Scott, G. F. Sheppard and John McCaffery as appraisers for the opening of Webster street.

The ordinance for the opening of Twenty-fourth street was vetoed and the veto sustained, after Elasser had made a speech criticizing the old ordinance.

Gas Commissioner Reports.
The report of the gas commissioner showed the result of recent tests in that office.

The Park board requested the purchase of certain lots in Mayne place for park purposes.

Appraisers reported damages of $1,400 for the opening of Hickory street from Seventeenth to Eighteenth street. Elasser moved that the report be rejected and this was done after Elasser had voted against his own motion and corrected himself.

The report of appraisers on the opening of Paul street from Twenty-first to Twenty-third was referred to the committee of the whole. The report carried $2,000.

An invitation was received from the League of American Municipalities requesting the council to send delegates to the convention to be held at Norfolk September 18 to 20. Councilman Elasser wanted the mayor, comptroller and three councilmen to be sent at public expense. The matter went over until Monday.

The Real Estate exchange requested the council to have street signs placed at all corners where they do not now exist.

Employees of the street cleaning department asked for an increase in wages from 25¢ cents an hour to 35 cents and the matter will come up before the committee of the whole.

John G. Willis protested against the condition of curbing along his lots and the paving committee will consider it.

Petitions were received for paving Hamilton street from Twenty-fifth to Fortieth and Twenty-eighth street from Dodge to Davenport.

Teamsters Ask Water Trough.
A petition was received from a large number of teamsters asking for a watering trough at Thirtieth and Chicago streets.

The city attorney was authorized to confess judgment in the sum of $300 in the personal injury damage case brought by Helen Goodwin.

Bids were requested for the purchase of the house on lot 6, block 13, Orchard Hill addition.

McKay & Cathro were awarded the contract for the construction of a storm water sewer on Leavenworth street, from Forty-sixth to Forty-eighth. The bid was much lower than those received on first advertising.

Ordinances introduced included one to change the grade of Charles street from Twenty-second to Twenty-fourth; changing grade of Locust street to Florence boulevard and Nineteenth, from Binney street to center of block south of Corby; to change the grade of Twenty-seventh street from Lake to Miami and Ohio street from Twenty-seventh street to Twenty-eighth avenue; changing grade of Park street from Thirty-fourth to Thirty-fifth; to open Twenty-fourth street from Cass to the alley south of Burt; from Cass Ordinances on third reading were passed, as follows: To repave Clark street from Sherman avenue to Twenty-fourth street; creating sewer district No. 34; to pave Twenty-eighth avenue from California street to Central boulevard; changing curb lines of Ohio street between Twenty-fifth and Twenty-fourth; changing curb lines of Forty-first street between Davenport and Page; changing curb lines of Lafayette avenue between Thirty-third and Thirty-fourth; changing curb lines of Seventeenth street from Willis avenue to alley north of Lake street; establishing grade of Thirty-first avenue and other streets from Jackson to Leavenworth; changing grade of Emmet street between Thirty-first avenue and Thirty-third street; ordering grading of Evans street from Twenty-fourth to Twenty-seventh; changing curb lines of Douglas street between Twenty-fifth and Twenty-sixth avenues; changing grade of Twenty-eighth avenue from Chicago street to alley between Cass and California.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Cudahy Company Completing Sanitary Improvements in Beef House.

HOG HOUSE IS TO COME NEXT

Musicals at the Country Club Attracts a Large Number and Proves to Be Most Entertaining Affair.

The sanitary improvements which have been under way at the Cudahy packing plant for several months are approaching completion. The largest undertaking was the construction of cement floors for the first and second stories of the beef house. These are practically finished and represent an immense amount of work. The result is a floor which in every way meets the requirements of the government regulations. Aside from the flooring, the company is working on the roof, putting in a system of overhead lighting. This has been the work needed in the beef house. As soon as these operations are completed improvements will be undertaken in the hog house, where the demands have been as great for repairs as in the other departments. The company has done little toward erecting any complete buildings during the last year. A small addition was made to the office.

Knife and Pitcher as Weapons.
Robert Borders and Charles Thomas, both colored, got into a wrangle Monday night, which led to blows. Thomas seized a glass pitcher and used it as a weapon. He broke it over Borders' head and the sharp edges of the glass cut long gashes in the scalp. Borders then drew a jackknife and made a lunge at Thomas, striking him in the back. A gash three inches long and an inch deep through the heavy muscles of the back was the result. Both men were arrested and taken to the city jail, where the police surgeon sewed up their wounds. They had little to say of the trouble, except that they were good friends ordinarily and would be again. Thomas said if he ever got out of jail he would surely leave town, as he had had nothing but trouble since he arrived here. They were fined for disturbing the peace yesterday afternoon.

Child Taken from Foster Mother.
The juvenile officers have caused the arrest of Mrs. John Mangold, who was brought into public notice several weeks ago by her attempt to shoot herself in Alhambra. She fired a bullet into her breast, inflicting a deep flesh wound, though it was not at all dangerous. She was cared for at the South Omaha hospital and has but lately been able to leave that institution. She has an adopted child which has been with her for three years or more. It is said that she intended to leave the city last night to join her husband in Denver. The juvenile authorities have been investigating the case and it is likely the woman will be deprived of the custody of the adopted child. The reason assigned is that the woman is not a fit party to be entrusted with the care of a child.

Police Help Hunt Wife.
When Jim Jones, colored, returned to his home from the packing houses, he found that his wife was gone and was thrown into considerable consternation by the statement of the immediate neighbors that another colored man by the name of Al Vance had come to the house and, using a knife as a means of intimidation, had kidnapped Mrs. Jones. Jones traced the pair to Indian Hill and then went to the police and secured warrants for the arrest of Vance. The police went with him to the place where the parties were said to have secreted themselves. Captain Turnquist assisted in the hunt. Both the man and woman were taken to jail.

It is said that on other occasions Jones has had trouble with his wife and that she has even refused to live with him at times.
