Mr. D. V. Sholes, Omaha, Neb.

Dear Sir:

I want to thank you for that deligntful auto ride you gave me a few evenings ago to Keystone Park I did not imagine there was anything around Omaha with such processing the such process and beautiful drives as was anything around Omaha with such magnificent views and beautiful drives as we found in KEYSTONE PARK. In a few years it is going to be the most beautiful place for a home around Omaha.

ings and is known in London and Paris and Europe generally as a famous painter. In Lininger's Art gallery there are also some early paintings of his, which attracted Mr. Lininger's attention just before Borglum's first trip to Europe. He is also a great sculptor, as will be understood by the fact that he was aslected to adorn the famous church of St. John the Divine of New York, which, when finished, will be one of the finest ecclesiastical edifices in the world. It will also be remembered that it was this sculptor who had a controversy with the church authorities about the angels and their sex and de-strayed the first pieces of sculpture made 206 of St. John the Divine rather than have them in dispute. The other brother, Solon H. Borgium, although a painter as well as a sculptor, is devoting his entire gifts to sculpture. He originally studied under his older brother and afterwards in Europe for several years. He is famous for pictures of western life, They have been on view at all the expositions at Buffalo, St. Louis and Portland. His more recent works are those of General Gordon and Buck O'Neill in Arisons. Aoth J. Gutson and Solon H. Borgium maintain studies in New York.
