Robert A. Ball, a local employment agent. was given a castigation in police court by Judge Crawford Saturday morning which made every person in that judicial chamber sit up and take careful notice. He lambasted Ball in terms that steamed as they came out. The case was a charge of swindling brought against Ball by Charles Wesser, a young man who was duped out of $25 by a man to whom Ball sent him for emmins of Des Moines, chairman; Dr. Mar-Wallace, operating an office in the Exchange building in South Omaha and was required to put up a bond of $25. He was put at selling bridle bits on the street Club women of Iowa are being urged to When he tried to quit he was refused his work for an extension of kindergartens $25 and consequently filed the complaint

Another victim of Wallace was brought into court and testified to a similar story No definite conection could be established however, between Ball and Wallace, so Ball was discharged after the severe reprimand by that court.

FAKER WITH NAMES IN CITY Fellow Who Collects Easy Money on Graft is Again in Omaha.

H. H. Miller, W. H. Mentor, ir., F. Thompson, or W. Hag, or whatever his name is, has again broken loose, and the report is that this time he has added thirty-five new names to his list of members of the Western Immigration bureau, the members of which pay the above named person $60 each.

His latest scheme to catch the unwary real estate men of the state is a blank contract by which, for the payment of $60, he agrees to let them join his association and get all the railroad transportation they want for nothing. He has a mileage book printed "W. P. A." on each coupon. The Omaha police are looking for the man, as he was reported to have come to Omaha Friday night.

The police notified the Omaha Real Estate exchange of the presence of the man in the city and the exchange immediately apprised its members of the nature of his operations.

McLeod. "The roads dong cusiness out of Omaha are getting to be so good I do not have to come to Omaha very often to investigate them," said Eben McLeod, chairman of the Western Passenger association, who with his wife and two children are visiting relatives in Omaha over Sunday. "It has been over a year since I was in Omaha and I notice vast improvements in the city, which are astounding." "The railroads are but carrying out the expressed wishes of the governors and legislatures of the various states when they make all rates at 2 cents a mile and make no variation for conventions, disabled soldiers and such other people as were accustomed to travel on reduced rates. These governors and legislatures told the rail Auditor Durkee of the Burlington left roads they could make plenty of money Friday for St. Louis. at 2 cents a mile and to go shead and W. L.
