BIG VOTE IS ANTICIPATED

Polls to Be Open from Seven in the Morning Until Seven in Evening-Location of Polling Booths in Various Wards.

A large number of the leading business water works franchise situation and to meeting was a pro-franchise one and comthe proposition. President E. H. Merriam of the Commercial club acted as chairman and among the speakers were Congressman W. I. Smith, Ernest E. Hart, president of the ter. First National bank; former Stave Senator William Groneweg and other men prominent in business and professional circles. The meeting was a most enthusiastic one and each one present volunteered his services at the polls today to prevent, if pos sible, the defeat of the proposed new fram chise In explaining the purpose of the meeting Mr. Merriam said: 'The time has come when the business men of this city and those who represent business interests must assert themselves. The time has come when we must not permit politicians who have no material interests to protect, to mislead the people by false statements and by malicious attacks on reputable business men." Mr. Groneweg stated that he had examand that he could see nothing objectionable in it. The city's interests, he said for one, proposed to vote for it.

Hart States His Position. Ernest E. Hart was pronounced in his apgranting of the franchise, the company, he explained, would be in a position to furnish the improved service demanded. but without the charter it could do nothing. So long as there was no provision for adequate fire protection, Mr. Hart said, he, like other investors, would not think of putting $1 into new manufacturing plants or buildings. In this connection he stated that he had recently been in conference with certain parties who desired to locate a big factory here, but would not as long as the water question was unsettled. Mr. Hart also stated that he, with other local Transfer company's building, which burned as he did not interfere with the curbing

BROWN AND BLUE ARMIES CAMP

Ten Thousand Dollars Appropriated by the Legislature Not Enough to Compile the Roster of lows Regiments.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Aug. 6-(Special)-Det Moince is filled with soldiers. They are here in all uniforms and all degrees of rank, from high officials of the United States army down to the private in the rear ranks of the Iowa National Guard Soldiers singly and in companies were marching through the streets all day long and everything is bustle in preparation for the maneuvers. The guard troops went into camp tonight, the Brown army a short distance north of the city limits on the west side of the Des Moines river and the Blue army just outside of Polk City, twenty miles farther north. Tomorrow the troops will march a little closer to each other and start in on the preliminary novements.

Aside from the regular army officers who are assigned here for duty as referees or as officers attached to one or the other of the two armies, it is expected that a inumber of other high officials will reach he city tonight and tomorrow to watch he maneuvers and study the success of the guard and regular army maneuvering together.

Major Boughton, U. S. A., chief umpire, oday announced the program. At 7:30 tonorrow night the officers will assemble to discuss the work of the following day and receive instructions. At 7 a. m. Wednesday the companies will begin an attack on an imaginary enemy and each ompany separately will be given a military problem to work out with discussion n the ground after it is worked out. At 2 in the afternoon Wednesday the program will be with battallons in attack with problems to work out and discussion following. At 7:30 in the evening there will be officers' meeting and discussion Thursday morning there will be regimental attacks of imaginary enemies with disussion on the ground. Friday and Satarday will be spent in the real maneuvers. The trial of H. B. Dickinson and Dr. E. Gadd for the murder of Miss Irene Blydenburg of Eldora is to be held at the September term of the Polk county district ourt. They were indicted in October, 1906. and at the time the case attracted much attention. In addition to this case there ire twenty-one other criminal cases on he docket, many of them prominent, among hem the cases against D. C. Blodgett, the can who wanted the governor to call the egislature together to impeach the Polk ounty district judges and later filed an nformation against Judge Howe of the district court, charging him with injury.
