NOTHING BUT HOME BEER. Father Daily Tells Good One on Loyalty of Milwaukee People to Their Fame.

Father John Daily, the distinguished humanitarian of Milwaukee, who spoke Monday at the Bellevue summer assembly, is just as good a story teller as he is a lecturer. Speaking of the thing that made Milwaukee famous, to a group of friends at the assembly grounds, he said: "The loyalty of the average Milwaukeean to the fame of the city is not confined to the high-up folks. Some time ago, just when makes no difference, a boy named called at a Milwaukee home and tried to persuade the housewife to invest in his book. "I had got no time to talk mit you. Go away. I don't want to buy pencils or sewing machines or washboards. You take so much of my time away now," said the woman.

"But, madam, you should have this volume in your library. See, it is the works of the great Shakespeare, and so cheap, and you can pay for it a little down and only 10 cents a day for the rest until it is all paid for," persisted the agent.

"She seemed at once interested and replied: "Take a little down and 10 cent a day for dot Shakspeer? Ach, himmel, no. Ve got better pier here. Ve got Schiltz, Blatz and Pabst for 5 cent. You're crazy."

"But, madam, this is not beer, it is a book."

"Nicht book for you. Ve had got plenty book here, too."

OMAHA RENDERING AND FEED CO., City Garbage Contractors. Phone Douglas 280.

Complaint has been received by the health commissioner, charging that a number of drivers of garbage wagons have demanded pay for the removal of garbage from dwelling houses, in many cases basing their demands on the allegation that the garbage is mixed with material not permitted in the cans under the contract with the rendering company. Mr. McPherson, head of the company, is indignant at this action of drivers and has prepared the above letter to the public, in which he repudiates the demand. He says that on the first round at least all cans are expected to empty garbage cans, regardless of contents, waiting until the people fully understand the situation before enforcing the rules strictly; and that he desires citizens to report to him each time a demand is made for pay, so that the driver may be disciplined.
