CREAM HEARING STILL ON

Government Expert Attacks Figures of Former Chief of Bureau. SAMPLE PRIMARY BALLOTS OUT

Democratic Candidates for Judge in the Omaha District Are Omitted on Account of Nonobservance of the Law.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Aug. 9.—Special.—On the witness stand before the State Railway commission today, where cream rates are under investigation, Assistant Chief B. D. White of the dairy division of the Agricultural department at Washington testified that many misstatements occurred in the annual report of the former chief of his division.

When confronted with the statement of the report the co-operative creameries of Minnesota and Iowa were dazed rapidly, there being only about one-third the number of a few years ago. Mr. White stated positively that it was untrue. He declared he had himself compiled the statistics on which the report was based, and no such conclusion could have been drawn.

Democratic Not on Ticket. Secretary of State Junkin is sending out sample ballots today to the various county clerks by which they are to get up the primary ballots.

declared he was more surprised when he saw the process demonstrated, and the finished product being used. This company intends securing franchise in the leading cities of the west, and it is anticipated that Omaha is one of these.

BEATRICE—A. A. Reed departed for Omaha, where he will take up work in the teachers' institute, after which he will go to Lincoln to take up his duties as inspector of state high schools. He was accompanied by his mother, who will go to Charleston, Ia., for a visit.

BEATRICE—The town of Cortland, half way between here and Lincoln on the Union Pacific, will hold a street fair August 22 and 24.

ALBION—The old settlers' organization will hold its annual meeting and picnic Thursday, August 15, at the fair grounds, Ex-Governor V. A. Poynter will deliver the principal address.

ALBION—The officers of the Boone County Fair association are busy at this time putting everything in order for their thirty-third consecutive exhibit. A good addition has been made to the grandstand and the old part somewhat remodeled. There will seat 2,000 people. Many improvements have been made but the greatest one is a complete water system that has been installed, with a storage capacity of 40 barrels. More land has been bought at $20 per acre. The fair is now in full swing and will give an exhibition August 15 and 20. The city will give free concerts and other attractions on the streets each evening.

NEHAWKA—Congressman E. M. Pollard has been obliged to refuse an invitation to attend the National Irrigation congress at Sacramento, Cal., September 2 to 7, on account of other engagements previously made.

RED CLOUD—Fred Hanson was arrested and taken to jail for bootlegging.

RED CLOUD—A lecture and chink talk on "The Philosophy of the Beautiful," by J. Lorenzo Zwickey last night, closed the Chautauqua assembly in Red Cloud for the year 1907. The attempt has proved popular here and steps were taken Tuesday to make it a permanent annual enterprise. Different methods will be adopted next year to enable it to meet expenses.

BEIRLIN—The large new school building being erected here is being opened and will be ready for occupancy by the middle of September.

COOK—There is much talk here of submitting the question of issuing bonds for a new school building to the voters of this district. The proposition was defeated twice last year, but the increased number of pupils in the schools for the coming term makes it almost necessary that something be done to accommodate them.

COOK—There was another heavy storm here Wednesday evening. Little damage was done here but much was reported from NEBRASKA and YIELDING.

NEBRASKA CITY—When Mayor Steinhart was elected mayor, he said there would be no gambling in this city and refused to license any of the places where games had been played before. A few days ago Chief of Police Yates suspected there was a game over Eader Bros' saloon, and he made a raid and arrested five men whom he charged with gambling. Later he had a search warrant issued and found a poker table. The men took a continuance of thirty days and were held in the sum of $300 each.

NEBRASKA CITY—S. M. P. Madison, who has been here several years a resident of this city, being in the employ of several local clothing stores, and who left here for Kansas, making his home one of the best of floor walkers in one of the large stores, has gone insane and will be taken to an asylum. He was formerly a resident of Omaha.

ALMA—A. C. Shanlberger of Alma reports that his second crop of alfalfa is making a fine crop of seed, and he thinks it will produce at least fifteen bushels per acre, which will readily sell for $5 per bushel, if not better.

ALMA—Five new residences are in course of construction in Alma and will cost about $7,000. Besides about $8,000 is being spent to the new fair grounds, adjoining Alma, making one of the best equipped fair grounds in southwestern Nebraska.
