SHAW ON BUSINESS OUTLOOK

None of the Real Sources of the People's Wealth Are Yet Affected.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Leslie M. Shaw, former secretary of the treasury, authorized by the National Association of Manufacturers, in a report on the business outlook today, said: "Our farms produce more than $5,500,000,000 per annum, and the prospect is good for an average crop. Our mines yield more than $1,800,000,000 and our forests more than $1,800,000,000. And neither of these sources of wealth has been exhausted. The output of our factories, in other than food products, is over $12,000,000,000 and no fires have been extinguished. The railroads earn more than $2,000,000,000 and they are all in successful operation. The payrolls of our factories and railways aggregate approximately $2,500,000,000 and the scale of wages has not been reduced. In other words, the real sources of the people's wealth have not yet been affected, and the ability of industry to produce goods is not impaired. The market prices of these products, however, are low, and the scale of wages is not as high as it should be. Psychological reasons are never wanting.

"If I judge correctly, the people will have exactly what they expect. If those who have money in the banks withdraw it and lock it up, if the banks refuse to grant accommodations, and if the consuming public declines to spend money, then we will soon witness the effects. Let those who think that times of disaster follow each other at regular intervals bear in mind that this country never yet experienced a period of severe depression that was not traceable to financial or economic regulation."

"In 1892 the redemption of greenback silver instead of gold was openly advocated; the party in power was under promise to remove the protective tariff from our industries and the free coinage of silver was proclaimed. The country might have survived any one of the sources of alarm, but it could not survive all three.

"At this time no one questions our financial system and the tariff will not be touched for at least eighteen months.

"Some check in the speed at which we are going is most desirable, and the checking process has probably begun. It will require a fair measure of confidence and courage to prevent undue conservatism. Capital cannot be forced into activity, but it can be forced out of activity. I have never seen the time when universal sanity was more essential to our well being."

STRIKER CHARGE UNPROVEN

Claim of Western Union Being Unsanitary Dissipated by Connell.

HEALTH OFFICER INVESTIGATES

Locality the Telegraphers' Affairs Continue to Turn on the Case of the Discharged Operator, Archibald.

In answer to the complaint filed by a committee of striking telegraphers, alleging unsanitary conditions in the offices of the Western Union Telegraph company, Health Commissioner Connell has investigated conditions and found no ground for the complaint.

The strikers said certain rooms in the Western Union offices were being used for working rooms, dining rooms and sleeping rooms and resulting conditions endangered the health of the men working there. They said some of the plumbing was unsanitary. Dr. Connell found both complaints ungrounded.

Since the strike began many of the operators who refused to walk out have been sleeping in the building, preferring to stay there day and night rather than to be subjected to the unpleasantness of meeting the strikers on the street, but Dr. Connell says the sleeping quarters are pleasant.

At strike headquarters Monday evening the only news available was that the strikers had succeeded in making a union with the company, but the statement was made that the company would be asked to sign the scale at once. It is said that the Uppelle Grain company has not yet signed, but has agreed to the union's demands, except in one particular, on which an agreement is soon expected.

Both the Western Union and the Postal Telegraph companies reported they got through the heavy work of Monday in a fairly satisfactory way. On the other hand, the strikers seem confident that neither company could have handled all the business offered and got it over the wires in a manner satisfactory to patrons.

"NORMAL CONDITIONS RESUMED"

Heads of Telegraph Companies Say Strike Over.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—President Clowry said today: "The Western Union company's force of operators is sufficient to handle its traffic with little or no delay. In fact, it can be said that normal conditions have been resumed. The telegraphers' strike, altogether, is a thing of the past."

E. J. Nally, vice president and general manager of the Postal Telegraph Cable company today gave out the following: "Noon reports from all points east, west, north and south indicate that we start this morning under almost normal conditions, with improved traffic and increased forces. Not a single place in the company's system this morning where we are not giving good service and where we are not prepared to give prompt handling to any business the public may file with us. So far as the company is concerned the strike is over."

BROKERS ARE HOLDING OUT

Moors Being Put Forth by Unionists to Make Them Sign.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—The committee of the striking telegraphers today visited the brokerage firms which have not yet signed the scale demanded by the union and gave them until 1 o'clock today to accede to the union demands or have a strike.

Four of the large brokerage houses in the city have not yet signed the scale, and they declare they will not sign.

Many of the messenger boys of both the Western Union and Postal companies returned to work today. The boys struck on the day following the walkout of the operators.

There was no material development in the telegraph strike situation today. Both sides report the conditions as satisfactory to them. No progress is being made in the direction of peace.

The leased wire operators in six brokerage houses where the union scale was refused were called out this afternoon.

Mr. Gompers was asked when he thought the time would arrive and replied that he could not say, that it might be "in an hour, a week or a month, or perhaps not at all."

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—(Special.)—Agents for cars made by the Pope Manufacturing company and its allied interests in different parts of the country yesterday received the following self-explanatory communication from Albert L. Pope, who was appointed receiver by the courts:

"The business will be continued without interruption by the receiver under an order from the court, and our product will not suffer any delay on account of the new conditions. Any rumors that we have offered for sale any of our 1907 cars to any other than our regularly appointed dealers or that we have offered these cars at less than regular list price, are without foundation. These cars will be sold in the future as in the past, only to our regularly authorized dealers, and at the present established prices."

CROP PREDICTIONS IN EAST

Wheat May Reach 850,000,000 Bushels and Corn Over Two Billion and a Half.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—(Special.)—It has been the conviction of the Price Current that the possibilities of the crop pointed to about 850,000,000 bushels, and this appears to be well supported in the official indications, notwithstanding the lowering of the average condition of spring wheat the past month, a feature not fully in line with the views of some observers as to comparative conditions in the northwest.

The corn crop is not yet so near a basis of certainty as wheat, but the prevailing conditions during the past month also may have favored the process of betterment of the position of the crop, and it can be accepted with confidence that it will reach 2,000,000,000 to 2,200,000,000 bushels, or a quantity greater than credited to any crop previous to the last two harvests—the possibility appearing favorable to equaling the earlier one of those two crops.

The official data appear to indicate about 875,000,000 bushels of oats, against 905,000,000 credited to the crop last year. Very likely this estimate for this season will not be followed by a higher final reckoning. The crop appears likely to be deficient in quality to more than usual extent.

The average condition of the rye crop when harvested is shown to have been moderately lower than last year, when the crop was credited with a total yield of 33,375,000 bushels, compared with which there appears likely to be shown some decrease, but larger production than either of the years next preceding. The average condition of barley is considerably lower than a year ago, and the acreage 2 1/2 per cent short, the present situation pointing to about 175,000,000 bushels, against last year's record of 170,000,000, which decidedly exceeded any estimate for previous crops and makes it appear likely that a revision of average basis last year may have contributed to the apparent gain.

The indications for potatoes appear to favor a large production as last year, the only previous record of equal quantity being for 1905.

The yield of hay is not officially a matter of estimate, but the indications are for larger production than last year.

TITLE TO LAND IS SECURED

Isthmian Canal Commission Has Vast Experience with Land Owners.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Gradually the government of the United States, through the Isthmian Canal commission, is obtaining title to all the lands it needs in the canal zone ceded by the Panama government for canal purposes. Some of these tracts were in the hands of private parties when the grant was made and negotiations with them or other proceedings have been necessary to secure title. In some instances this has been accomplished without any great difficulty, and at almost nominal price, but in others the commission of arbitration appointed for that purpose has not been so fortunate. In one case the owners were insistent in asking a price a score or more times greater than the commission was willing to give.

During the recent meeting of the arbitration commission an agreement was reached on the price to be paid to the owners for three islands in Panama bay and for the improvement now there. They also agreed on the amount to be paid to certain property owners in Panama who had claims pending for damages done by a big fire which swept the city several years ago and which, it was asserted in behalf of the claimants, originated from work being done by the American authorities in cleaning up the city. In other cases the commissioners have failed to reach an agreement as to the price to be paid for certain property wanted, and these will be referred to an umpire unless through private negotiations a settlement can be reached.

CALIFORNIA MAN ROBBED

Wealthy Ranchman Sings and Relieved of $1,000 in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 19.—John Schmidt, a wealthy ranchman of southern California living not far from Los Angeles, was sandbagged, drugged and robbed in this city today. At 4 o'clock this morning he found himself in the tenderloin district, recovering from the attack. He was able to give a clear account of the affair to the police, which led to the arrest of two young men who later admitted they had drugged and robbed Schmidt. The Californian says he was struck from behind on the street. The next thing he remembered was two men leaning over him in a bathroom. They gave him something which he claims contained knockout drops, and when he regained consciousness he discovered that all his money, nearly $1,000, was gone. The money was not found on the men arrested.

CHANGE IN UNIFORM NEEDED

Enlisted Men of the Army in Tropical Climate Need New Form of Attire.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Change in uniform for the enlisted men of the army, with a view to making the uniform practical for every day service purposes is receiving attention at the War department just as the matter of changes in the uniform of the enlisted men of the navy is just now being agitated and which forms the basis of the work of a board of which Captain Osterhaus is chairman. Various recommendations are being submitted at the War department for the subject, one of which has come from Colonel L. M. Maus, whose observations are based on his experience with the militia in the field. He believes that the present regulation fall hat is unsuited for campaign purposes in a hot or tropical climate and that the infantry marching trousers should be made full around the knee and the cuff extended down the leg far enough to be enclosed by the top of the marching shoe, thus doing away with the legging.
