COUNCIL BLUFFS

CHURCHMEN FOLLOW FAIR

Methodist Conference Convenes Monday, September Ninth.

PROMINENT MEN TO ATTEND

Visiting Preachers Will Occupy Many of the Pulpits of the City the Sunday They Are Here.

The week following the street fair and carnival, with its attendant good roads convention, Council Bluffs will be the scene of a gathering of a far different character. The forty-eighth annual conference of the Des Moines district of the Methodist Episcopal church will open Monday, September 9, and continue over Sunday, September 15. The conference will bring to Council Bluffs not only prominent men of the denomination in this state, but men of note from other parts of the country will be in attendance and take part in the program.

Among the prominent churchman who will speak before the conference are Rev. William A. Quayle, D. D., pastor of St. James' church, Chicago; Rev. H. K. Carroll, D. D., of New York City; Rev. J. B. Trimble, D. D., of Kansas City; Bishop Daniel Ayers Goodsell of Boston, who will preside over the conference; Dr. Charles M. Boswell of Philadelphia and others of lesser note.

The visiting ministers will fill the pulpits of several of the local churches on Sunday, the closing day of the conference. The following are the appointments made so far:

First Congregational — Morning, C. L. Fifer; evening, A. M. Shea.

First Presbyterian — Morning, Rev. T. McK. Stuart, former pastor of Broadway; evening C. L. Nye.

First Baptist—Morning, Nathan Evans; evening, Victor West.

Second Presbyterian—Morning, E. W. F. ReQua; evening, C. C. Smith.

Trinity Methodist Episcopal — Evening, Rev. Dr. Edmund M. Mills.

Fifth Avenue Methodist Episcopal — Evening, Rev. Dr. S. K. Carroll.

Epworth Methodist—Evening, G. Augustus Jones.

During the entire conference services will be held daily on the streets. Dr. Bushingham of Chicago and Rev. G. Augustus Jones will have charge of the corps of street preachers.

At the evening session on Wednesday Congressman Walter I. Smith will deliver an address of welcome. The conference proper will not open until Wednesday morning, the two previous days being occupied with preliminaries, such as the examination of students and reception of delegates.

Program of the Week.

This is the complete program:

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 9.

Still at Sea Over Bridge.

"I am of the opinion that it would be best for the city council to adopt definite plans and specifications for the concrete bridges proposed to be placed over Indian creek at Frank and North Eighth streets and then advertise for bids," said Councilman Maloney on his return from Des Moines, where he went with Councilmen Younkerman and Smith and City Engineer Etnyre to inspect a bridge constructed by the M. W. Stark company of that city. The bridge, the company stated, is similar to the ones it proposed putting up here, according to its bid.

The committee, which arrived home shortly after midnight Saturday, appears to be divided as to the suitability of the bridge for Indian creek. Some doubt as to the bridge being of sufficient size and capacity for this city exists in the minds of some of the committee, while City Engineer Etnyre expressed the opinion that a bridge on somewhat similar lines but larger might fill the bill. If the dimensions of the bridge were increased, naturally the M. W. Stark company would raise their bid accordingly.

The council is slated to meet in committee of the whole Wednesday afternoon, at which time the officials who went to Des Moines probably will make a report.

Matters in District Court.

The September term of district court will be convened Tuesday by Judge N. W. Macy. The docket is the largest in the history of the Fifteenth judicial district and is due to the fact that nearly 1,000 cases in which the Portland Gold Mining company appealed from the assessment of the individual stockholders for taxation in Pottawattamie county are listed, but will not come up for trial at this term. Even without the Portland cases, the docket is an unusually heavy one.

The grand jury will be impaneled Tuesday and its deliberations will, it is expected, keep it in session for at least two weeks. There are a large number of cases to be brought before the grand jury this term, and with the probable indictments the criminal calendar this term will be considerably heavier than usual, as there are over seventy cases carried over from the March term.

These comprise the grand jury:

John Boliger, Boomer; Lewis Shields, Norwalk; W. Currice, Crescent; Morris Hough, Hazel Dell; James O'Neal, Kane; F. W. Beck, Lewis; Nick Kirsch, Keg Creek; George W. Crossley, Garner; J. R. Wilmott, Neola; Uriah McLean, York; W. M. Perkins, Rockford; J. A. Brockman, Silver Creek.

Judge Macy has announced that he will adjourn court for the carnival week and reconvene it Monday, September 9. The petit jury is summoned to appear Monday, September 16.

Old Settlers' Reunion Postponed.

The annual reunion of the Old Settlers' association of Mills, Fremont and Pottawattamie counties, which was to have been held Thursday of this week at Lake Manawa, has been postponed until carnival week and the gathering will take place Friday, September 6, within the street fair and carnival enclosure, according to present plans.

The committee on arrangements consists of Rev. Henry De Long, president of the association; Dr. S. D. Tobey and Attorney Frank Shinn of Carson. City Clerk W. F. Sapp is secretary of the association. While the program has not been completed, it has been decided to have at least one prominent speaker and brief talks by some of the leading members. With the added attraction of the street fair and carnival, a large attendance is looked for.

This will be the twentieth annual reunion of the old settlers of the three counties, the association having been organized at a meeting held in Macedonia twenty years ago. The late B. F. Clayton of this city was the first president.
