British Parliament Prorogued. Much Work by Both Houses. MUCH WORK FOR MINISTERS. End of Session Permits Attention to Other Phases of Work. TRAVEL FOR SOME MEMBERS

NEXT SEASON TO BE BUSY

Sweeping Reforms Are to Be Attempted When Parliament Meets Next Year and Lords May Suffer.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—With picturesque old time ceremonial, the British Parliament was prorogued today, thus ending one of the longest and most arduous sessions, during which the royal assent was given to over sixty bills which the two houses passed. The members of the House of Commons assembled at noon and shortly afterward they were summoned to the House of Lords, where the king's speech was read. The statements made were of the usual colorless character, referring to the recent royal visits and the friendly relations existing between Great Britain and other powers, the conclusion of the agreement with Britain and the peace conference at The Hague, concluding with a review of the most important bills passed during the session.

While the prorogation enables private members of Parliament to proceed to the enjoyment of the holidays, ministers have prepared a long program for themselves. The president of the board of trade, Mr. Lloyd George, and the president of the local government board, Mr. Burns, are going to Germany, where they will study trade developments and social reforms with the view of the introduction into Great Britain of some of the German methods. The under secretary of the colonies, Winston Spencer Churchill, is starting for Uganda, returning by the Nile valley. The other cabinet ministers will continue the campaign for the reform of the House of Lords and all of them will reassemble in London during the month of November to plan the work of the next session, which, if their promises are carried out, will be busier than the one just closed, as being nearer to a closer contact between the House of Commons and the House of Lords.

Sweeping reforms will be introduced, chief of which will be the licensing education bills and the proposed house reform of regeneration of the port of London. Measures are ready to be introduced into Parliament when it reassembles early in the new year. As soon as one bill is passed another will be presented, thus avoiding the criticism leveled at the chief measures of the past session, that the legislation was hurriedly prepared and that the lords were not given their full to consider the bills brought before the upper house.

RECEIVER STAYS IN CHARGE

Court Makes No Deference Order in Case of Pope Manufacturing Company. HARTFORD, Conn., Aug. 28.—Creditors of the Pope Manufacturing company, whose claims aggregate approximately $750,000, were represented at a hearing before Judge Clark in the superior court today on the confirmation of Albert I. Pope, as temporary and ancillary receiver of the Connecticut assets of the company. It is expected, as a result of the proceedings, that opposition may eventually develop against making the present receiver permanent. After a long discussion over the qualification of nominees as appraisers, only two of whom could be appointed by the court, the court reserved decision on appraisers and issued an order that the hearing be continued until September 10, that the time for filing claims be limited to four months, that the temporary receiver continue the business of the company, and that on September 10 he file a verified report of his delinquency from August 28 to September 10.

KANSAS CITY CHEERS TAFT

Secretary of War Given Ovation at Union Station as He Leaves for Denver.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 28.—Secretary of War William H. Taft this morning resumed his journey westward, departing for the 10:19 Union Pacific train for Denver. The secretary secured a good rest last night and apparently was none the worse for yesterday's experience. After breakfast at the Baltimore hotel he was driven over the city in an automobile, in company with H. M. Reardon and United States Senator William Warner. From the ride the party went direct to the Union station. There Secretary Taft was met by a crowd of people that filled every available space within sight of the station entrance. He was cheered as he passed through a narrow lane of people to his train, from which he bowed an adieu a few minutes later as the start for the west was made.
