FIRE PROOF BUILDINGS re the safest for office purpose, but other requirements are necessary to protect the tenant from losses through this source.

THE BEE BUILDING

Is a fire proof constructed building, having a great number of fire proof vaults, without a boiler room in the basement to increase the dancer. We take every preparties to guard against loss by fire. There are two connecting offices on the fifth floor for rent, one room is tax, the other tax. There are four large windows in the larger room affording plenty of light, and floor has a good vault also, making this combination of rooms the most designable in the building.

On the sixth floor we have two small rooms which can be rented separately or as a suite. antier service, water and lights furnished.

Railways Will Have to Maintain

will adjourn to Krug park, where a grand concert and festival will be given com-

At a meeting of the lighting committee of the city council, held in City Electrician Michaelsen's office Wednesday morning, the city attorney was directed to give an opinion as to whether or not the city has a valid claim against the local railroads for the cost of electric arc lamps which have been maintained by the city along the railroads' right-of-way. Elleven lamps are in dispute, and from now on the railroads 1 will have to maintain them if they are kept up. Members of the committee believe the liability of the railroads extend back to October, 1899, when an ordinance 2,000 was passed placing the burden on them. There is some doubt as to the validity of this ordinance, and if it is declared invalid it is believed the city can still collect the money expended since September 29, 1903, the date of a subsequent resolution on the same subject. In case the older ordinance stands the city will be enabled to collect about $3,900 from the various roads. If it is necessary in controversy and four more have been in use, but have not been paid for either by the city or the railroads. The expense of maintaining the lamps amount to about $825 a year, and it will hereafter fall on
