Old Settlers Lay Their Plans for Big Time at Their Reunion. SEVERAL THOUSAND EXPECTED

SEVERAL THOUSAND EXPECTED

Editors Have Short Program and Propose to Have a Good Time Taking in the Sights of the Carnival. At a meeting in this city yesterday of President Henry DeLong, Secretary W. F. Sapp, Dr. S. B. Tobey and Attorney Frank Shinn of Carson, the committee in charge of arrangements, the program for the nineteenth annual reunion of the Old Settlers' association of Mills, Fremont and Pottawattamie counties, to be held in this city Friday of next week, was formulated. While the association was organized in 1888 there were two years in its history—the years of the Chicago exposition and the Transmississippi exposition in Omaha—no reunions were held, so this is the nineteenth instead of the twenty-first annual gathering. A large attendance is looked for, as at previous reunions there has been an attendance ranging from 4,000 to 5,000. Special invitations have been sent to all the ex-presidents of the association and it is expected that with the exception of Rev. W. M. Brooks, who is now in the west, all will be present. The opening session will be in the carnival grounds and at noon an adjournment will be taken to Lake Manawa, where a basket dinner will be enjoyed, followed by a program of addresses and a business session. This is the program: FORENOON. Assemble at bandstand in Bayless park at 9:30 o'clock. Devotional—Rev. G. R. Gice. President's Address—Rev. Henry DeLong. "Brief History of the Association," Secretary Sapp. Annual Address—Hon. Edward Mitchell of Iowa. ADMISSION—FREE. Afternoon. Short address by Hon. John Y. Stone of Glenwood, Hon. Spencer Smith of Council Bluffs, Hon. L. T. Genung of Council Bluffs, Hon. William E. Eaton of Sidney and others. Business meeting and election of officers. Program for Editors. The members of the Western Iowa Editorial association, which will hold its mid-summer meeting here this Friday afternoon and next week, will not be burdened with an excess of "shop talk," as the program just announced by Secretary E. A. Stevens of Silver City contains but two addresses and one paper. The only other business before the association will be the election of officers, and the balance of the day is devoted to taking in the sights of the street fair and carnival. The editors will hold their meeting in the auditorium of the public library building. In his announcement of the program, Secretary Stevens has this to say: "The general impression among the 'boys' that a short program for this meeting is all that is necessary; the rest of the time to be spent at the carnival which will be held in Council Bluffs at the same time as the balance of the day is devoted to taking in the sights of the street fair and carnival. The editors will hold their meeting in the auditorium of the public library building."

Carroll Man Says He Lost His Money and Cannot Get It Back.

ATTORNEY GENERAL CANNOT ACT

Merton Boy Wins Scholarship in Stock Judging Contest at State Fair, Ankeny Youth Getting Second. (From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Aug. 28.—(Special.)—Attorney General H. W. Byers today received a letter from a Carroll county man complaining that he had lost $300 in a gambling bet in Council Bluffs and asking the attorney general to take some legal action to assist him to recover the money. He states in a letter that he has endeavored to get the county authorities at Council Bluffs to take some action, but without success. General Byers has forwarded a copy of the letter to the county attorney at Council Bluffs with the recommendation that the matter be laid before the grand jury with what evidence the Carroll county man can furnish and may also send a copy to the district court judges with the same recommendation. In the same mail Mr. Byers received a letter from a minister in an Iowa town complaining that gambling and liquor selling in his town was notorious and flagrantly illegal and asking the attorney general to take some action there. He states in the letter that he has endeavored to take no action and that public sentiment was not strong enough to compel action on the part of the local authorities. He closed his letter with the request that under no consideration or circumstances must his name be connected with or made public in any way. The minister was very explicit in explaining that his identity must not be made public in the campaign for morality and the proper observance of the law. The attorney general today refused to give his name or residence to the press. He said that if he would give his name to the law of Iowa does not give him the authority to interfere with the enforcement of the law in a community. He could only recommend to the county attorney and district court judges that they act. Records of cities in which enforcement of the law is being reported to the attorney general. Many Postmasters Here. Postmasters from presidential appointment are meeting in Des Moines today for the purpose of organizing and electing officers. They are meeting in one of the court rooms at the court house. The postmasters of the fourth class are meeting in the supervisors' room in the court house and the Iowa Rural Letter Carriers' association is meeting in the Commercial club rooms. The meetings will continue for three days. Good Corn Weather. The weekly crop bulletin issued today states that the past week has been very good for corn, though, from 3 to 4 degrees below normal in temperature. The amount of moisture was about the normal and all crops and farm work has progressed nicely. Find Brother's Body. Walter and John Smith last night found the dead body of their brother, George Smith, an engineer, four blocks north of the Fifth street bridge. In one of the pockets was found a nearly empty bottle of chloroform. He has been added to the use of the drug for some time. He had been missing since Sunday. In his pocket was found a street car transfer dated August 25, and punched for 3:30 p. m. Had Some Difficulties. The difficulties of the telegraph strike were exemplified yesterday when Mrs. Warren Lenan of Little Rock, Ark., was unable to either telegraph or telephone to her sister, James E. Mercer of Guthrie, Okla., who was in the hospital in St. Louis. She finally sent a message by telephoning to her uncle, W. A. Sherman, in this city. Is Glad of Lynching. Ralph Cople, the 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cople, the Nebraska couple who were murdered recently, is staying with an aunt in this city. When told of the lynching of his mother and father, he declared that he was glad of it. Dr. I. N. McNair today accepted the call to the First Church of Christ at Berkeley, Cal. He resigns the position of secretary of the Iowa Anti-Saloon league to accept the position. Formerly he was pastor of the University Place Church of Christ in this city. Want National Convention. Delegates to the national convention of the Anti-Saloon league will make an effort to bring the national convention to Des Moines next year. It will bring a thousand delegates and has never been in the middle west. Marlon Boy Wins. Howard Vaughan of Marion, Ia., won the $20 scholarship to the State agricultural college at Ames in the corn and stock judging contest at the State fair. Out of a possible 325 points he got 279. Carl N. Kennedy of Ankeny won the second scholarship of $100 worth of stock. J. O. Haskrook of Humboldt, Iowa, won the $25 prize with 224 points. There were 33 entered in the competition and the race was close for the first several places. In the girls' scholarship contest in cooking the first scholarship went to Miss Florence Duhan of Ames; the second to Miss Margaret J. Gray of Ames and the third prize of $25 to Miss Velda Wilson of Sigourney. Shortboras to the Fore. Whitehall Marshall, a fine rural shortboras bull bred by C. A. Saunders of Bluffs, Ia., and sold to the Elmendorf farm, Lexington, Ky., took first prize at the state fair this year in the class of shortboras bulls over three years old. This same bull took practically all the first prizes at state fairs and the International fair last year and starts out this year with its first victory. The competition among the shortboras is stiff this year, there being more here than ever shown at one fair before. Second ribbon went to Gand Clark, owned by H. B. Howes, of Marysville, Mo., and third ribbon to Whitehall King, a half brother of Whitehall Marshall, and owned by F. L. Harding of Waukegan, Wis. Among the Iowa men, who were victorious in the shortboras class thus far in C. W. Laws and son of Harlan, who won first in senior yearling bulls; F. W. Duhan of Ames; first in yearling bulls, C. A. UNITED STATES' POSSESSION OF PHILIPPINES ASSURES POSITION OF JAPAN

In the Opinion of Kinjiro Ishii. LOS ANGELES, CAL., Aug. 28.—Kinjiro Ishii, director of the department of commerce of Japan, arrived in Los Angeles today. In an interview he said: "I find that a great change has come over the Japanese who have left their land for America, and especially those in California; they seem to become imbued with the American spirit of progress and all seem very happy. Surroundings and conditions here are much better than any place which I have visited so far. Of the 17,000 Japanese in and about Los Angeles, I have not found a single case of want." When questioned about the possibility of hostilities between the United States and Japan, Ishii smiled and said: "Japan would not fight America under any circumstances. The people of this country have done so much for our nation that it is an absolute absurdity to imagine anything of the kind. It is what you call a joke." Speaking of the conditions in the Philippine Islands, he continued: "The greatest danger for Japan against foreign powers at this time is the ownership of the Philippine Islands by the United States. Korea and Manchuria are fully adequate to care for our rapid increase in population, some 300,000 people emigrating to those countries each year." Ishii was tendered a banquet tonight by prominent citizens of this city.

The court granted the defendants until September 12 to apply for a new trial. JOB FOR EMMETT DALTON Former Bandit Clerks in Hotel Pending End of Term in Prison. TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 28.—Governor Hoch has given his consent to the arrangement by which Emmett Dalton, the former Coffeyville bandit, is to accept a position as night clerk in a Topeka hotel, pending the termination of his term in the state penitentiary. Only one objection to Dalton accepting the position has been filed, and it was from a woman guest of the hotel, who said Dalton should not be allowed to work until he was fully pardoned. She said she was afraid of him.
