Monday's Mail Brings Substantial Budget of Luncheon Invitations.

SMALL ATTENDANCE AT CLUBS

Sunday Evening Suppers Few and Small at All the Clubs—Miss Bertha Dickey Entertains Girls at Luncheon.

Invitations for supper at the clubs Sunday evening are generally extended on a very informal basis. Very frequently late in the afternoon or only a few hours before supper is served the guests are invited. Sunday the clouds were threatening and at the Happy Hollow club the dining room was practically deserted, and very few were at the Country and Field clubs.

Miss Jeanne Wakefield had as her guests at supper at the Country club Miss Ella Mae Brown, Mr. Stockton Heth and Mr. Harry O'Neil.

With Mr. Harry Tukey were Mr. and Mrs. Marley Moorehead, Mr. and Mrs. Douglass of Pittsburg, and Miss Gertrude Moorehead.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Kuntze and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Burns, Jr., had supper together.

Miss Corita Curtis, Mr. Sherman Canfield and Mr. Wilson Low were at another table.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Remington had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Will Hedick, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Rogers, Mrs. Dan Wheeler and Mr. Harry Cummings.

With Mr. H. T. Lemist were Miss Daisy Deane, Miss Lynn Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Fairfield, and Mr. Russell Lemist.

Mr. and Mrs. William Foye and Mrs. E. C. McShane were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Burns.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Peters entertained Mr. and Mrs. Euclid Martin, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ryce and Judge and Mrs. W. H. Mungler.

Others having supper at the club were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clapp, Mr. R. T. Burns, Mr. O. C. Redick, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gulou and Mr. E. A. Cope.

At the Field club were Mr. O. W. Dunn, who had six guests: Mr. George Baker, Mr. W. E. Ryce, five: Mr. P. H. Fish, four: Mr. Conrad Young, three: Mr. E. F. Hastings, three: Mr. Rutherford, four: Mr. Arthur Metz, four, and Dr. W. H. Sumney, three.

For the Young Girls.
One of the delightful affairs of Monday was the luncheon given at the Country club by Mrs. J. D. Dickey in honor of her daughter, Miss Bertha Dickey. The table was decorated with pink asters and the place cards were marine scenes done in colors. Covers were laid for Miss Dickey, Miss Margaret Baum, Miss Hazel, Miss Katherine Beeson, Miss Elizabeth Bruce, Miss Pauline Bourke, Miss Mildred Butler, Miss Alice Carter, Miss Elizabeth Davis, Miss Meta Davis, Miss Ruth Hammer, Miss Ruth Hitchcock, Miss Frances Hochstetler, Miss Violet Joelyn, Miss Lillian Lane, Miss Margaret McPherson, Miss Daphne Peters, Miss Frances Robinson, Miss Helen Seebis and Mrs. J. J. Dickey.

Prospective Pleasures.
Miss Litta Rohrbough, Miss Adele McHugh, Miss Stella Chapman, Mr. Claire Baird, Mr. C. J. Chapman and Mr. Wilson Swisher will make up a theater party Monday evening at the Orpheum.

Miss Margaret McPherson will entertain at luncheon at the Field club Wednesday.

Miss Mildred Butler will entertain at luncheon at the Country club Wednesday.

Miss Elizabeth Bruce will be hostess at a luncheon at the Happy Hollow club Thursday.

Compliments to Miss Mona Klocke, Miss Phoebe Smith and Miss Bessie Brady, three of the fall brides. Miss Marian Conwell will give a luncheon at her home Thursday.

Mrs. J. H. Royce will give a luncheon Thursday at Happy Hollow club.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dooley will give a dinner Saturday evening at their new home on North Thirty-second street. It

How to Keep Your Hair Beautiful

This is the question asked every minute in the day by some one—"How can I make my hair beautiful, or how can I promote its growth? How can I save it from coming out?" etc., etc.

Can you recall the first letter or composition you ever wrote? At that time you thought it a very hard task and complained to your parents at being compelled to do it. It is not hard now, you understand it. Just so with your hair. When you understand its requirements it will be just as easy for you to have beautiful hair as it is for you to write a letter or composition now. Beautiful hair may be acquired by anyone who will follow my instructions, which are simple.

WOMAN'S WORK IN THE WORLD

Lincoln Women Begin Campaign for Woman's Club House.

IOWA COMMITTEES COMPLETE

Miss Gertrude Nash Announces Personnel of New Standing Committees of Iowa Federation Women's Clubs for Biennium.

Club women of Lincoln have launched an active campaign for a clubhouse adequate to the needs and the dignity of the large and enterprising Lincoln women's clubs. The women have purchased the rubber goods concession for state fair week and will personally conduct the sale of rubber balloons, blowbags, whistles and the like.

Iowa Standing Committees.
Mrs. Gertrude R. Nash of Audubon, president of the Iowa Federation of Women's Clubs, has just announced the following list of standing committees for the biennium, together with their chairmen, this completing the list of committees:

Art, Mrs. J. P. Whitney, Vinton; Mrs. Lewis Cutler, Council Bluffs; Miss Ada Barron, Hutchinson, Iowa City, Library, Mrs. William R. Ferguson, Algona; Mrs. C. C. Loomis, Cedar Rapids; Mrs. A. O. Jones, Charles City; Club program, Mrs. Horace E. Deemer, Red Oak; general outlines, Mrs. Charles C. Walner, Atlantic, reciprocity, papers, Margaret C. Wright Brown, Des Moines; reference books, Mrs. Sylvia H. Bangs of Eagle Grove has been appointed chairman of the Eighth and Mrs. Margaret Street of Oklaokos chairman of the Fifteenth districts of the Iowa Federation to fill vacancies caused by resignation.

Press Club Program.
The Des Moines Women's Press club, which includes most of the active newspaper women of that city and a greater number of other women interested through experience or inclination, has announced the following program for this year, which opens today:

September, "The Ethics of Reporting." Miss Jeanne Lorraine, October, annual outing at Ames, "The Business Editor," Mrs. Minnie C. Conaway, November, "An Evening With Iowa Authors," "The Seven Lakes Hamilton Derby," hostess, December, "As Concerns the Youthful Children," Mrs. Alice Wilson Wetz, January, "Essentials of a Good Book Review," Mrs. Virginia J. Berryhill, February, "The Feature Writer," Mrs. Ella Hamilton Purdy, March, business meeting, annual banquet, April, annual election of officers; May, officers' day.

The Des Moines Women's Press club affords an admirable illustration of the value of co-operation between club women and press women. Among its members are several of the most prominent club women of Iowa, who have done much toward harmonizing the two interests between which there has not always existed the most sympathetic relation.

An Important Commission.
Maria Perez de Mendonza has been appointed by Mr. Carnegie a commissioner to visit the republics of Latin America in the interest of international peace. She is the wife of the former minister to the United States from Colombia. Two years ago, during her last visit to Colombia, she founded the first women's club in Caracas, and contributed a generous sum toward building a public hospital.

Chinese Women Workers.
In China wages of women operatives are nearly at the vanishing point. It is said that in the silk mills at Shanghai there are 20,000 workers, among whom are children that work at 3 cents a day and women at 5 cents. The highest paid get 26 cents for a thirteen-hour day. In the Shanghai cotton mills the best women workers get 14 cents a day, the poorest 5 cents, the hours being from 6 to 6 with thirty minutes at noon for dinner.

Roller Oats Cookies.
To one egg, well beaten, add one-half tablespoon butter, one-half cup sugar, one-half teaspoon salt, one and one-half cups rolled oats, vanilla to taste. Beat well and bake in slow oven. It is nice for 5 o'clock tea.

FATE FAVORS TWO-CENT FARE
Facts and Events Purse Railroads in Argument Like an Avenging Nemesis.

It seems that fate just won't let the railroads alone in their attempt to knock the 2-cent fare on the grounds it is injuring business. First the Union Pacific, for instance, is compelled to reduce local business from its Overland Limited train, then E. H. Harriman comes out with a statement that the present year will surpass all records for passenger business on his roads, that Union Pacific common stock will earn its 10% per cent, and the net earnings of the road for the first six months of the current fiscal year will be $3,000,000 at a minimum, as against $2,000,000 last year. On top of these controversial facts comes the necessity of the Union Pacific adding two daily passenger trains to its service in order to carry all the persons who want to ride on that line.

Several other important changes have

LITTLE GIRL'S SCHOOL COAT
One of the Pretty Models and Some of the Materials Used in Its Making.

Serges, cashmeres and lightweight checked and plaid woollens are used for little girls' gowns with cordings and trimmings of plaid or plain silks. Plain loose little cloth coats in dark blue, red, brown or tan will be worn, and a rather more dressy model is given in the picture. Of tan broadcloth, it is ornamented with bands of brown and tan striped silk and a number of large brown pearl buttons.

CLOTH AND SILK.

BOARDING SCHOOL OUTFITS
What the Thoroughly Adequate Trousseau for Modern Seminary Should Include.

A thoroughly adequate outfit for a girl at boarding school would include two coats and skirt suits, one rough and ready, the other of broadcloth; two school frocks, which will probably have to be renewed or at any rate be repaired, by the holidays; one dressy little gown for the house and an evening gown. Besides these, of course she will need a number of blouses, plain and fancy; at least two hats, dressing jackets and wrappers and the requisite underwear, shoes, stockings and gloves, not to mention collars and belts and a few other accessories, which should not include many trinkets.

The best shops, which sell thoroughly good ready-made clothing, have as yet very little to show in tailored suits. The few styles which they have on hand are of that tentative character which commits itself to nothing and gives absolutely no hint of the coming fashions. So it would be well to have the suits made to order if that is practicable or to wait until later before buying them ready made at the shops.

There are many indications already of what the season is going to offer in this very important line. In the first place, though there will be of course short coats, notably the bolero, the half fitting cutaway and the short jacket reaching just below the belt, the tendency of the fall model seems to be entirely in favor of long coats, either close or half fitting.

It may be said here that a half fitting, moderately long coat is much more becoming to a girl of immature or undecided figure than a short one is. The shoulders will, as a rule, be quite long, often an extension from the jacket, and the sleeves are very nearly if not quite down to the wrist.

PROGRAM FOR THE MASONS

Exercises Arranged and Committees Appointed for Grand Lodge Jubilee.

Most of the details of the semi-centennial celebration of the Masonic grand lodge of Nebraska, which will be held in Omaha September 23, have been completed. Charles E. Burnham of Norfolk, past grand master, was in Omaha Monday conferring with the various committees as to the completion of the preliminary work.

The committee on invitations and speakers has selected Past Grand Master Henry H. Wilson of Lincoln as grand orator and he has accepted. Other speakers will be announced later. Invitations have been sent out to all lodges in the state and the members have been urged to attend. One of the features of the celebration will be a concert by "The Grand Lodge of Nebraska," which will be given at the Lincoln Hotel.

The committees have been placed in charge of the work:

COUNCIL WITH ENGINEER

Acts Favorably on His Sewer Recommendations and Adjourns Till Tuesday Night.

After taking favorable action on the recommendation of City Engineer Rosewater that the bids for the North Omaha sewer be rejected and passing the monthly payroll, the city council adjourned Monday morning until Tuesday evening on account of Labor day. The monthly meeting of the Board of Equalization was scheduled to be held Monday morning also, but an adjournment was taken until next month.

A fight had been anticipated on City Engineer Rosewater's recommendation on the sewer bids but it did not materialize. Mr. Rosewater was called before the council and stated he believed the city could save at least $20,000 by re-advertising for bids. He declared the number of bids submitted did not indicate real competition.

Bridges made some objection to the recommendation but did not put up much of a fight. Elmsasser moved the recommendation of the city engineer be adopted and Zimmerman amended to direct the chairman of the committee of the whole to bring in a report Tuesday night rejecting the bids and providing for re-advertisement. The amended motion carried.

CADDIES GO OUT ON STRIKE

Country Club Forces Want Increase in Pay and Quit Work to Get It.

It has come at last. Most Omaha boys ever thought of it.

Caddies at the Omaha Country club went on a strike Sunday and succeeded in getting an increase of 25% per cent in wages. They were getting 20 cents a round and asked an increase of 10 cents, which was granted when a committee of the strikers called on E. H. Sprague, chairman of the golf committee. Mr. Sprague said the increase had been contemplated for some time, as the caddies were generally dissatisfied because a few of their number had been getting 40 cents a round, while the majority got only 20 cents. The higher pay was on account of superior ability, but no caddy will admit that another boy can chase balls better than he.

New caddies of the Field club and the Happy Hollow club, who receive but 20 cents a round, are expressing dissatisfaction.

MILLWRIGHTS GET BIG PAY

Men on Edgemoor Plant Are Drawing Seven Dollars and a Half a Day.

Evidently there is one trade that equals the plumbers or the bricklayers' trade for big wages. The millwrights, who are remodeling the Edgemoor mill on North Sixteenth street, are drawing $7.50 a day. They say it is only worth the ordinary wage.

The Edgemoor mill company is planning a public opening for the mill, when it shall have been completed, which will be about the middle of the month. If possible, visitors will be treated to biscuits made from the first flour ground by the mill.

The foundation of the new flour warehouse north of the mill has been completed, and work on the superstructure will be started at once.

Look after your own interests and watch the dealer who is constantly trying to sell you something just as good as the article you ask for. Never take a substitute.

SUNDAY AT THE THEATERS

Orpheum Starts Its Season with a Very Good Bill.

KRUG OFFERS NEW MELODRAMA

Boyd Has Minstrel Show, but Will Offer Comedy This Evening and Barrow Starts Today with Its Vaudeville.

If any test of the popularity of the Orpheum was needed, it was given yesterday, when that house opened its season. All nature was in the most inviting mood, and out-of-doors offered attractions that would seem to more than outweigh any theater might possibly afford, yet at both matinee and evening the theater was filled, and the folks who enjoy vaudeville were more than repaid for their devotion.

The opening bill is a strong one, containing much of novelty and all worth while. It abounds in comedy, with enough music to give it a proper savor, and the unusual spectacle of a performance of cockatoos for the close. If the judgment of a Sunday-night audience is to be taken, "The quartet" is the success of the bill, at any rate, this organization made up of good voices, received the most enthusiastic applause of the evening. Mayne Gehrus and her company present one of Edmund Day's condensed melodramas, and do it with great gusto. It has all the elements of a four-act thriller, with a song and dance by Miss Gehrus, and proves quite enjoyable.

Violet Black and her company offer a little farce comedy that is quite fetching, and which gives Miss Black a splendid chance for her qualities as a comedienne, which are rather meagre nor insignificant. Aubin and Leonel are direct from Paris, and their turn must be extremely funny to one who can understand French, for they succeed in making the hopelessly English-speaking multitude laugh by their expressive pantomime. Sullivan and Paquelet have brightened up their act since they were last here, and give it with the same dash and swing that made it popular from the start. Miss Paquelet is dancing

Melodrama at the Krug.
"Shadowed by Three," a detective drama by Lem B. Parker, held the boards at the Krug Sunday night, beginning a two-night stand, and drew a packed house. The "three" are Pinkertons. One is Tom Patton, the hero, following a worthy quest in pursuit of a scheming woman, the other two are working against Patton and against each other trying to draw pay from both sides and land anybody in jail that may be worth a reward. Jefferson Hall plays Tom Patton, and by the aid of a Sherlock Holmes countenance carries the part well. Blessing Haskins, a homeless waff, is the object of Patton's care, and he manages to get her out of at least one bad hole in every scene. In the second act she repays him somewhat by shooting

Minstrels at the Boyd.
Boyd's theater opened Sunday afternoon with a matinee by the West Jubilee Minstrels, under direction of Sanford B. Rieaby. With George Van and Billy Graham as the leaders of the comedians and both working hard despite the hot weather, the show would have to be worth while in its class. The singing was fair. If one admires a male soprano, and a tenor who is certainly qualified for the "freak" class. The choruses were better than the solos—the usual thing with minstrels.

The most attractive feature was the production of the old songs. There is real melody that never clogs in "My Old Kentucky Home" and songs of that class, and these redeemed the production where it may have needed redemption—as in the work of Cutwell, Ballist, DeForest and Renaud in "The Battleship Four." Major Fred Smith's manipulation of a drum major's baton and a "Hindu devil stick" was worthy of note, and the dancing of Graham and Everett was acceptable.

How's the Outlook?
Red, is it? Out of work and nothing in sight? That's what has been said before, but not by those who make use of The Bee's want columns. There's a place for every capable man and woman, and a want ad will find your place for you. And it won't waste any time about it, either. Advertise today. Job tomorrow.
