Primary election today. Folls open 8 a. m. to 9 p. m. county.

The primary election today will be the first one held in Nebraska under the new state-wide primary law. The ballot will contain the names of candidates for nomination for all the offices to be filled at ballot is devoted to the state ticket, including the offices of supreme judge, railway commissioner and university regents. The next section is given over to the district judges-seventeen of them running for seven places in this district. Under the judicial ticket comes the county ticket, headed by clerk of the district court and sheriff. In the First, Second, Third and Tenth wards the candidates for the county commissionership now held by Fred Bruning will be on the ballot and in South Omaha the candidates for the county commissionership now held by P. J. Trainer. On the Omaha ballots will appear the names of the candidates for police judge constables. On the South Omaha ballots police judge and justices of the peace in South Omaha. Some of the country precincts will nominate road overseers. In Omaha a school board ticket with five places will also be voted. In all, nominations are to be made for forty-one places on the ticket.

SERVICES ARE MOST IMPRESSIVE

Parochial as Well as the Public Schools Open Tuesday with Probable Attendance of Over a Thousand.

A funeral memorable for its impressiveness was held yesterday afternoon at St. Bridget's church in honor of South Omaha's pioneer and respected citizen, John F. Russell. St. Bridget's church was crowded far beyond its capacity at the appointed hour. The cortege moved from the residence, led by the Knights of Columbus, of which order Mr. Russell was a prominent member. The local retail butchers and grocerymen were also in line. Many of the Order of Eagles attended the ceremonles.

The service at the church was conducted by Rev. Father Callahan. He was assisted by Rev. Father Ahern and Father Mulligan. Solemn high mass was pronounced and the requiem service for the dead. Father Callahan spoke fervently on the natre of death and judgment and its many merciful attributes. The choir, assisted by Miss Mac Lovely, Mrs. W. J. McCrann, Mrs. A. M. Gallagher and Miss Maude Melcher, rendered the musical portion of the service. The service at the grave was conducted by Father Mulligan. The pallbearers were: John E. O'Hern, F. J. Moriarty, J. M. Tanner, C. A. Melcher, John Flynn, Dr. W. J. McCrann. The honorary pallbearers were H. F. L. Eckerman, E. A. Pollard, H. Boyd, T. J. O'Neill, Pat Sheehee and A. M. Gallagher.

While the service was going on in the church the streets from Twenty-seventh to Twenty-fifth were almost filled with waiting carriages. When the service was concluded the body was accompanied by twenty-seven closed carriages and very many more equipages belonging to the mourning friends. The procession was over a mile long and most of the guests at the church accompanied the body to the Holy Sanulcher.

The burglar forced his entrance through a cellar window and came up through the living rooms. He entered the bed rooms and took money from the clothing of Mr. King and part of it from other members of the family. Mr. King thought the man must have come in after 12 o'clock, for some of the family were stirring until that time. The intruder went through several drawers and stirred them up considerably, but took nothing but money. In most respects the work was like that of the numerous jobs which have been done in South Omaha for three or four months.

FOR COUNTY COMPTROLLER. EMMET G. SOLOMON

To the Republican Voters of Douglas County:

The Primary Election to be held September 2d is of great importance to you as a citizen. I know this from what I have seen of county affairs during the two years that I have been County Commissioner and Chairman of the Finance Committee. If you do not nominate good men you have no chance to elect them.

chance to elect them.

We public official should make friends at the expense of the tax payers and I wish to have a few words with you about one who has not. Robert Smith was chosen County Auditor in 1995 and at once entered vigorously upon the discharge of the duties of the office. He put into effect a system of checking the disbursements from the County Store and revised the whole system of letting contracts for supplies so that all merchants new have a chance to compete while under the old method the combine fixed the price to suit these who were "in on the deal" and the County paid double the market price for supplies.

One year's saving to the tax payers on this item....$ 6,229.05 One year's saving to the tax payers on this item.... $ 9,421.59 Cost of running County Hospital:

One year's saving to the tax payers on this item.... 10,484.78 The above extraordinary facts are a matter of record. Better contracts and careful management on the part of the men in charge account for the saving.

Prior to 1908, the Omaha Electric Light Company was charging the County for lights at the Hospital, 40 per cent more than they were getting from other consumers. They have not been doing it since Robert Smith called attention to the fact and, after a hard fight, cut $1,000.00 off the bills rendered up to August 1st, 1905, and the County is now getting light at the Hospital for 50 per cent of the old rate.

In 1906, the printing combine charged the County $4,500 for printing the Primary Election ballots, which charge was pronounced exorbitant by Auditor Smith, who recommended that $1,550.00 be deducted from the bills, which was done and the printers took $2,540.00 and made no appeal to the courts.

During Mr. Smith's first year in the Auditor's office he made deductions from $37 different claims amounting to thousands of dollars and no claimant has ever appealed from his action.

Echert Smith is now candidate for Clerk of the District Court. It is most important that we have an honest, capable and courageous man in that office.

The Clerk of the District Court has charge of the jury lists after they are drawn; comes hourly in contact with the jurors and can help or hinder the corporation "Jury Fixer" as his inclination may be. The corporations are not for Smith, and for that very reason if for no other you should be for him.

The railroads defeated Robert Smith for Sate Auditor in Republican Convention three years ago, because they whe would make them pay as much tax in preportion as knew he would make them pay as much tax in proportion as any citizen.

I would remind you that an agent of the Street Railway Company offered money to the men who were working at the polis for my nomination for County Commissioner two years ago, hoping thereby to defeat me and you are warned that such tactics may be used against Robert Smith.

Grafters of all kinds and sizes are plotting Smith's defeat. From the petty grafter who by reason of his position purlioned goods from the County store and had to 'put it back' to the big grafter who seeks by combination and corruption to control officials and courts in the interest of his business, all are against Robert Smith for Clerk of the District Court, and I know what I am talking about IF TER GRAFTING ARE ACAINST RIM, DOUGLAS COURTY EXERD HIM.

A vote for Robert Smith is an endorsement of the stand he has taken against such people and an assurance that the Republicans of Douglas County will stand by a man who knows how to do right and does it.

Yours for Republican success.
