terday on a fair demand from commission houses and shorts. Within a few minutes after the opening, however, lower cables, easier prices for cash wheat and heavy selling by local longs caused a slight decline. Later the market rallied and became strong on renewed buying of cash wheat and futures for foreign account, reports of frosted wheat and poorer threshing returns in the nortiwest and the sale of 100,000 bushels to a New York exporter. Under these influences prices advanced sharply and many who went short on the early decline were forced to cover at higher prices. An excellent trade for flour was reported in the spring wheat section. The most favoarble item for the bears was the report of improved crop conditions in Argentina. December wheat opened \(\frac{1}{2}\)Colored to \(\frac{1 defining for export was less and the bulk of orders from the country seem to favor the bear side of the market. Commission houses were good buyers and the speculative demand was heavy. December opened the higher at 61%c, sold between 69%c and 61%c, and closed at 60%,000%c. Local receipts were 308 cars, with 115 of contract grade.

The oats market sold off early in the day because of local longs who threw much grain upon the market. The offerings were not readily absorbed, however, and throughnot readily absorbed, however, and throughout the day prices were advanced easily, the strength of wheat helping greatly. Prices were nervous and responded readily to large transactions on either side. December opened %c to %c higher at 53% 55% c. sold between 62c and 54% c and closed at 54% c. Local receipts were 258 cars.
Provisions were easy early in the day on a heavy run of live hogs. Later prices were firm in sympathy with grain. At the close October pork was 15c higher at $15.80. Lard was up 5c at $3.10. Ribs were unchanged at $3.70.

but the market was not overly active at the advance. Packers seemed to pay the higher prices under protest and were not especially anxious for any great number of hogs at the advanced figures. Still there was a fair movement and the hogs kept moving off toward the scale, making a clearance in reasonably early season in the morning. The hogs sold largely at $5.7095.55, as against $5.6695.50 yesterday.
There were no full loads of choice light hogs to compare with the $5.20 hogs yesterday, the actual top today on full loads being only $5.10. A small bunch of choice lightweights, however, sold up to $6.25.
Today's advance carries the market to a point that is just about a shilling higher than the market at the close of last week, or the highest point touched any day since August 13.

TO REPORT TIMBER ACREAGE Commissioner of Corporations Making Inquiry of Amount in United States.

SHEEP—There were not enough sheep on sale this morning to really make a market. The greater proportion of the receipts consisted of feeders on their way to an lowa feed lot and were stopped here only for a rest and feed. There was the usual good demand for both killers and feeders and unquestionably anything of that description would have sold very readily at good, steady prices at least.

In spite of the fact that receipts have been very heavy this week, showing a large gain over the previous week and over a year ago, the market has been in exceedingly good condition. The demand has been so large that practically everything received has been sold on the day of arrival. More than that, in the face of heavy receipts, there has not been the slightest sign of weakness. On the contrary, fat lambs have, if anything firmed up a little, while fat sheep have remained fully steady. Feeder sheep and lambs have been strong sellers every day during the week. No seller could ask for a better market than has prevalled this week.

Lambs, $1.7897.25; yearling wethers, $5.006, 50; wethers, $5.006, 60; ewes $4.756, 25.

No quotations are given on fair to good killers, as feeder buyers are taking practically everything of that description at better prices than packers will pay.

Quotations on feeders: Lambs, $5.506 WASHINGTON, Sept. 6 .- Announcement was made here today that Herbert Knox Smith, commissioner of corporations, is making an inquiry to determine just how much standing timber remains in the United States. This was brought out by a report from the west that Commissioner Smith had begun an investigation into the operations of the so-called lumber trust. It develops that this investigation, which was ordered in a resolution passed by congress last winter, has not been started, because the agents of the bureau of corporations are engaged in other trust inquiry work. The investigation to ascertain the extent of standing timber in this country is stated to be purely for economy, having no relation to the operations of the lumber Orleans Man. NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 6 .- When the river steamer Grudeau arrived in New Orleans this morning its crew told the story of the finding of a badly-mutilated body at Jamestown, La., and said that the body answered the description of Peter Lamana, father of the kidnaped Lamana boy. Persons at Jamestown saw a large box floating down the Mississippi river yesterday and when they went out in a skiff and towed it ashore it was found to contain the body of a large dark-complexioned man, who to all appearances had been foully murdered. The body has been badly mutilated Friends of Lamana have started for Jamestown.
