LACK OF MOISTURE HURTS CORN Most Serious Damage is on McCook Division of the Burlington Road.

the Nebraska division for last week on the subject of corn says:

Corn has been more or less damaged for want of moisture on all divisions. Most seriously damaged on McCook division in the vicinity of the main line from Kenesaw to McCook. There are places in that territory where the corn crop will be practically a fallure and other places where the yield will probably amount to half an average crop with fayorable conditions from now on. West of McCook corn has not been damaged by dry weather to any great extent, although this is not a corn country and very little is raised except on the Imperial branch, where the crop is looking well. Corn is said to be in fairly good condition in Republican valley, Oxford to Red Cloud, and on the Oberlin branch. It is estimated the yield of corn on the St. Francis branch will range from a fair crop to one-third of a crop. In places on the Concordia branch on the Wymore division corn is badly damaged, also on the Dewitt-Holdrege branch weat of Edgar; elsewhere on the division corn is in fair shape, taking into account the late planting and unfavorable conditions in the early part of the season. On Lincoin division there are several places where corn has suffered from dry weather, especially in the vicinity of Sutton. Corn was planted very late on this division as elsewhere in this district and conditions in the early part of the season were unfavorable. With favorable conditions from now on perhaps the corn on the Lincoln division may amount to 70 per conditions in the early part of the season were unfavorable. With favorable condi-tions from now on perhaps the corn on the Lincoln division may amount to 76 per cent of an average crop, not better.

OMAHA AT CIVIC FEDERATION Commercial Club Will Send Five Delegates to the Chicago Meeting.

Pive delegates will be sent by the Omaha Commercial club to the meeting in Chicago October 22 to 25 of the National Civic Federation, which will discuss "Combines and Trusts." The committee will be named in a few days. On the recommendation of C. H. Pickens the executive committee of the club Tuesday took under consideration the advisability of sending delegates to the deep waterways convention at Memphis.

Resolutions were adopted thanking the street railway company for maintaining a sightseeing car through the summer and requesting the company to keep it in comdission until after the Ak-Sar-Ben festivities.

Frank M. Engler, E. G. McCreery, O. E. McCune and Fred S. Hadra were elected to membership. Rev. F. T. Rouse was made an honorary member.

FIRST DAY ATTENDANCE SHY

Schools Not Crowded at the Opening, but Reasons Are Purely Local.

Practically 1,000 fewer children were in attendance at the public schools on the opening day this year than in 1906. This condition is attributed to the Jewish holldays and the circus. Five schools practically make up the shortage, the decrease in attendance of these being: High school, 90; Cass, 219; Comenius, 102; Kellum, 173; and Lake, 126. Decreases in other schools ran from half a dozen to 20, while some of the outlying schools showed an increase. The increase was larger at Trainschool than at any other, being 63.

The total attendance the first day was 13,839 against 14,876 last year. The school officials say that the attendance this year promises to be larger than last year as soon as the Jewish holidays are over. They will end with Wednesday and Thursday's attendance is expected to be practically up to the average of tile year. At the high school the attendance was 1.471 while the week before the school opened 1,556 prospective pupils received locker keys.

Other buyers..... 10,054 CATTLE—There was a fair Tuesday's run of cattle, there being 206 cars. How-ever, it was smaller than a week ago by over 100 cars. The more moderate receipts placed the selling interests in better shape and the market as a whole ably satisfactory.

There was no great change on beef steers.

Packers did not appear to be very anxious supplies and their orders were not very urgent. The result was a not overly active movement. Still the market was about steady and now and then it was possible to find sellers who thought they got out a little better than yesterday.

Cows were in good demand and the trade on that kind of cattle was more active than was the case with beef steers. The prices paid were strong and the rester.

There was also a better feeling in the stocker and feeder division. The demand was more active and the prices paid were stronger as a rule than yesterday.

Shiller—The official count of the stock yards company gave yesterday's total receipts as 2,856. As noted yesterday the demand was good and prices fully steady throughout the day. More than that the market was active and the receipts changed hands early in the day in spite of the fact that quite a number of the trains were behind time in arriving at the yards. When the market closed everything in the barn had been sold and weighed up and not a single load so far as could be discovered being carried over.

This morning, with less than half of yesterday's number reported in, buyers went after, the offerings in a hurry and it did not take them long to eat up everything in atter, the offerings in a hurry and it did not take them long to eat up everything in sight. Fat sheep and lambs were pretty generally loc higher. Very decent lambs sold up to 37.15, with yearlings at 45.85, wethers at $5.40 and ewes at $5.25.

As usual the demand for feeders was very active, but there were not nearly enough to supply the requirements of all the buyers prosent. The result was that everything changed hands very readily at good strong prices.

Conflicting Influences Cause Considerable Revival of Activity.

COPPER SHARES ARE WEAK

Decline in Price of Metal Results in Decrease of Dividends--Crop Report Has Bearish Bfreet.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—There were various cross currents in the speculation in stocks today and the most obvious effect of the conflicting influences at work was to stimulate a considerable revival of activity. Prices moved more freely than for some time past and the professional room traders had their opportunity to operate in and out of the market on a large scale. It is probable that the day's dealings were made up in an important proportion of this class. Yesterday's seeming determination to abstain from operations until the result should become known was absandened and the business during the morning at the stock exchange was in excess of the average for a full day's aggregate for some days past.

The principal development of the day and which gave the predominance to the weakness of the copper stocks in its influence on the whole market was the renewed unsettlement in that trade. The reduction of the The principal development of the day and which gave the predominance to the weakness of the copper stocks in its influence on the whole market was the renewed unsettlement in that trade. The reduction of the quarterly dividend disbursement on the Calumet and Hecla stock from $30 to $15 was an example of the effects of fail in the price of copper that was a conclusive effect on sentiment owing to the important share in production of Lake Copper eapoyed by the company. Hitherto there has been a disposition to assume that the decline in copper has not seriously impared the earning power of the company, parity owing to the fact that the previous high prices were believed to have been made for small amounts, while the level still maintained represented a good margin of profit on production. These assumptions were shaken by the Calumet and Flecia incident. The elect was aggravated by another disorderly downward plunge in the quotations of the copper in London and by another fractional reduction in the price per pound at the local metal exchange. Reports were in circulation of gloomy anticipations held in the trad of the possible further fail in the metal. The general list was inclined to disregard the full effect of the copper weakness for a time and did not at any time share fully in the weakness of that group. The acute depression in the Hill group owed something to the report that the Interstate Commerce commission inquiry into the legality of the close relations between the ralironds in that group was to be revived and actively pushed. The fact that considerable, profits had acrued to speculators long of the market at the low levels touched last month increased the disposition to sell with the evidence oif histability in the market. There was a momentally pause in the decision against the Pennsylvania 2-cent passenger fare law. The probability of this decision has belen canvassed for some days past and was an influence in the previous hetterment of the market so that its effect of the bond subscription for the so

REGISTRATION OF FIRST Copies of Record Practically Completed by City Clerk Butler.

City Clerk Butler has practically completed the copies of the record of the first day's registration and the fists will be ready for the committees of the various parties Wednesday morning.

In connection with the recent registration the officers in the fourth precinct of the Eighth word will lose their official heads if the city clerk stands by his expressed intentions. In binding the lists of voters registered last year and entitled to vote at the primaries the names of voters residing on Cuming street were omitted in the book which was sent to the election officers. In place of reporting the error to the city clerk and having it corrected, the election officers accepted the vote of every person known to them to be a resident of the precinct on that street. While it is not known that any one voted who was not entitled to do so, Mr. Butler is taking no chances with men guilty of such irregularity. The Bee Want Ads are the Best Business
