and look at the space we can offer you.

In the southeast corner of the fifth floor we can show you an elegant suite of two rooms, a floor space of 580 square feet, with good light, a vault and nicely decorated rooms. This faces both Farnam and Seventeenth streets and is the best office space in Omaha today.

On the sixth floor we have two small rooms, which are connected, and would make a splendid commination for anyone desiring small, but well arranged offices.

There is another room on the sixth floor, facing on Seventeenth street, S-Sx19-8, which conies for $17 per month. Anyone wishing the small office with good light would be pleased with this one. pleased with this one.

On account of contemplated changes, we are in a position to make leases on desirable space on the second floor. These rooms are very desirable and have been occupied by enterprises requiring much space. Call and let us figure on your re-

LETTERS FROM BEE READERS harging of a murderer by a band of lynchers is as much the operation of law as the procedure upon a regular conviction, and this is true, but it is the operation of a primitive and barbario law; the law that each man should avenge his own wrong and the wrongs of his immediate dependents: the law of the largest claw and the sharpest tooth. If we defend or even excuse the proceding at Bancroft we thereby confess that modern civilisation is a fail-prosecuting atterneys, the weakness of furies, the leniency of courts and the abuse of the pardoning power, are poor excuses. Editor of The Bee: In the discussion of Nearly thirty years ago Joseph LaPage was the punishment of the Catilinian con- hanged in New Hampshire for the murder spirators, Caius Julius Caesar asked the of Josephine Langenald. This execution Roman senate to free fixelf from hatred took place nearly three years after the friendship, anger and pity. With the same offense was committed. The judgment of spirit that actuated the great Roman com- conviction upon the first trial was reoner, let us discuss the summary pro- versed by the supreme court. I do not ceeding by Judge Lynch's posse comitatus believe that $50 would have covered the at Bancroft on August 25. The story is cost of that prosecution. If there was too fresh in public memory to need re- ever a provocation for lynch law, it existed in that case. A beautiful, refined The man whom Loris R. I have a supreme confidence in the sober second thought of the American people, trayed a prisoner to a mob, who did not finally lose the esteem and confidence of everybody. The fellow who gave up Albert ("Kid") Wade is an example; he lives yet, a pennilese, disgraced, discarded and discredited vagabond. On reflection, men will inquire: "May not the man who betrayed that guilty man yesterday betray my brother tomerrow, even though he be falsely charged and innocent of all crime?" We Americans may well inquire; "Whither are we drifting?" The eighteen years between 1886 and 1904 witnessed executions by Judge Lynch's constables within the United States at an average rate of 2.45 men a week. This sanguinary PROPOSALS FOR BUILDINGS, WATER slaughter out-berods Herod, for no human butcher from Nero to Torquemada ever is the only tyrant that ever eclipsed it since civilization began. We prate about a free government, but this is the record of pure despotism-the despotism of the mob, the most cruel, relentless and irresponsible despot that ever cursed the earth. Where despotism rests in a single individual a nation in its might may teach even a king that he is responsible for his acts to an outraged people, as England taught Charles I, and France taught Louis XVI. In extreme cases a William Tell or a Charlotte Corday might furnish a more desperate and questionable remedy. But where is the protection against a swarming herd of musquerading sansculottes who meet and disperse, like a swarm of flies in August, and whose identity is buried under black masks and the sealed lips of men who would "accept a jail sentence for contempt" before they would testify. "To say that this affair is a disgrace to the state is putting it mildly. In twentyfour hours it was known all over the civilized world. On reading the account would a desirable English emigrant prefer us for neighbors to the Maoris of New Zealand? . WILBUR F. BRYANT.
