Notes of the Game.

Belden had four separate chances right between him and the bright sun and he nailed them all.

Thompson's wild throw would have been good for about three bases if Graham had not made his sensational stop.

*Batter out for interference. Yeager is out of the game for the reat f the season with a broken thumb from foul tip in Wednesday's game.

LeBrand seems to be getting unlucky of late. He was just recovering from a sprained ankle when he got his last bump. LeBrand was hit by a foul tip and forced to retire with a deep gash in his forchead where a piece of the mask cut him.

Omsha had ten men left on bases to three for the Des Moines team, but what is the dift, as long as two more crossed the plate. GAMES IN IOWA STATE LEAGUE

Belden gave an inkling of what the Rourke family intended to do to Mr. Ford, when he laced out the first bail pitched in the first inning for a single.

Graham negotiated one of the prettiest plays scen on the home grounds this year, when, in the fifth timing, he backed up Dolan and scooped Thompson's wild throw while running at full tilt. The fans have come to expect such plays from Graham, and on four separate occasions yesterday be was forced to doff his cap as he came to the bench.

Denver Wins Joke Game.

Denver Wins Joke Game. DENVER, Sept. 12.-Today's game was much of a joke. Arneti could not pitch and Bohannon was not much better. The runs were all made on hitting of the most vicious character. Six home runs, all but one clean, two three-baggers and three two-baggers made up the long hits. Soon after the third inning the crowd ceased thinking of base ball and took to having fun of its own. Score:
