Charming New Millinery Modestly Priced

We say modestly because we know that the elegance of design and superior quality would demand greater prices elsewhere, but we are determined that our reputation for the giving of matchless values shall not only be maintained, but greatly increased this season. Although Parisian ideas prevail they have been somewhat altered and adapted to the more modest America standard of style beauty.

COUNTY JAIL NEARLY EMPTY Fifty-Two Prisoners Against Hundred and Thirty Year Ago.

Wave of Reform Sweeping Over County is Gradually Depleting the Population of the Bastile.

A wave of reform which is depleting the population of the county jail and is making the criminal court almost a useless institution is apparently sweeping over Douglas county as a reaction from the much-heralded wave of crime which rewarded the county a year and a haif ago. As a result of the increasing goodness of Omaha the county jail population has been decreased from 130 on September 13, 1906, to fifty-two September 13, 1907. If the slump in business keeps on Sheriff Mc-Donald will be forced to put up signs, "Furnished Rooms for Rent," in order to prevent his celebrated summer and winter resort from being entirely deserted. The improvement in the morals of the people is also shown by the nature of the crimes committed as well as by the number of culprits. A year and a half ago the county jail contained from a dozen to fifteen men charged with murof them charged with killing Han Pak, the street excitedly with nothing but an ab-Chinese restaurant keeper, and Will Washington, accused of stabbing an Italian to The remaining cases are of a minor nature-forgery and embezzlement charges predominating. Of the latter class the most important is the charge against William H. Holmes, the attorney charged with embezzling funds belonging to a County Attorney English says there has been an unusually large number of forgery cases in proportion to other crimes during the last few months.

One result of the lack of crime will b month, when the October session begins Of the fifty-two in jail Friday thirteen were held for offenses under the statute. This CRIMES ARE LESS SERIOUS, TOO unlucky number taken in connection with the fact it was Friday, the 13th day of the month and the thirteenth year of the reign of King Ak-Sar-Ben, is taken as a bad Petit Jury is Ordered to Convene in omen by the jail authorities.

In addition to the thirteen in jail, there are between fifteen and eighteen out on bond whose cases may be tried during the term. Many of these cases are old ones which may never reach the trial stage. The first jury will report for duty October but as a number of lawyers interested in the principal cases are interested a the campaign it is not likely much will be done until after election.

MAN AFTER A DRINK WILD of Delirium Tremens Flits Through Streets in Bath Robe,

Scaring People. Residents near Twenty-fourth and Sew ard streets were startled Thursday evening by the appearance of what many supposed der. Friday there were only four, three was a wild man. The man ran down the breviated bath robe to protect him from the chilly wind. "Where is the nearest saloon?" he inquired in a frenzy from every person he met. The bystanders were too much afraid of him to huswer the question and consequently he ran from one place to another in search of the drink emporium. Finally Charles E. Furay of the county udge's office appeared and being some hing of a medical man himself, recognized n the person in the bath robe a plain case of delirium tremens. With the aid of some bystanders the man was escorted back to the hospital from which he had

"Gee, but I need a drink bad," said the patient. "I haven't had one for twentyfour hours." While the nurse had her back turned the man had put on a bath robe and started out in search of a thirst quencher. You probably have some little want right now. And nine chances out of ten, or thereabouts, you could fill that want by using a Bee want ad. You may find your serv ants, and your errand boys, and your gardener without advertising, but a want ad osts so little, and is so easy and so quick, and such a sure method of finding the cream of the unemployed that you cannot afford to get along without it.

FUNERAL IS LARGELY ATTENDED

Ak-Sar-Ben and Other Orders to Which He Belonged Are Represented and Hosts of Friends Pay Tribute.

All that was mortal of Dr. Hugo L Ramacciotti, city veterinarian, who died of apopiexy Tuesday evening while seated in a barber's chair at Morrell & Miller's shop on Fifteenth street, was laid at rest Friday afternoon in Forest Lawn cemetery. The Masons, of whom Dr. Ramacciotti was one, had charge of the ceremonies at the temple and at the grave. Both services and burial were public and attended by hosts of men and women from various walks of life, attesting the love and esteem in which this strong man was held. Several organizations were represented in the solemn concourse, chief among them being the Musons and Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben, two orders precious to the man, whose memory they cherish and whose death they mourn. The services at the Masonic temple were onducted at ? o'clock by Rev. Mackay of All Saints' church. The regular funeral service of the Episcopa church was used after which Rev. Mr Mackey delivered a short address. The male quartet of the Council Bluffs Elks' consisting of J. Gerke, first tenor, W. S. Rigdon, second tenor, Dr. Claude Lewis, baritone, and Charles S. Haverstock, bass sang the Dudley Buck arrangement of "Lead Kindly Light," and the hymns. "Still, Still With Thee," and "Abide With This quartet is the same organization that sang at the funeral of the late W. A. Paxton.

Floral offerings of elaborate and varied beauty were presented by a number of individuals and organizations of which Dr. Ramacciotti was a member. The Maccabees, the Ancient Order of United Workmen, Italian club, the Ak-Sar-Ben and initiation team and city officials all sent

All these organizations were represented at the Masonic temple services and a number of them accompanied the body to the burial in Forest Lawn cemetery.
