NEW OFFICERS TO BE NAMED Regent State University

Republicans Will Have New Chairman and Secretary to Select.

VACANCIES ON PARTY TICKETS

Attorney General Decides that County Committees May Not Fill Vacancies -- Petitions Necessary.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 19 .- (Special Telehe republicans here that the next state entral committee of the party will probably have the task of selecting a new chairman and secretary, or if the present cumbents of these offices wish to remain, pay will be obliged to give up their saled positions with the state. State Chairnan W. B. Rose is deputy attorney general and Secretary Clark Perkins of the committee is secretary of the railroad commission. It is quite definitely known that the attorney general and the rathroad comnission have decided that there is business mough before the two departments of the traffic passenger manager. The party came tate for these officers to do without retaining their political positions.

ADDRESS ON THE PURE FOOD LAW Commissioner Johnson Tells What it is Expected to Accomplish.

COLUMBUS, Neb., Sept. 19 .- (Special.)-Food Commissioner Johnson spoke here on the pure food law. He said:

The pure food law is an effort on the part of the state government to establish integrity as to foods. There was a time when big corporations and big business interests moved for ward according to their own sweet will. Now there is a time of control. Through national and state legislation laws are being enacted that reach out and take hold of business and business concerns, saying to them, as this pure food law says to the grocers of Nebraska, "You must be honest." Public sentiment, which is 30 per cent of the power behind every law, is keyed up to the highest tension on this matter of honesty in business. on the pure food law. He said:

> A large crowd greeted the Jericho spectacle at the Vinton Street park for its third performance Wednesday night. The soldiers marched forth and encompassed the walls of the city with the same en thusiasm as did the Hebrews of old and gates of the city, brought fire and everlasting destruction to its walls and its people. The army of Joshua is composed of stalwart and sturdy soldiers and their across the enclosure with the precision of the parade ground.

The vaudeville performance continues to draw applause and attention and the acrobatte stunts of the artists are sufficient to persuade the audience to forgive the anachronism. Every act is good and the peer of the best things of the kind in the biggest circuses on the road.

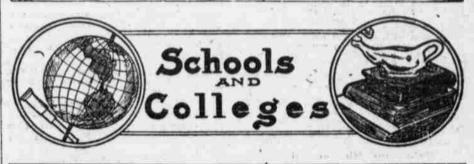

A beautiful pyrotechnic design of the American flag drew the most enthusiastic applause of the set pieces, but they were all finely executed. A walking elephant, snakes' eyes, sun flower, Yankee Doodle boys, Maltese cross, Hindu star, Niagara Falls, Hungarian sunburst, creole stars DELEGATES TO STATE CONVENTION, and Derby comets were the other set pieces.

The siege will be resumed again Thursday night.
