Thousand-Dollar Structure in Grand Island. The Fairmont Creamery company will build a $50,000 plant in Grand Island this fall. A site 182 feet square on the Union Pacific tracks has been secured and grading has been started. The plant will be for cold storage and for the manufacture of butter, ice cream and condensed milk. It will be three stories in height, about the same dimensions as he Omaha plant, and will be of brick and steel construction. Manager Rushton says the company will have the only condensed milk factory in the state. The country around Grand Island is the source of an immense supply of milk and so the plant there will be one of the company's most important. TYPHOID FROM BAD WELLS Health Department Condemns the Water Supply of Eight
