As Judge Reese responded he received quite an ovation, and spoke with decided vigor. "I have no purse to take up your time with an extended address," he said, "but I am glad of this opportunity to express through you to the people of the state my deep thanks for the honor conferred on me. I do not know just why they have preferred me, because al have a feeling that I have been selected in preference to a far better man. I have always had the highest regard and most profound respect for Judge Sedgwick, but seemed to have been forced to become candidate by a call I could not disregard. Platform Adopted by Nebraska Republican Convention adopted by the Nebraska republican convention at Lincoln on Tuesday, September

As the representatives of the republicans of Nebraska, in state convention assembled, we again commend the inspiring character and undaunted leadership of Theodore Roosevelt. We especially endorse what he has accomplished, with the support of a republican congress, toward subjecting the overweening railroads engaged in interstate commerce to the regulating arm of the government and in curbing the rapacity of the lawless trusts by forcing them to desist from their criminal practices. These policies have our unqualified approval, and in, order that no backward step be taken we will insist that his successor be a man whose racard piedges a co. Tanuance of the distinctive policies of the Roosevelt administration.

tration.
While not presuming to forestall the goon of any future convention, we express the belief that the republicans of Nebraska ecognize in the Hon. William H. Taft of recognize in the Hon. William H. Tart of Ohio one whose personal character and wilose long public service mark him as pre-eminently the man under whose leadership these policies would be perpetuated. We endorse the present state administration. State affairs are being conducted with integrity and business sagacity. Our public institutions are being neither injured by parsimony nor scandalized by profligacy. The state's credit is high and its long-standing debt is being rapidly extinguished and will soon be paid. Its public school funds are growing enormously and being wisely invested in interest-bearing securities.

mond of Fremont, P. E. McKillip of Humphrey was made temporary secretary, After a speech from Mr. McKillip the temporary organization was made permanent. Henry Davis was chosen secretary. W. H. Thompson of Grand Island then moved the appointment of a resolutions committee and the following were ap-

W. H. Thompson, Grand Island, chairman; H. C. Richmond of Fremont, George Rogers of Omaha, George Warren of A. W. Crites of Chadron, W. H. Barnes of Fairbury. The convention then adjourned until 3 o'clock, when the resolutions committee will report and the convention will select a state committee and listen to a speech by W. J. Bryan.

Following is the platform adopted by the Following is the platform adopted by th democratic convention: We, the democratic party of Nebraska, in delegate convention assembled, express our continued confidence in, and admiration for, iffonorable William Jennings Bryan; and reassert our fidelity to the principles which he has so ably advocated, and which at this time are so generally accepted by a large majority of the people of the United States.

United States.

We rejoice at the increasing signs of a moral awakening in the United States. The various investigations have traced graft and political corruption to the representatives of predatory wealth and laid rementatives of predatory wealth and laid bare the unscrupulous methods by which they have debauched elections and preved upon a defenseless public through the subservient officials whom they have raised to place and power. The conscience of the nation is now awakened and must not sleep until the government is freed from the grip of those who have made it a business asset of the favor-seeking corporations; it must become again "a government of the people, by the people and for the people" and be administered in all its departments according to the Jeffersonlan maxim. "Equal rights to all and special privileges to none."

its departments according to the Jeffersonlan maxim. "Equal rights to all and special privileges to none."

We heartly approve of the laws prohibiting the pass and the rebate, and insist upon further legislation, state and national, making it unlawful for any corporation to contribute to campaign funds, and providing for publication, before the election, of all individual contributions above a reasonable minimum.

Believing with Jefferson, in "the support of the state governments in all their rights and the most competent administrations for our domestic concerns and the surest bulwark against anti-Republican tendencies," and in "the preservation of the general government in its whole constitutional vigor, as the sheet anchor of our peace at home and safety abroad." we are opposed to the centralization implied in the suggestions, now frequently made, that the powers of the seneral government should be extended by judicial construction. While we favor the exercise by the general government of all its constitutional authority for the prevention of monopoly and for the regulation of interstate commerce, we insist that federal rewedles shall be added to, and not substituted for, state remedica.

We favor the election of United States the regulation of interstate commerce, we hastst that federal remedies shall be added to, and not substituted for, state remedies.

We favor the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people and regard this reform as the gateway to all other national reforms.

A private monopoly is indefensible and infolerable. We therefore favor the vigures enforcement of the criminal law arminst trusts sell trust magnates, and demand the emactment of such additional legislation as may be necessary to make it impossible for a private monopoly to exist in the United States, Among the additional remedies we specify three-first, a law compelling corporations, engaged in interstate commerce to sell to all purchasers in all parts of the country on the same terms, after making due allowance for cost of carriage; second, a law proventing the duplication of directors among compeling corporations; and third, a livence system which will, without abridging the right of each state to create corporations, or its right to regulate as it will foreign corporations doing husiness within its limits make it necessary for all manufacturing and trading corporations can be decaded became before it shall be permitted to control as much as Z per cent of the product in which it deals, the license to protect the public from watered stock and to prohibit the control by such corporation of more than 60 per cent of the distinction between the natural man and the artificial person called a corporation, and we favor the ensetment of such laws as may be necessary to compel foreign corporations to submit their legal disputes to the courts of the states in which they do business, and thus place themselves upon the scane feeting into competition with articles centrolled by trusts should be liaded in such other achedines as may be necessary to restore the tariff upon the necessaries of life, and reductions should be made in such other achedines as may be necessary to restore the tariff upon the necessaries of life, and reductions should be made

We favor an income tax as a part of our revenue system, and we urge the cubmission of a constitutional amendment specifically authorizing congress to levy and collect a tax upon both individual and corporate incomes, to the end that wealth bay bear its proportionate share of the burdens of the federal government. We favor a national inheritance tax to reach the "swellen fortunes" already in existence, but we believe that it is bettor to permenently arevent "swollen fortunes" by abolishing the privileges and favoritism uron which they are based.

We especially commend the last legislature for faithfully fulfilling republican pleakes made to the people. It was a record of legislative fidelity without precedent in Nebraska.

The platform pleages of political parties mean somthing only when read in the light of the record of achievement. It is our rare privilege to call attention anew to the platform promulgated by Nebraska republicans a year ago, whose every promise has been carried out in scrupulous good fai.b. The republicans promised the people of this state the tollowing reforms:

1. A state-wide direct primary:
2. Abolition of the free pass evil.
3. Comprehensive powers for the State Railway commission,
4. More equitable rates for transportation of passengers and freight.
5. Equal taxation of relight.
6. Abolition of fellow servant law and

We endorse the present state administration. State affairs are being conducted with integrity and business sagacity. Our public institutions are being neither injured by parsimony nor scandalized by profligacy. The state's credit is high and its long-standing debt is being rapidly extinguished and will soon be paid. Its public school funds are growing enormously and being wisely invested in interest-bearing securities.

Following the adoption of the platform.

George L. Loomis, nominee for supreme judge, and J. L. Bundean, candidate for regent, addressed the convention. Each thanked the convention and expressed apprectation of the nominations received as the primary. Mr. Sundean urged the democrats to work for Loomis regardless of the regents. Mr. Loomis spoke at length, dwelling on the importance of the judiciary and the responsibility resting on a supreme judge. He complimented the platform and

We endorse the work of the State Railway commission and expect it to continue to be a serviceable instrument in enforcing the laws without fear or favour and to deal speedily, impartially and justly with all complaints against the roads, And we especially endorse the present efforts of the commission to effect a reasonable additional reduction in grain rates. JUDGE T. C. MUNGER RULES Lincoln Man Will Hand Down Decision in Railroad Injunee tion Case.

Judge T. C. Munger will have the handing down of the decision in the hearing of the application of the railroads for an injunction to the order of the State Railway commission for an additional reduction to grain rates, as his colleague, Judge W. H. Munger has gone to Duluth to hold federal court. Much interest centers on this decision, which is expected in a day or two. Attorney General Thompson, in his argu ment against the issuing of a temporary injunction against the rallway commission, pointed out that there had been no indication that the commission intended to reduce rates on grain, that the notice sent out to the railroads on August 17, citing them to appear September 0 before the commission, was a mere formal order, without anything in it to indicate that any reduction of rates was contemplated. He beld that until an order has been made by the railway commission lowering grain rates the rallroads have no cause of complaint. He showed also that even after the order is made the railroads have thirty days to resist it. B. P. Waggoner, general attorney for the Missouri Pacific railroad in Kansas and Nebraska, opened the argument for the railroads. He took the position squarely that the railway commission does not Judge T. C. Munger inquired whether the same would not be true if the legislature were threatening to do what the rathroads and would do. The democratic prospects, think the railway commission is threatening, and Chester H. Aldrich, who was assisting the attorney general, suggested that if the railroads obeyed the law they would be in danger of being drowned when the "floodgates" were opened.

Judge McHugh then declared with con siderable dramatic fervor that it was true the rallroads could escape litigation by subaction which the commission is supposed to be about to take is not only grossly unjust, but confiscatory and even unconstitutional. If the 10 per cent reduction is made by the commission, he said, the railroads would be hauling the grain at less than cost. The multiplicity of suits and legal actions which would be sure to follow the making of the order by the commission should be avoided, and, he said, this could be done only by the granting of a temporary injunction by the federal court. Ben T. White, representing the Northwestern railroad, closed the argument for the ratiroads. At the request of Mr. Aldrich, for the state, the judges consented to hold an even
