AMERICAN BANKERS MEET

Three Sections Are in Convention at Atlantic City.

HOW TO PREVENT DEFALCATIONS

E. T. Perrine of New York Gives Comprehensive Address on Ways to Examine Banking Institutions.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 24.—The three sections of the American Bankers' association, those dealing with clearing houses, savings banks and clearing houses, met today in annual convention. The convention of the association, in which the three sections will participate, will begin tomorrow.

The theft of money, hiding the act either by substituting fictitious cash items or vouchers, which are not proper charges against the accounts of customers or against expense account, or else by withholding deposits or receipts of cash or income, in which cases the proper credit vouchers are withheld or destroyed.

It is against practice like these that a bank should be safeguarded by means of frequent searching examinations, whether made by local auditors or outside auditors for trustees and accountants. As to the manner of the work, apart from the frequent checking of all matters entrusted to employees—several times a year descent should be made, without warning, upon officers and clerks.

National Legislation Needed. William Hanhart, secretary of the savings bank section of the American Bankers' association, in a speech before a convention of the association today on "Uniform Laws for Savings Banks in the Various States," said that many national banks had savings departments, conducted with the permission of the United States comptroller, these savings should be safeguarded and protected by national legislation.

It is not possible, nor would it be desirable or fair, that savings banks should be preferred creditors, in permitting national banks to operate in savings departments, the deposits received in this department should be segregated and invested in the usual manner in savings banks.

Inadequate Savings Bank Laws. P. LeRoy Harwood, treasurer of the Mariners' Savings Bank of New London, Conn., in an address today on postal savings banks at the convention of the savings bank section of the American Bankers' association declared that the strongest demand for postal savings banks comes from sections where improper and inadequate state laws have permitted dishonest bankers and irresponsible banking institutions to carry their depositors with a very agency and one which might obviate the necessity of establishing a system of postal savings banks.

Mr. Harwood suggested: I have thought for some years that a good idea would be to have a general supervision of the banks in their territories. This would mean a central agency and supervision of the banks, which should, by all means, have the duty of bringing out better and more uniform investment laws and better supervision of the banks, which should, by all means, have the duty of bringing out better and more uniform investment laws and better supervision of the banks.

Women Returned to Home. CENTRAL CITY, Neb., Sept. 24.—(Special.)—Mrs. Clara Hunt, daughter of Eli Hunt, and Mrs. Tillie Langan, both of Silver Creek, arrived in the city Sunday evening, having been brought here from Omaha by the sheriff of Douglas county and given into the charge of Sheriff Hollister. Two weeks ago Henry Havers of Silver Creek was arrested on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of Clara Hunt and was released.

COLE'S HOT BLAST Wonderful Heater and Fuel Saver For Soft Coal, Lignite or Hard Coal. Cost of Stove Saved in Fuel. Guarantee. Avoid Imitations. Imitations of this Original Hot Blast are many. None of them has the absolutely air-tight and gas-tight construction through which Cole's Hot Blast has by reason of its numerous patents. A Patented Steel Collar connects the elbow draft to the stove body and cannot open by action of the fiercest heat. The Patented Compound Hinge on the lower draft cannot warp, and the draft door closes air-tight by its own weight. The guaranteed Smoke-proof Feed Door prevents smoke, dust or gas escaping when fuel is put in the stove. Imitations soon open seams and cracks which spoil them for keeping fire and cause the gas half of the coal and much of the heat to escape up the chimney.

bination and rendered the street lamps almost useless. The city officials maintained that since the gas company had maintained the lights for their own convenience, it was their duty to replace the burners that they threw out of commission, and upon the refusal of the company to do so, they were given the required sixty days' notice to terminate the contract.

MERRICK WANTS COURT HOUSE. Time is Too Short to Submit Proposition to Voters This Year. CENTRAL CITY, Neb., Sept. 24.—(Special.)—The people of Merrick county will not be given a chance to express their opinion on the question of voting $10,000 bonds for the erection of a new court house at the general election in November.

leaving upon $500 bonds, furnished by his uncle, Robert Cramer of Fremont. But upon his refusal to tell the whereabouts of the girl he was rearrested and the charge of abduction was preferred against him and his bond fixed at $1,000. His uncle again came to his rescue and Havens will appear for his preliminary hearing October 7. It was alleged that Havens, with the assistance of his mother, Mrs. Tillie Langan, sent the girl out of Silver Creek. He firmly refused to tell of the hiding place of either one of them. Sunday Mrs. Langan and the girl were discovered to be working at Brownell Hall in Omaha and were taken into custody. Monday Sheriff Hollister escorted the young girl to the home of her parents in Silver Creek. Mrs. Langan is still under arrest, but whether a charge will be preferred against her is not yet known.

of the organization to secure a pavilion at this city, where fine stock can be exhibited. After the appointment of several committees the meeting adjourned to October 21.

HONEYMOON SPENT IN JAIL. Youthful Bride in First Married Period to Come Within the Juvenile Court. Mrs. Hattie Martin, the 17-year-old bride who is spending her honeymoon in jail for the theft of some jewelry from the home of J. P. Kraus of Albright, will be taken before the juvenile court. This is said to be the first time a married person has come within the jurisdiction of the court, but Mrs. Martin's youth makes her juvenile delinquent and the law makes no distinction between married and unmarried delinquents. Mrs. Martin, whose maiden name was Lane, was married about a week before her arrest, to a young soldier at Fort Crook. Her case is made doubly pathetic by the fact her husband has been transferred to Fort Russell and was forced to leave her in jail Tuesday. Monday he called on her at the county jail and a pathetic interview took place.

SEES CITY AND PAPER GROW Judge Paul Kneaf Omaha and The Bee When Both Were in Their Infancy. Judge J. N. Paul and his brother, N. J. Paul, the latter a banker of St. Paul, Neb., are guests at the Paxton. The latter brought his daughter to Brownell hall. The Paul brothers came to Nebraska in an early day as government surveyors and were prominently connected with the territorial history of Nebraska. They founded the town of St. Paul, and it was named after them. "I remember well," said the judge, "how Omaha looked the first time I saw it. I remember also the first edition of the Omaha Bee that was printed, and when I look at them now I must say they have both done well."

VISITING MASON INJURED Falls from Steps at North Door of Auditorium After Concert. George M. Carpenter, one of the visiting Masons from Plattsmouth, a resident of the Masonic home, was injured about the back and legs by falling from the steps of the north door of the Auditorium at 11 o'clock Monday night. He was taken to the Omaha General hospital in the police ambulance. He is a man 58 years old, on account of his advanced age, it is feared his injuries may prove serious. Every attention is being given him by his brother Masons, and they notified his family of the accident.
