GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Grain Prices Work Lower on Usual Saturday's Dullness.

PIT CROWD DOMINATES WHEAT

Corn Prices Soften | but Trading to Light-Demand for Oats Fair and the Market to otronger.

OMAHA, Sept. 28, 1907. Grain was fairly steady at the start and worked lower toward noon. Little interest was shown and the usual dull Saturday market prevailed.

Tables came some higher, but the crowd was as bearish as ever and were selling.

Wheat started steady, but weakened some near the close on selling by the pit crowd. Commission houses bought some, but little interest was evident.
