Uncertain. and Active. OMAHA, Sept. 39, 1307. There was no local option market today on account of the removal of the offices of the Omaha Grain exchange from the Board of Trade to the Brandels building. Neither was the exchange able to get from the railroads a report of ears received and hisped, as telephones were not in com-mission. The representatives of Chicago option houses tried to do business, but were onsiderably handicaped by the confusion incident to emigration to new quarters. Considerable cash business was done on the floor at the new offices. Business and Prices. SOUTH OMAHA, Sept. 30, 1907. FRUITS AND MELONS.
