Distress After Eating

Do You Ever Feel As Though You Had Swallowed A Brick, Instead of A Meal?

That heavy, bloated, stuffed-up, lead-like feeling, which you often experience after eating a meal, is positive proof that something is wrong with your digestive organs, They are becoming weak and fagged out. There is a lack of gastric and other digestive juices. The food is no longer properly digested and it forms a heavy load on your stomach, so that nearly every meal causes you misery and distress.

If you are in this condition, it means that you have dyspepsia in some form and may have had it for some time, though you didn't realize it.

Now in the time to check it, for if you don't it will surely develop into worse forms of dyspepsia and other stomach troubles, which may have serious results But that is not all. The stomach is the hub of the body and an injury to it is an injury to all. A weak stomach causes the whole body to suffer. The action of the heart, liver and kidneys becomes sluggish. The brain becomes inactive. The nerves secome unstrung. The blood loses its

The only safe, sure, acientific method of restoring your stomach to its healthy, normal state, is to uses Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which will act as a substitute in digesting your food, thus giving your stomach a much needed rest.

FATALITY AT GRADE CROSSING

Disregard of Flagman's Signals Proves Fatal.

GRINNELL, Ia., Oct. 2.-(Special Tele gram.)-A grade crossing accident occurred at the Rock Island crossing on Main street about 5 o'clock this afternoon by sentative Government" on Monday evening which Mrs. Jonathan Gilbert, about 65 as a part of the Lycoum course. He was years old, lost her life and her body was horribly mangled. She was on the back spoke for three hours. He held up a dark seat of a spring wagon with two others on the front seat. The flagman is said to have warned them not to attempt to cross as the switch engine was at work with freight cars. A car coming from the east struck the rear of the wagon and threw the woman out directly on the track and under the wheels, which caught and crushed the body, pushing it about thirty feet before the car ould be stopped. It required nearly an hour to get the body from under the wheels, which had to be lifted with jackscrews.

Mackown Has Slight Chance. WEBSTER CITY, Ia., Oct. 3 .- (Special.) The famous case against George Mackown. alleged embezzler and fire bug, who is charged with having embezzled some $15, 606 from the Northwestern Felt Shoe company of this city and then with de liberation and cold blooded determination to have burned to the ground the company's $100,000 plant to hide the alleged embezzlement, is now hung up in the district court in this city on a technicality. If a motion which D. C. Chase, attorney for Mackown, has filed is given the same ruling Monday by Judge Lee that has been given in the district court in Des Moincs, the indictments against Mackown will be quashed, in which event it is likely the famous prisoner will walk forth from his cell in the jail a free man. Mr. Chase's motion is based upon the Iowa statute, which provides that no member of an election board shall return his own name upon the jury list. The list from which the jury was drawn that indicted Mackown contained the name of one clerk and one judge, and upon the jury itself sat F. A. Huddleston of this city, who was a clerk of election in the Second ward. In Polk county it has been held that jury lists of this kind are of no value. The lists there have been dislanding at New Orfeans. On January 8, supreme court, however, has not yet ruled 1865, he was united in marriage to Rosa upon this interesting technicality, so that

The feeling among the members is intense and the division among them will cause bad spirft for years if it is not permanent. Friends of Father Luke Donlon have today published a letter in which they defend his position and in it they gaged by Green, but when the plaintiff deny many of the alleged statements made by the press as false. Today another member of the disturbed church, Thomas B. Casey, has brought suit for permanent injunction against the Rev. Luke Donlon. charging him with barring him and his family from the pew for which he had paid and in which he had worshiped for years. He charges malicious intent and the injunctions served are very sweeping in their scope, forbidding the Rev. Luke Donlon from referring to the matters at issue in the community in which he lives and commanding his presence at the January term of the district court.

This has always been a very strong church and has about six hundred communicants. There is also a parochial school in this city under the charge of the resident priest.

KISTNER'S JOKE WORKS WELL Takes Jewelry, Wife Calls the Police and Then Faints.

M. Kistner, 4324 Farnam street, has proved himself a practical joker of no mean ability. His wife went down town Wednesday afternoon and locked the house up before leaving. She returned home in the evening and found the upstairs window open. A hasty investigation revealed that her diamond ring, three gold watches, some silver spoons, brooches, lockets, pins and numerous other articles were missing. Officers and after teiling her story Mrs. Kisiner fainted.

As the neighbors were working to bring her to, and the sleuths were looking for a clue, Mr. Kistner appeared on the scene and confessed that he was the man that a proper remuneration for capital actually did the job. He said be just wanted to play invested, squeezing out water of stock. He a trick on his wife and was sorry it took so serious a turn.

Ground Floor Offices...

are scarce, especially in the center of the business district of Omaha. This fact is an indication of the growth of the city, as well as the volume of business which is being transacted. R. C. Peters & Co. were compelled to move into larger quarters and because we could not give them more space they rented elsewhere.

IS YOUR BUSINESS GROWING? Don't you want to be on the ground floor? Here is an opportunity to rent space that will please you and give you a chance to increase the volume of your business.

The Bee Building offers for rent one room 16-6x40-6 and another 19-10x25-10 on the 17th street side of the building on the ground floor There is a large vault in connection with these rooms and they can be rented as one large room or divided. On the Sixth floor we have for rent three rooms facing 17th street and three rooms which are nicely arranged on the court.

On the Fifth floor is a suite of two offices, 22x20 and 7x30, with good light. There is a vault in the larger of these rooms. We have other rooms for rent and would be pleased to have you call and let us show you through the building. Remember you do not have to pay extra for light, water, heat nor janitor service here as it all goes free. Ask for Mr. R. W. Baker, Supt. THE BEE BUILDING CO."
