Market is Inactive and is Unfurnished by Striking Movements. BURDEN OF NEW SECURITIES

Issues for First Nine Months of the Year Are Nearly Two Billion Dollars - Close to Districtly Strong.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7. - There was no considerable revival of speculative interest in today's stock market, and its surface was unimpaired by any striking movement of any important stock.

The Great Northern plan contracted the effect of some of the recent rather stormy public utterances by the head of the system, which have weighed on the securities of his companies.

The Saturday bank statement was not lost sight of, although its influence for the moment was rather unimportant.

CLARKE CALLED TO CHICAGO

Lowie Avenue Presbyterian Pastor Wanted at Evanston. SECOND CHURCH INVITES HIM

He Will Formally Announce His Decision to His Congregation at the Morning Service Next Sunday.

Omaha probably will lose another of its most prominent pastors. Rev. A. S. C. Clarke D. D., of Lowie Avenue Presbyterian church, has received an unanimous call to become the pastor of the Second Presbyterian church of Evanston, Ill.

He will announce his formal decision at the morning service of his church next month. After that he will deliberate on the proposition.

The call from Evanston is a very attractive one, though Dr. Clarke is loath to leave the Omaha church to which he feels strongly bound by ties of love and devotion.

He came to Omaha, September 1, 1902, and assumed the pastorate of a church, which had been without a pastor for ten months. A church whose membership was scattered and whose financial status was at a low ebb.

The building was an antiquated frame structure and the situation altogether uninviting. From those conditions the church has been built up to a standard of strength and activity surpassed by none other in the city.

It is among the potent influences in the religious life of the city; thoroughly organized in its various departments and on a good financial footing. Members who had gone to other churches have been brought back, debts that embarrassed the congregation have been paid and in their place of a crude frame building an edifice of beauty and comfort, costing $30,000, has been erected and mostly paid for.

New Adjunct to Church. Within the last few months Dr. Clarke has organized a new adjunct to the church, the Brotherhood, which consists of twenty men. To this Brotherhood he has given his own home, which has proved the wisdom of his conception thus far, with greater prospects for the future.

This Brotherhood is somewhat of an innovation and is attracting the attention of other pastors. Three Sundays ago three members of the official board of the Second church of Evanston attended at the Second Avenue church, heard Dr. Clarke preach and went back to their church with the recommendation that he be called as its pastor.

Dr. Clarke came to Omaha from Chicago and he will go back to that locality no stranger in the religious world. His former work at the Westinghouse college, at Fulton, Mo., was done at McCormick, the Chicago Presbyterian ministry. When he came to Omaha he bought a home at Forty-first street and Lafayette avenue and two years ago he sold that residence and built a larger one next to it. Should he go to Evanston he expects to sell his Omaha property.
