Money for Campaign.

Harry C. Lindsay, treasurer of the republican state committee, is abroad in the land after money and every loyal republican who has enjoyed the prosperity of the last few years and every good democrat and populist who has grown richer during the time the republicain party has been administering the affairs of state is invited to contribute a small or large sum, that the expense of the campaign may be paid. The result of the election will determine whether the laws are going to be construed by republican officials, and therefore it is up to all loyal Nebraskans to help swell the cash fund, says Mr. Lindsay. Chairman Hayward went to Omaha this morning, where he spent the day in the interest of the ticket.

Complaint Against Saloon.

James Belton, an officer of the Anti-Saloon league, has writtten to the attorney general complaining that the liquor laws are not being enforced at North Platte; that saloons are allowed to run open on Sundays and after closing hours. Belton lives at Western. His letter was referred by the attorney general to the governor.

Yeiser and Dickinson Stick.

John O. Yeiser and Charles T. Dickinson, who ran on both the republican and democratic tickets at the late primary and received the nomination for district judge at the hands of the democrats, have not yet withdrawn and neither have they filed any suit to compel the secretary of state to put them on the republican ticket. Unless they take some action they will go on the democratic ticket, but not on the republican ticket. W. A. Foster, who was also endorsed by the democrats, though running as a republican, withdrew his name from the democratic ticket after the primary.

Fusion Judge Withdraws.

W. L. Rose, fusion nominee in the Sixth district for judge, has withdrawn and the committees of the various counties in that district have substituted the name of George H. Thomas of Columbus.

Interstate Express Business.

Rate Clerk Powell of the State Railway commission has made a compilation of the amount of interstate business done by the various express companies, compared with the state business. During a period of three days the following is the per cent of the interstate business done at several towns: Grand Island, 12 per cent; Hastings, 55 per cent; Aurora, 42 per cent; Lincoln, 43 per cent; Omaha, 52 per cent. In Omaha and Lincoln only one day's business was considered. The total business done in the towns named amounted to $4,602.34, of which $1,931.95 was interstate.

Bids for Electric Work Rejected.

The bids for putting up the poles and stringing the wire to connect the state house with the lighting plant at the state penitentiary were both rejected and new bids will be advertised for. Only two bids were filed, one by the Western Electrical company of Omaha and one by Wheeler of Havelock. There was $500 difference in the bids, Wheeler agreeing to do the work for $4,000. It was reported Wheeler is a brother-in-law of Land Commissioner Eaton, a member of the board with the contract. This morning Mr. Eaton denied that he was in any way related to Wheeler and had only met him a few months ago.

Trouble Over Pig.

Because John Doctor hold a receipt for $10 for a pig bought by him from A. D. Gilmore, steward of the insane asylum here, and the sale of the pig does not appear in the biennial report of the superintendent of the asylum, someone has started trouble for Gilmore. Doctor found the report of the institution did not correspond to the receipt he held, so he called at the office of a lawyer and told him the story. The receipt is dated November 21, 1905. Gilmore this afternoon said the bookkeeper had merely neglected to put the item in the report, though the books show the transaction all right. The story was dug up by a democratic lawyer in Lincoln, who still remembers the Galloway pass, published with such disastrous results to the democrats during the last campaign.

NAMES MUST GO ON THE TICKET

Important Point in the Primary Law Ruled on by Judge Welch.

DAKOTA CITY, Neb., Oct. 9.—(Special.)—Under a decision handed down by District Judge A. A. Welch, sitting here for Judge Guy T. Graves, a voter under the new Nebraska primary law, has the right to write any name he chooses on the primary election ballot for any person he wishes to vote for, irrespective of politics, and the parties having received the highest number of votes at said primary election shall be the nominees of such primary, notwithstanding the provisions of the primary law relative to performing certain acts to become the candidate of a party have not been complied with. Judge Welch held that the constitution gave the voter the right to vote for whomsoever he pleases, without any ifs and ands about it.

The hearing in the case of Tom Sullivan asking for a writ of mandamus compelling County Clerk Ross to print names on the official ballot of candidates who had received a majority vote at the primary election by the democrats who had in no way complied with the law relative to becoming such candidates, was the case at issue. The democrats in this county only had two regularly provided for candidates on the primary ballot, and at the primary election the democrats of Jackson connived together and cast upwards of twenty votes for an agreed lot of candidates for the respective offices, which was a majority of the votes cast in the county for such offices. Although County Clerk Ross had intimated that he construed the law as such that he would not place these names on the official ballot, he has not flatly refused so to do. A mandamus proceeding was instituted to compel him to place said names on the official ballot. Judge Welch held that on the merits of the case the relator was entitled to a preemptory writ of mandamus, but as the time had not yet arrived for making up the official ballot the writ of mandamus could not be granted at this time until it was seen that Clerk Ross failed or refused to perform said act. Leave was granted the relator to file an amended petition setting out certain material allegations which were omitted in the original petition, which will be done, and a hearing held on Wednesday afternoon of this week.

Judge Welch based his findings on decisions rendered by the courts of Minnesota and Michigan on the primary laws of their respective states, which Nebraska's new law was patterned after.

Fat Defeating Extraordinary

Margaret Knolly

SLENDER Margaret Knolly, now, if you please. The fascinating leading lady of the Bijou, now more fascinating than ever, astonished all her friends on Broadway the other day by presenting to their admiring gaze a svelt and willowy form in place of the plump, not to say fat, outlines with which she gaily sailed away to new triumphs and foreign shores last January. After a good deal of diplomatic cross-examination from interested fat acquaintances the secret was cautiously whispered to a few dear friends, with the result that everybody knows it now. It was not exercise, nor fasting, nor sea air, nor worry about her new venture that had brought about this wonderful willowy change in the charming Margaret; no, none of these; nothing but a simple mixture which all good druggists are familiar with and can supply at small cost, to-wit: One half ounce Marmola, one-half ounce Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic, and three and one-half ounces of Syrup Simplex. "Grown folks need a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime," explained the now slender Margaret. "It is simply wonderful. It takes off the fat quickly, as much as a pound a day, and keeps it off. You can eat what you like, too. In that respect it is unlike anything of the kind I ever heard of and besides it has another splendid feature—it is entirely harmless and will not cause wrinkles. I think it is about as essential a toilet article for the woman who is fat and wants to get thinner as face powder. In order to get the best results, however, you should buy the Marmola in the original package and mix it with the other two ingredients after you get home."—Adv.

Charcoal Kills Bad Breath

Bad Odor of Indigestion, Smoking, Drinking or Eating Can be Instantly Stopped

Sample Package Mailed Free

Other people notice your bad breath where you would not notice it at all. It is nauseating to other people to stand before them and while you are talking, give them a whiff or two of your bad breath. It usually comes from food fermenting on your stomach. Sometimes you have it in the morning—that awful sour, bilious, bad breath. You can stop that at once by swallowing one or two Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges, the most powerful gas and odor absorbers ever prepared.

Sometimes your meals will reveal themselves in your breath to those who talk with you. "You've had onions," or You've been eating cabbage," and all of a sudden you belch in the face of your friend. Charcoal is a wonderful absorber of odors, as everyone knows. That is why Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are so quick to stop all gases and odors of odorous foods, or gas from indigestion.

"Don't use breath perfumes. They never conceal the odor, and never absorb the gas that causes the odor. Besides, the very fact of using them reveals the reason for their use. Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges in the first place stop for good all sour brash and belching of gas, and make your breath pure, fresh and sweet, just after you've eaten. Then no one will turn his face away from you when you breathe or talk; your breath will be pure and fresh, and besides your food will taste so much better to you at your next meal. Just try it.

Charcoal does other wonderful things too. It carries away from your stomach and intestines, all the impurities there massed together and which causes the bad breath. Charcoal is a purifier as well as an absorber.

Charcoal is now by far the best, most easy and mild laxative known. A whole box full will do no harm; in fact, the more you take the better. Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are made of pure willow charcoal and mixed with just a faint flavor of honey to make them palatable for you, but not too sweet. You just chew them like candy. They are absolutely harmless.

Get a new, pure, sweet breath, freshen your stomach for your next meal, and keep the intestines in good working order. These two things are the secret of good health and long life. You can get all the charcoal necessary to do these wonderful but simple things by getting Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges. We want you to test these little wonder workers yourself before you buy them. So send us your full name and address for a free sample of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges. Then after you have tried the sample, and been convinced, go to your druggist and get a 25c box of them. You'll feel better all over, more comfortable and "cleaner" inside.

Send us your name and address today and we will at once send you by mail a sample package free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 209 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

NEBRASKA FROM DAY TO DAY

Quaint and Curious Features of Life in a Rapidly Growing State.

Albert Duhachek has a new pair of high tan shoes.—Madison County Reporter, South Closter Items.

We Shudder to Imagine—What would happen to the fellow who would suggest enforcing the anti-treating law in Columbus? —Columbus Tribune.

Don' Speak Mistah—Say, some of you folks, how would you like to go "back east" and gather hazelnuts, paw paws, barberries, hickory nuts, sweet cider, pumpkin pies, chestnuts, sassafras roots and wintergreen. Oh, gee!—Beaver City Times-Tribune.

Saving Elbow Grease—Charles Wittgow, who lives just west of the park, has a gas engine that saves lots of work. All the water is pumped for the stock, it runs a churn, washing machine and furnishes power for whatever he runs. It is great on wash day, and if the ordinary farmer wants his wife to be always young, happy and good looking, get an engine to do the hard work.—Stanton Register.

Across the River—That one Sunday not so long ago a Sioux Cityite with his bathing suit wrapped in a newspaper went out to Foye's park on the car line. A picnic party was on the car, packages got mixed and when the man stripped to put on his bathing suit he had a roll of butter, and the woman in charge of the picnic dinner had no grease to spread on her picnic dinner except a faded bathing suit. Neither could stomach what they got. The fates are always handing us packages we do not want.—North Nebraska Eagle.

Real Hornets—John Richards was in the Mirror office the other day and told how he and other boys in olden times used to have fun with hornets' nests. The boys of today don't hardly know what a hornet's nest is. Well, they are about the size of a man's head, and sometimes is big as a half bushel. The boys would club the nest and the hind boy got stung, as they tried to run faster than the hornets could fly. One day Mr. Richards clubbed a nest in a grove where there was a herd of cattle, and you bet the cattle went on an old-time stampede.—Lyons Mirror.

ANTI-SALOON MEN ARE BUSY

Planning Campaign Against Derelict County Officials.

THOMAS AND CARNES CONSULTING

Visit Attorney General and Study Up Law of Quo Warranto— Missouri Pacific to Be Forced to Speed Limit.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Oct. 9.—(Special Telegram.)—J. B. Carnes, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league of Nebraska, and Elmer E. Thomas of Omaha, were in consultation with Attorney General W. T. Thompson this morning, and later they spent considerable time in the state library looking up the law governing quo warranto proceedings. While not stating their purpose, it is surmised here that the anti-saloon forces of the state are lining up to enforce the Slocumb law governing the sale of liquor and that they intend under a law recently enacted, to force county legal officers to take a stand on the matter or undergo prosecution for failure so to do and suffer possible removal.

The last legislature passed a bill introduced by Senator Sackett of Gage county which permits the removal of derelict county officials. The law was passed for the purpose of giving a leverage upon certain officers who failed to see certain offenses while they prosecuted others. It is believed that the temperance people are lining up for some such contest. The proceedings must have the sanction of the attorney general of the state. Mr. Thompson today declined to discuss the matter.

Order Against Missouri Pacific.

This afternoon or tomorrow the railroad commissioners will probably order the Missouri Pacific road to submit a new time table with a speed schedule in accordance with what the commission believes is safety on that line. Passenger trains will not be allowed to run to exceed twenty-five miles an hour; freight trains, not over twenty miles an hour, and trains hauled by what is known as "battleship" engines, at not to exceed fifteen miles an hour.

It is not known when the order will go into effect.

This order is the result of the recent investigation of the line by Commissioner Williams, who found the line was not ballasted properly. The order will require the road to lay new rails, ballast the track and make certain other improvements before a faster schedule will be permitted.

Commissioner Williams will go at once to Mason City and investigate the recent fires caused in that vicinity by sparks from Burlington engines. Much property loss has resulted from this cause, the claim being that on several occasions the trainmen have removed spark arresters in order to produce better drafts on their engines while making time.

Soldiers and Pensions.

The Board of Public Lands and Buildings has issued an order that will save veterans of the Grand Island and Milford Soldier's homes from $1.50 to $12 a month. Heretofore veterans receiving pensions have been compelled to pay to the home all they receive in excess of $12 a month. Under the new order they will pay as follows: Those receiving $12 and not more than $19, 10 per cent of the pension; those receiving $20 and not more than $23, 20 per cent; those receiving $24 and not more than $29, 30 per cent of the pension; and those receiving $30 and over, a sum to be specified by the commandant of the home and the board.

Entire Canvass May Result.

Unless the supreme court reverses the decision of the district court of Dakota county, which ruled that names written into the primary ballot must be counted, it is claimed that all of the election boards of the state will have to meet again and recanvas the vote of the last primary, for, on the recommendation of Attorney General Thompson, these votes were disregarded.

Judge Welch rendered the decision last evening, ordering the county clerk to put on the ballot the names of candidates written into the ballot and receiving a plurality of the votes for their particular offices.

Upon this agreement the bishop is said to have erected a home, and to have interested others to put money into the enterprise. It appears that shortly before his death Mr. Lynch was visited by some of his relatives, who influenced him to make a will in their favor, and that when the will was opened it was found that the property had been left to others and that the contract with the bishop had been ignored. Now comes Bishop Bonacum and asks to have the contract enforced. The case is an interesting one and will be pushed for all there is in it.

BEATRICE—The annual sunset reception given yesterday afternoon at the Methodist Episcopal church to those nearing the sunset of life—60 years of age and upwards—was attended by over 300 persons. The interior of the church was beautifully decorated for the occasion, which was the most largely attended and most successful of any like event ever held in the city. An interesting musical and literary program was rendered, after which a bountiful supper was served in the basement of the church. The affair was given by the Epworth league of Centenary Methodist church. The oldest guest in attendance was Mark Davis, who is 95 years of age.

S.S.S. CURES BLOOD POISON

In no other disease is a thorough cleansing of the blood more necessary than in Contagious Blood Poison. The least particle of this insidious virus will multiply in the circulation and so thoroughly contaminate the blood that no part of the body will be exempt from the ravages of this powerful disease. Usually the first symptom is a little sore or ulcer, insignificant in itself, but soon the blood becomes so contaminated that the mouth and throat ulcerate, glands in the groin swell, hair and eye-brows come out, copper-colored spots appear on the body, and frequently sores and ulcers break out on the flesh to humiliate the sufferer. S. S. S. cures Contagious Blood Poison by purifying the circulation. It attacks the disease in the right way by going down into the circulation, neutralizing and forcing out every particle of the poison, and making this fluid pure, fresh and health-sustaining. The improvement commences as soon as the patient gets under the influence of S. S. S., and continues until every trace of the disease is removed from the blood, and the sufferer completely restored to health. Not one particle of the poison is left for future out-breaks after S. S. S. has purged and purified the blood. Book on the home treatment of this disease and any medical advice desired free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

Model 1908-F..... Stoddard-Dayton

AN art creation among enclosed motor cars, Stoddard-Dayton Model 8-F Limousine possesses every attribute of elegance and proficiency. The motorist who wants rich comfort and luxurious durability will find his every requirement in this Limousine, which would lend dignity to the garage of Creosus himself, had he lived in the age of automobiling.

Not one convenience of the modern drawing-room awheel—the title aptly given to the Stoddard-Dayton Limousine—is overlooked in the equipment of this new Model, which is interchangeable with the body of Model 8-F. No brougham of the highest grade is finished with any greater degree of magnificence than marks the equipment of this handsome car, upholstered in goat-skin, satin and broadcloth.

It is lighted with electricity, provided with a speaking tube, through which the chauffeur may receive instant instructions. Toilet and card cases add to the completeness of a car which—like all Stoddard-Dayton machines—is pre-eminently a car of silence.

In a Motor Beauty Show, Stoddard-Dayton Model 8-F Limousine proves as distinctively handsome as a Jacqueminot rose centered in a cluster of wild flowers. It is the peer in beauty, speed and elegance of cars sold at the highest price.

There's no chance for an argument as to whether The Bee want ads pay or not. They always pay if they ask anything consistent. There are so many people in Omaha that somebody is qualified to fill any sort of a want. If you want to find a position or somebody to fill a position; if you want to find the loser or the finder of an article; if you want to find a landlord or a tenant, try a Bee want ad.
