NOTES ON OMAHA SOCIETY

Montgomery-Johnson Bridal Party Among the Much Entertained.

FRIDAY PROVES AN EXCEPTION
instead of Usual Quiet Day it Develops Most Gayety of Week—Card Clubs Becoming Much in Evidence.

Friday for the last few months has won for itself the reputation of being a quiet day socially, but this week it has proved an exception, as it has more affairs scheduled than any other day of the week. Most of them are small and not of a pretentious nature, however.

Miss Marion Johnson, whose marriage to Harry Montgomery will take place next Wednesday, still continues to be honor guest at many social affairs. Friday Miss Mary Morgan gave a beautiful luncheon for her at her home, "Hillside." The table decorations were most appropriate for a bride's table and green being the color scheme employed. White carnations tied with white tulle and combined with ferns and greens were used for a centerpiece, and the plate cards were exceptionally pretty, being little wedding bells. Covers were laid for Miss Marion Johnson, Miss Elsie Noyes and Miss Vera Noyes of Chicago, Miss Ruth Moorhead, Miss Etta Beaman, Miss Marion Haller, Miss Mary Alice Rogers, Miss Morgan, Mrs. Karl Kiplinger and Mrs. Clark Powell.

Miss Johnson and Harry Montgomery will be honor guests in the evening at a theater party given by Mrs. C. S. Montgomery at the Orpheum. The guest list includes: Miss Johnson, Miss Elsie and Miss Vera Noyes of Chicago, Miss Etta Beaman, Miss Ruth Moorhead, Miss Mary Alice Rogers, Miss Mary Morgan, Miss Marion Haller, Harry Montgomery, Harry Kelly, Bryant Rogers, Paul Beaton, William Schnorr of Council Bluffs, Gailard Martin, Richard Baker and John Redick.

Mrs. Frank Johnson will give a luncheon at her home Saturday for Miss Johnson's bridesmaids; Saturday afternoon Miss Mary Alice Rogers will give a card party for Miss Johnson; Monday evening William Schnorr of Council Bluffs, who is to be the best man, will give a stag dinner at his home for Harry Montgomery.

Comics Club.
Mrs. Ben Marti was hostess Thursday afternoon at the meeting of the Comics club. High five was the game of the afternoon, and the high score was made by Mrs. Marti, but no prize was awarded, as the scores are kept for the season and at the close the one having the highest score is given the prize. Refreshments were served during the afternoon, when her guests were seated at one large table, which was beautifully decorated in red and white. Red shaded candles and red roses carried out these colors. Those present were: Mrs. E. B. Ferris, Mrs. W. E. Hayes, Mrs. W. S. Heaton, Mrs. A. L. Hoover, Mrs. Arthur Kuhn, Mrs. D. E. Lovejoy, Mrs. Ben Marti, Mrs. W. K. Swisher, Mrs. G. E. Townsend, and Mrs. J. P. Webster. The guests of the club were: Mrs. Storm and Mrs. Cushman. The next meeting of the club will be in two weeks with Mrs. W. K. Swisher.

Musical at Minne-Luss.
Miss Pearl Teetzel of Los Angeles, Cal., will be honor guest at an elaborate dinner Friday evening given by Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hunt at their home, Minne-Luss Lodge, Florence. The guests are to be seated at one large T-shaped table, which will have a centerpiece of varied colored chrysanthemums, red predominating. The entire dining room will be carried out in Japanese appointments. Covers will be laid for twenty-four. Following dinner an informal musical program will be given by Miss Teetzel, Mrs. George Shields, Mrs. Jean Durfield and Mrs. Myrtle Wells.

Bridge Luncheon.
Mrs. Frank Walters of 2113 Harney street was hostess at one of the charming affairs of Friday, a bridge luncheon given in honor of her mother, Mrs. F. H. Phipps of Cedar Rapids, Ia., and her sister, Mrs. C. O. Johnston of Durant, I. T. For luncheon the guests were seated at small tables, each of which had for a centerpiece a round basket filled with pink geraniums and maidenhair ferns. The plate cards were white with the hostess' monogram done in gold.

For the W. C. T. U.
Following the street car ride tendered by the Commercial club about two hundred members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of Iowa, in session this week at Council Bluffs, were guests of the Omaha Women's Christian Temperance Union members at Minne-Luss Lodge, the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hunt at Florence, Thursday afternoon. After being shown over the pumping station the women were received at Mrs. Hunt's hospitable home, where refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed. Assisting Mrs. Hunt in receiving were Mrs. Clara Durbank, Mrs. Hugh Fellers, Mrs. Fred Patterson and through the rooms were Mary G. Andrews, Mrs. Millie and Mrs. M. M. Standish. In the refreshment room were Mrs. J. H. Woolery, Mrs. A. N. Eaton, Mrs. F. A. Poulansbee and Mrs. M. Ros, while Miss Edith Sanborn and Miss Jennette Miller presided at the fruit bowl.

Prospective Pleasures.
Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Darlow gave a card party of twelve tables Friday evening at their home, 432 Isard street, in honor of Miss Ida Darlow. The horse show colors, red and white, were used in the decorations, which were carried out in the flowers, spore cards and refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. James F. De Jarnette of Lincoln, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Lola Eby, to Mr. Edwin Abner French of Omaha, the wedding to take place in November.

The Owl club, which was to have been entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. Max Burkhead, has postponed its meeting one week, owing to the illness of Mrs. Burkhead.
Come and Go Gossip.
Mrs. F. N. Phipps of Cedar Rapids, Ia., and Mrs. C. O. Johnston of Durant, I. T., who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walters, will leave the early part of next week for their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Crawford Johnson returned Thursday from their wedding trip and will make their home in Council Bluffs.
Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bedwell have returned from Denver and Colorado Springs.

WATER BOARD IS IN DOUBT
Members Not Certain What to Do About the Bond Election Matter.

With Monday as the last day on which notice of a special election for the issuance of bonds can be made, members of the Omaha Water board are in doubt as to what the board will do at its adjourned meeting to be held Saturday evening.

At the meeting held Wednesday night nothing was done and after a brief session the board adjourned and the members retired to the office of Dr. A. H. Hippie, where the matters before them were discussed until a late hour. What those matters were remains a state secret and the answers of members to questions on the subject indicate a determination to confuse questions by diversity of answers, but a summary of the replies indicates there was considerable diversity of opinion both at that meeting and at others as to the legal powers of the board and the legal phases of the bond proposition. Several points were referred to attorneys of the board and at this time those points have not been passed upon, but members of the board hope opinions will be received before Saturday evening so that final action can be taken.

The bond proposition is not the only one under discussion. The board says it desires to devise some plan by which it can compel the water company to extend its mains and at the same time to preserve any rights it may now possess in matters of litigation which might be jeopardized by direct orders of the company.

SENATOR AS MAIL CLERK
Norris Brown Hides in Car to Learn of Needs of the Service and Men.

United States Senator Norris Brown, in pursuit of information based upon practical observation as to the needs of the railway mail service, went out to Grand Island on last mail train No. 5 Omaha and Ogden division of the Union Pacific, Friday morning. He took the trip in a mail car to observe the practical working of the railway mail system and to give it a thorough inspection and to ascertain in what manner the service might be improved.
