The wash and massage as given in the formula below comes from the noted French dermatologist and is most generally used among the ladies of the exclusive dal ofreles of Paris where powder and smetics of all kinds are now scorned. Obtain from your drugglet the following: Two ounces of Rose Water; one junce Cologne Spirits; four ounces crys-fallized Sartoin (skin food). Put the Sartoin in a pint of hot water (not boiling); let it cool, then strain brough a fine cloth into a bottle or small Wuit jar and add the Rose Water and ogne Spirits.

This will make a sufficient quantity to hast for a long time and is an inexpen-sive tollet preparation, at the same time eing the most effective known to the profession. The only thing to remember in asing it is that it must be well massaged into the ekin. If this is done and it is hood persistently it is remarkable how it will restore that enviable youthful bloom.

A number of beautiful gifts | movement cannot be denied, but to the silver were received. The aut-of-town discerning one if is the change of evoluguests were Mr. and Mrs. Dahlman of tion rather than decline. The thirteenth Wahoo, Mr. and Mrs. Lindberg of Craig annual convention of the Nebraska Federation of Women's Clubs held last week at Hastings afforded an admirable Illustration. of the evolution of the club movement is the state. In striking contrast to the strenuous conventions of the nast, where Mrs. A. C. Bruce has returned from a club politics, serious problems of reform and the struggle of the conservative with the aggressive element of the federation mingled with social affairs of more or less formal nature in sessions wearying to soul and body alike, the Hastinus convention with well balanced attention to all branches of federation work was interesting and belieful in every detail, without jar or friction or even a little excitement when the election came around. To be sure this is an "off" year. The wamen asked for much and gained much last year in the way of legislation, and the things that necessitate work that is not always pleasunt, and this year are enjoying their reward of quiet study. The club pendulum has awang a long way to the side of philanthropy and in spite of woman's alleged love for meddling ta "men's affairs" the self-culture club is still the most attractive to the average woman. This was evident at Hastings. The program was admirably arranged and proved attractive far beyond the expectation of the hostesses. The convention was one of the largest ever held, with its 152 delegates, representing eighty-four towns, besides many other club from a visit to Jefferson county, Miswomen who came merely as visitors. The presence of the traveling art loan exhibit of the General Federation contributed an attractive feature, while the exhibition of manual training school work from the public schools of Columbus afforded opportunity for comparison of methods and work in a line in which the great majority of clubs are interested. The literary program on which Prof. S. H. Clark of Chicago was the chief speaker, was a conspicuous feature of the convention. Almost no business came before the meeting, excepting the election of officers. The much discussed blennial inor the state assented, much convention was not even

The Misses Elsie and Vera Noyes of The unantmous re-election of Mrs. H. L.
