

LOTHES MAKING like everything else, requires knowing how. A good many clothes makers mean well enough - they do their best, but they lack experience, talent, organization. How many of us would like to write a book, paint a pictui compose song. It is h the same in clothes maki everything requires talent and knowing how. We have been making clothes for forty-four years. We have become one of the largest clothes making establishments in America. There must be a reason. There is; you'll find it in our garments, on sale at good clothes dealers at $10 to $25.

Coach Cole Makes Up List of Twenty to Go to Minneapolis.

FINAL PRACTICE AT STATE FARM

Minnesots List Contains Two Stars Not in the Game with Ames Owing to Conditions In Their Studies.

LINCOLN. Neb., Oct. 17 - (Hpecial.)-Twenty men to make up the squad that will leave tomorrow afternoon for Minneapolts were announced tonight by Coach Cole. In addition to the coaches, Manager Eager, Captain Workizer, president of the athletle board, and the team's physician, the squad will include the following: Captain Weller, Ewing, Johnson, Patton, Matters, Harte, Harvey, Collins, Frum, Perrin, Chaloupka, Miller, Bentley, Beltzer, Cooke, Minor, Birkner, Beckley, Burnett and Broger. An extra car of rooters will go with the team.

A big sendoff is being prepared by the students in honor of the team, the belief being prevalent that the men have a better chance to take the measure of the Gophers than for several years past. The Cornhuskers will prive in Minneapolis early Friday morning. Practice this afternoon was at the state farm, where the players were sent through nearly two hours of hard scrimmaging, the scrube again Irving Minnesota formations with considerable success. Their feat of scoring yesterday afternoon lead to a hot lecture by Coach Cole, as a result of which the 'varsity played a stiffer defensive game today, though being fooled repeatedly by the scrubs.

Manager Eager this afternoon received Minnesota's list of eligibles for the game. As was predicted, the list includes the names of Dunn and Case, two Gopher stars who were not in the Ames game on account of the condition of their studies, but whose work has apparently been patched up sufficiently to enable them to get in the linear against the Corphuskers. The up sufficiently to enable them to get in the lineup against the Cornhuskers. The addition of these players is expected to add materially to the strength of the Gophers, especially on the defensive. The list indicates, however, that the Minnesota team will be made up more than was supposed of green men. Of the twenty-seven men on it, only four have had two years' experience on the 'varsity, and only three others have had one year. The remainder are all new to 'varsity foot hall."

Catlin Works Men Hard.

10WA CITY, Ia., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—
Coach Catlin of the State University of Iowa continues to drive his men through a hard practice every night in order to prepare for the game with Missouri. He is far from satisfied with the form shown by the team in the blumni game or in any practice since that time and has not been slow in expressing himself on that point. In the meantime the men have been working desperately in an attempt to master the intricacies of the new formations, which he will introduce this season. All of the practice work continues behind citized gates, all visitors being kept off of the field. It is believed that the Hawksoves will be able show more speed this season than they have in several years past, and the bombined energies of Catlin and Griffith are bent in that direction.

High School Foot Ball Team Given the edge of town, and one day Jos Board Stiff Practice.

The high school foot ball team is hard at work, determined to win the rest of the games in their schedule in the same plucky, invincible way in which they won the Council Bluffs game last Saturday. Charley Lehmer, an alumnus who helped to win faurels for the school several years ago, has been coaching the boys for saveral weeks, and the team has responded enthusiastically to his efforts. Merie Howard, who was injured in last Saturday's game, was on the field Wednesday and was heartily welcomed by the team. Although the first regular game has been played the squad still numbers over thirty men and contains a strong second team besides the first team.

FALLS UNDER CAR WHEELS

Escape of Charles Tinker from Instant Death Almost Miraculous.

Charles C. Tinker, a young man employed in the civil service, had a miraculous escape from a fatal injury about 5 o'clock Wednesday evening at Seventeenth and Charles street.

Tinker, who lives at 1523 North Eighteenth street, was riding a bleycle and was following a northbound street car and failed to see a southbound car coming as he turned up Charles street. The southbound car struck the rear wheel of the bicycle and threw Tinker immediately_under the wheels, but by an almost superhuman effort he wriggled out from under the car.

The patrol wagon was called and he was taken home and attended by Police Surgeon Fitzgibbon, who found his injuries consisted of a broken right shoulder and several contusions about the head.
