WORK ON BROADWAY PAVING

Contractor Wickham Commences the Laying of Concrete.

The laying of the first of the concrete on the Broadway paving, starting from Twentieth street, will commence this morning. The work of excavating from Twentieth to Twenty-fifth streets was completed Thursday evening and it is expected the paving will be finished by the middle of November.

Chairman Wallace of the streets and alleys committee has been investigating the complaints of various property holders in that vicinity relative to depressions in the streets, and as fast as possible the dirt taken up in the excavating of Broadway is being dumped in these places.

CONTEST FOR I. O. O. F. OFFICERS

Coal Miners to Ask for More Wages, Asserting They Are Not Getting Fair Divide at Present Prices for Their Product.

(From a Staff Correspondent) DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 18.—(Special.)—In the debates of the Equal Suffragists annual convention here today those asserting that they hold no partial suffrage in anything were the young women who have come lately into the fight maintained that the forces should be concentrated on getting suffrage in school elections or something of that nature.

The older women, who have been maintaining for years the fight for suffrage in all elections, stood out and carried the day. The idea of the younger women that a lecturer should be put in each district of the state and that a vigorous fight should be made all along the line in all sections of the state, was, however, adopted and it is promised that before another session of the legislature, the strenuous campaign yet waged will be fought.

In the election of officers today Rev. Elenore Gordon, of Des Moines, was elected president; Mrs. Julia Clark Hallam, of Sioux City, vice president; Mrs. Edith Payne Parsons, of Des Moines, corresponding secretary; Miss Mabel A. Nelson, of Corydon, recording secretary; Mrs. A. Emsley Adams, of Mason City, treasurer.

The most interesting happening in the meeting of the Grand Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows today is the nomination for the office of grand warden. The contest is important because of the fact that the grand warden is practically always promoted first to deputy grand master and then to grand master. Eleven candidates were nominated for grand warden. They are: W. C. Kummer of Keokuk, H. C. Ring of Marion, W. S. Sharp of Ames, W. H. Nelson of Boone, J. T. Temple of Davenport, C. Stevenson of Council Bluffs, J. H. Mercker of Fairfield, D. O. Stuart of Harlan, C. E. Wallace of New Sharon, F. L. Ingelhoff of Dubuque, T. J. Whitte of Carroll.

The office of grand master, L. W. Van der Woodhuse, was the only one to be contested for. For grand master Dan Gun of Red Oak was the only nominee. For grand secretary, R. L. Hilton of Des Moines, and J. C. Koons of Burlington, were nominated. For grand treasurer, J. H. Rozema of Keosauqua, A. E. Hundorf of Newton, J. W. Taylor of Des Moines, L. E. Engle of Cedar Rapids, and William Lewis of Mason City. For grand representative, J. H. Henderson of Indianapolis.

The election of the officers is by ballot in the subordinate lodges later. The grand lodge today discussed the orphan's home at Mason City and other business matters. Wm. Moore of Des Moines was today made a past grand master in honor of fifty years membership in the order.

Morris and Johnson Live. C. H. Morris and E. C. Johnson, the men shot yesterday because of a dispute over bootlegging, are still alive and at the police hospital. The men are by physicians that they ultimately will recover. Both men are robust and strong and operations were performed upon them at once and it is believed that they will improve rapidly. Cain, who shot them, is still at large, though the authorities are securing the country for him.

State Fair Grounds Park. The proposition to make the state fair grounds a park for summer amusements is being discussed by members of the Board of Directors of the Department of Agriculture. It is learned that at Dallas, Texas, the state fair grounds are thus used and that from the amusement large revenue is derived for the support of the fair and for use in building permanent stock barns and buildings. Des Moines has one amusement park at Ingersoll park, but the patronage overflows it and it is maintained that by installing vaudeville and a number of amusements such as chute, merry-go-rounds and the like could be maintained at the state fair grounds with big patronage and that they could be put in at very small expense. The matter is being considered.

Sugar Beet Man to Work. One of the speakers at the state farmers' institute in Des Moines is to be the superintendent of the best sugar factory at Waverly. The factory at Waverly is the first in the state and this is its first year.

Another Boost for Coal. Coal miners are prepared to ask for another increase in wages, but they will not interfere with the operators next March and with their increase in wages if they get it. It will come a boost in the price of coal. Coal for many years in Des Moines sold for $2.50, then it got up to $3 and now it is up to $3.50. It is claimed by the miners that the operators are getting ready to boost the price to $4 or $5 and they will not acquiesce for their share. They maintain that they do not make as much as the public thinks.

Fighting Poultry Fraud. Dealers in the small towns of Iowa are maintaining a fight against what they say is the poultry trust. They charge the Clarinda (Iowa) company with paying high prices in the Iowa market, thus creating competition and low prices in towns where there is no competition. They are trying to arrange the matter to bring it before the attorney general.

Jury in Dickinson Case. The work of getting a jury in the case of the state against H. B. Dickinson, charged with the murder of Irene Bladenburg of Eldora, was started in the district court yesterday. The jury will be selected from the list of jurors that would indicate that he expects to concede that the girl consented to the criminal operation.

ENTERTAINMENT FOR FAIRBANKS. Vice President is to Spend the Day in Sioux City. SIOUX CITY, Ia., Oct. 18.—(Special Telegram.)—Great preparations have been made for the coming tomorrow of Vice President Fairbanks, who will spend the day in Sioux City on his way to Vermillion. In the morning the vice president will address the students of Morning-side college and in the evening he will deliver a speech at the new Grand theater. George B. Perkins, editor of the Sioux City Journal, is chairman of the arrangements committee.

Deserts Wife and Child. FORT DOUGLASS, Oct. 18.—(Special Telegram.)—Telling his wife he was going on a visit to Webster City, but packing his trunk with clothes on the quiet, Charles Ames, a well known sign artist of this city, took his 5-year-old girl and decamped for the west, deserting his wife and 12-year-old daughter. A letter sent by express ahead of the mail conveyed the intelligence that he was leaving for good and his destination was California. It is possible action will be taken to prosecute him under the new statute for deserting his family.

SHRINERS HAVING BIG TIME. Visitors from Many Cities Join in Celebration. SIOUX CITY, Ia., Oct. 18.—(Special.)—This is one of the greatest days in the history of the Mystic Shriners in Iowa. The members of the new Abu Bekr temple are host to hundreds of visiting Shriners. More than 150 wearers of the fez arrived this afternoon on a special train from Omaha and Lincoln. The delegates from the two Nebraska cities joined forces at Blair and made the pilgrimage to Sioux City in a bunch. Sioux Falls, LeMars, Cherokee and Council Bluffs are other cities that are largely represented. Imperial Potentate Roddy of Chicago, Deputy Imperial Potentate Alderman of Marion, Ia., and Past Imperial Potentate Akin of Omaha are among the guests of honor. The day's program included a parade this afternoon, initiation at the new Grand theater this evening, banquet at the Masonic building and a vaudeville performance at the Orpheum theater.

Kansas City Wants Engineers. SIOUX CITY, Oct. 18.—(Special Telegram.)—A report has reached Sioux City that the commercial and river interests of Kansas City are using every effort to secure a transfer of the government engineer's office from Sioux City to Kansas City, and it is reported that General Macdonald, chief of the government engineers, is in sympathy with Kansas City and that Senator William B. Allison is opposing the plan to remove the office from Iowa. Captain E. H. Schul, in charge of the Sioux City office, today admitted that Kansas City would like the office, but refused to discuss the matter any further.

Aughlin against the Farm Property Mutual Insurance company at the next term to secure loss of a corn killed by lightning last July. The animal was insured with other farm property and the officers of the company now refuse to make a settlement. Mr. Aughlin asks for $25.
