Our Great "Century" Distribution Ends at 10 P. M. Tonight

Within the next few hours you must decide and act. For two weeks we have pointed out to you, day after day, the wonderful opportunity presented NOW, of securing the one best reference work. We can never renew this offer. Tonight ends for once and all our reduced price distribution of

Century Dictionary and Cyclopedia and Atlas

10 Massive Volumes; 215 Maps; 8,000 Illustrations; 150,000 Encyclopedic Subjects; 300,000 Geographical Entries; 300,000 Quotations; 200,000 Encyclopedic Dictionary Definitions; Size of Volumes, 12x14, inches.

In the regular way of selling The Century—through book agents, to whom big commissions are paid—it would be simply impossible to turn over these ten superb volumes to you on anything like the terms just now available. The present price and terms, indeed, are only made possible through the Cosmopolitan magazine's effort to add quickly a large number of desirable new subscribers to its list. The Century set is the supreme inducement. The Cosmopolitan knew that to make the offer attractive and popular the price had to be reduced to bring the work within easy reach of all. The Cosmopolitan sacrificed all present profit for itself, resting content with the increased circulation sure to follow—an increase which would naturally command higher advertising rates. And so the price was scaled down to the lowest notch, making it possible to offer

The $80 "CENTURY" for Only $39.50

Including The Cosmopolitan Magazine for a Full Year.

Although the edition to be thus distributed was large for the whole country, the number of sets allotted to Omaha and vicinity was necessarily limited. We succeeded in arranging to have the distribution made through our Book Department, and we are gratified to have the matter placed in our hands. Our confidence has been more than justified. The sets have gone even faster than we thought at all possible. Only a few remain, and we must therefore announce the close of the distribution, which means that

"Seeing is Believing"
Every set is of the latest revised, enlarged and improved edition for 1907, fully guaranteed by THE CENTURY CO. and THE COSMOPOLITAN MAGAZINE and fully endorsed by J. L. Brandeis & Co.—a pretty strong combination. But come and see for yourself. Inspect the volumes carefully. Compare them critically with any or all former editions and you cannot fail to be absolutely convinced. "Seeing is believing."

No More Applications Will Be Received After 10 O'Clock Tonight.

This distribution closes at 10 p. m. ABSOLUTELY. Those who cannot conveniently call at our Book Department or Cyclopedia Booth, near main entrance, may still order by mail, sending the initial dollar; if too late, their remittances will be refunded. Telephone orders may be sent up to the last minute, but none will be accepted after the store closes.

Remember
The Century is the standard reference work of the United States Government. It is the final authority, and accepted as such in any court of law. More important still, this work is known and used in 250,000 homes. Can you afford to miss this opportunity?

Thirty-One Appleton Persons Follow Dr. Rouse to Omaha.

ALL MEMBERS OF HIS CHURCH

Congregational Minister the Moses Who Has Led Children of Israel Into the Land of Canaan.

Omaha has gained an increased population of thirty-one persons during the last two months from Appleton, Wis. There is food for thought in this interesting fact for both mathematicians and Bible students. For the mathematicians it presents this problem: If Omaha gains thirty-one persons in two months from one city in the United States, how many persons will Omaha gain in a year from all the cities and towns of the United States? For the Bible students it presents some of the features of the exodus of the children of Israel from Egypt. The thirty-one persons who came from Appleton were members of the congregation of Rev. Dr. Frederick T. Rouse, who has recently taken up the pastorate of the First Congregational church of Omaha. To carry out this figure Rev. Dr. Rouse takes the part of Moses and the thirty-one former citizens of Appleton the part of the Israelites, though Dr. Rouse really gets into the promised land. It is not easy, however, to tell Appleton, Wis., to the part of Egypt. That ancient country, it will be remem-bered, was scourged with many plagues, and there the Israelites were compelled

Tuesday Kensington Club Gives Farewell Luncheon for Mrs. Reynolds Barnum—Mrs. Gordon Watties Entertains.

Friday brought the usual lull that precedes the week's end rush, the day being almost devoid of social affairs. Final arrangements are being made for the closing of Happy Hollow for the season, October 21 having been announced as the date. The affair will be a Halloween jubilation, limited to members of the club and their families only. Luncheon will be served free of charge and there will be dancing and games. The last table d'hôte dinner of the season will be served Saturday evening, October 26. The club management has found it impossible to arrange dinner the night of the closing, as originally announced. Red and White Luncheon. Mrs. G. W. FRIDAY BRINGS USUAL QUIET

Tuesday Kensington Club Gives Farewell Luncheon for Mrs. Reynolds Barnum—Mrs. Gordon Watties Entertains.

Friday brought the usual lull that precedes the week's end rush, the day being almost devoid of social affairs. The Horse Show serves, however, to hold fashionable attention and promises to materially detract from Saturday's affairs as well as Friday's. Final arrangements are being made for the closing of Happy Hollow for the season, October 21 having been announced as the date. The affair will be a Halloween jubilation, limited to members of the club and their families only. Luncheon will be served free of charge and there will be dancing and games. The last table d'hôte dinner of the season will be served Saturday evening, October 26. The club management has found it impossible to arrange dinner the night of the closing, as originally announced. Red and White Luncheon. Mrs. G. W. Watties was hostess Thursday at a beautiful luncheon at her home. Her table was prettily trimmed with red and white carnations and the dainty place cards were decorated with the same colored flowers. Candles with red carnation shades further beautified the table. Those present were: Mrs. John C. Cowin, Mrs. C. E. Yost, Mrs. E. M. Morsman, Mrs. W. W. Morsman, Mrs. John N. Baldwin, Mrs. Guy C. Among those invited were: Mrs. Parker, Mrs. W. H. McCord, Mrs. Sam Burns, Jr., Mrs. Charles Kountze, Mrs. N. P. Dodge, Jr., Mrs. Harry Wilkins and Miss F. Julia Webster. Farewell to Mrs. Barnum. Wednesday afternoon the Tuesday Kensington club gave a beautifully appointed luncheon at the home of Mrs. Harvey G. Jackson, 917 Pine street, for Mrs. Reynolds Barnum before her departure for Kansas City, where she will make her home. The table was artistically decorated with red and white and lighted with red-staked candles. The centerpiece was a large horseshoe filled with red and white perennials, and horseshoe cards marked the places of the guests, the place of the honor guest being marked by a miniature red leather traveling bag. After luncheon progressive high-five was played, Mrs. Joseph Polzer winning the prize. The club presented Mrs. Barnum with a copy of Hugh Black's "Friendship," on the title page of which was the autograph of each member of the club. The women present were: Mrs. Reynolds Barnum, Mrs. Thomas W. Austin, Mrs. R. V. Cole, Mrs. E. S. Freeman, Mrs. E. A. Hatfield, Mrs. Simeon Jones, Mrs. J. Polcar, Mrs. W. H. Butts, Mrs. S. B.
