per of the great meeting which was held in favor of consolidation of the two Omahas. at the Ancient Order of United Workmen's temple in South Omaha last night. The crowd was there. Every seat was full at 8 o'clock, and many crowded in to stand up at the rear. In spite of an apparent effort on the part of the antis to counteract the influence of the meeting, and by continuous interruption to amnoy the speakers, the the arguments presented by Congressman Hitchcock, Bruce McCulloch, John L. Kennedy, Robert Cowell, G. W. Wattles, Victor Rosewater and Mayor Dahlman carried the sympathy of the great majority of the au-

Several of the men who received the tags of the antis, which here the motto "No Angexation for Me," tore off the "No" and left the card reading "Annexation for Me." Tupse they paraded in their hats to the omfort of the instigators of the scheme. During the early part of the meeting, the who favored the consolidation, not knowing exactly how strong the sentiment were a little timid in cheering; but soon gained confidence and did justice to every point. The meeting last night was tim first time they have had the chance to give public expression to their sentiments.

Antis are Outnumbered. antis had come with badges on their fronts and with boasted intention of capturing the meeting, only to find that they were so overwhelmingly outnumbered that their attempts to disredit it made them appear absurdly filleulous. A stinging blow was dealt by Mr.-Congressman John L. Kennedy to these men when he declared "The greatest trouble with the opponents of annexation is that they have not taken the Buble to inform themselves," Profound cheering showed that the congressman her won his victory,

By preconcerted agreement the tougher element had laid in wait for Victor Rosewater, and many times he had to wait patiently while one after another indulged in remarks of uncomplimentary nature. These detracted nothing from the effect of the arguments he presented, but n reality added to their effect.

H. M. Christie stated after the meeting that he was most agreeably surprised at the great strength of the movement which the hearty applause indicated. The large crowd was most respectful with ie persistence of the small number above

M. Christie presided and introduced tie various speakers simply with a slight as to the line of argument each culd pursue. - Square Deal for South Omaha. Mayor Dahiman then told of the kindly galing which had always existed between Smahu and South Omaha, especially from Ograha toward South Omaha. He utterly tenied the assertion that the Omaha houses prostitution would be thrust on South Oninha, and gave a good and sufficient annen for it. The city government would allow it for the reason that it would comove them so far from the center of surveillance. The great body of the soften must be maintained near these houses of swil to keep the percentage of crime as low as possible. If they were sent to South Quantu the police would have to follow and be taken away from the big business. fistricts. Hence it would be impossible. The mayor declared that South Omaha would be given a square deal. W. Wattles said that the interests if the two cities were identical and when mited they would give a profound impetus a-business. He quoted in illustration the union of three big banks in Omaha under use head, which had the effect of inwessing the business one-third and in retucing the expense one-half. He said the since must be true of South Omaha when mited with Omaha.

He then quoted figures to show that in 1906 the capitalization of Omaha was $106 .-000,000, while South Omaha was $21,000,000, Omaba having a 12:96 mills levy and South Quaha 12.01 levy. The expenditures were for Omaha $1,618,000, in South Omaha $316,soe, both items including the school expenses. This is equivalent to $5.55 per capita for Omaha and $5.86 for South Omaha, The schools of Omaha cost the people $1.52 and South Omaha $1.65 per capita. 'The bonded ndebtedness of Omaha is $5,900,000 and of baris South Omaha's debt is the greater. South Omaha $1,285,000. On a per capita for united effort where the interests were
