JUDGE CHARGES GRAND JURY

Members Told They Must Look Into Violations of the Liquor Law.

COURT DETERMINED ON POINT

Says if He Cannot Get This Jury to De it He Will Keep Calling Grand Juries Until He Gets One Which Will,

"If I cannot get one grand Jury that will arrive at the facts respecting violations of the liquor laws of the state, I will keep on convening grand juries until I secure one that will arrive at some conclusions," declared Judge Green in district court yesterday morning in charging the grand jury.

Judge Green referred specifically to complaints that saloons in Minden and other places in Pottawattamie county were being conducted without the bond required by law, subjecting the proprietors to indict-"In respect to these matters, your duty is plain and clear.
