TROUBLE FOR TREASURERS

Those Who Do Not Collect Interest May Not Be Able to Give Bonds.

RAILROAD ASSESSMENT PUZZLE

Child Labor Board Decides that Law Regarding Employment of Children in Theaters is to Be Strictly Enforced.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Nov. 8.—(Special.)—Several county treasurers who have received no interest on county funds and do not have the public funds in depositories may have trouble in giving bonds the first of the year. It is said bonding companies will refuse to sign a bond of a treasurer who is not complying strictly with the depository laws. A treasurer is personally responsible for funds in his keeping that are not deposited under the law, and his bondsmen share this responsibility, a risk which many bonding companies do not care to assume, it being unnecessary. Under the law county treasurers must receive not less than 2 per cent per annum interest on county deposits, and if banks in the county refuse to bid for the money the county board has authority to receive bids from banks outside of the county. The last report of the county treasurer examiners shows the county treasurers of Burt, Chase, Gosport, Grant, McPherson, Otoe, Sarpy, Webster and York counties received no interest on deposits since the previous examination. No reports are on file in the office of the auditor of the last examination of the county treasurers of Kimball, Pawnee and Sheridan counties.

In the Air Over Assessment.

The State Board of Assessment is up in the air on the question of assessing the Burlington railroad under the new condition and will, when the proper time comes, request an opinion of the attorney general whether to assess under the unit system or as at present. As a matter of fact the board at this time finds the value of the Burlington lines by arriving at the value of the entire system, and then arbitrarily dividing the total valuation among the various subdivisions. By the consolidation these subdivisions will be wiped out of existence. In the case brought by the county of Platte to compel the state board to assess the Omaha & Republican Valley branch of the Union Pacific at the average value of the various lines of that system, the court held against the county.

When a statute has for nearly forty years been practically construed by the officers whose duty it is to enforce it, and has during that time been several times re-enacted by the legislature in substantially the same terms, such construction will be regarded as adopted by the legislature although the language of the statute would indicate a different meaning.

In the opinion of Attorney General Thompson this option would permit the board to arbitrarily divide the assessment of the system as in the past. However, he had not looked into the matter very thoroughly and investigation, he said, may change his mind. Land Commissioner Eaton is of the opinion that the system would have to be adopted and every mile of road would be valued the same.

No Children in Theaters.

Members of the child labor board appointed by Governor Sheldon to advise the officials regarding the enforcement of the law and report cases of violation met with Governor Sheldon and Deputy Labor Commissioner Ryder this afternoon in the latter's office. Chairman Wise and Mrs. Draper Smith of Omaha were the members present. It was decided at the meeting that the section of the law relating to the employment of children at theaters would be strictly enforced and that the lessee or owners of theaters would be held responsible for its violation. Regarding the holidays and the request of business men to employ children in stores during that time, it was decided to strictly adhere to the law.

Sir Horace Meets Mr. Bryan.

Sir Horace Plunkett spent today in Lincoln. He came to call upon Chancellor E. Benjamin Andrews of Nebraska University. The trip to Lincoln was made in company with State Senators Thomas and Saunders of Omaha, who introduced him to the chancellor. It happened that Governor Folk of Missouri was passing through Lincoln and had stopped for lunch with Mr. Bryan. Sir Horace Plunkett met both the gentlemen. Governor Folk did not so state, but it is the understanding he will be a candidate for United States senator against W. J. Stone of Missouri next year.

Convict Applies for Pardon.

John Leary, a convict in the penitentiary, sent up for criminal assault for seven years, has applied for a pardon. In his application he says the county attorney who prosecuted him thinks he has suffered enough. A date for hearing will be set by Governor Sheldon.

Prosecution of Better Dealers.

Food Commissioner Johnson has notified S. S. Berry, county attorney of Dakota county, to prosecute retail dealers in Dakota county who are selling unbranded packages of butter. A supply secured from Blue Valley Creamery company of Shour City, Ia., seems to meet the disapproval of the food commissioner.

Charges of Meat Combine.

Allegations of a meat combine have been made frequently during the last few days. Lincoln consumers charge the packers and retailers with supporting the price long after the price of hogs have dropped. A number of complaints, charging combination, have been sent to the county attorney informally.

Judge Lobingier Returns.

Judge Charles S. Lobingier returned to Lincoln yesterday after a visit of three weeks in the east. He went to Washington, Norfolk and New York, and stopped for a short time in Philadelphia. He is accompanied by his parents in Lincoln until about November 14. On November 20 he will sail from San Francisco on the transport Cook. Three weeks from that date he will be back in Manila and ready to resume his duties as judge of the court of first instance. Judge Lobingier remains for a short time visiting her parents in Michigan, and will follow her husband to the Philippines in a short time, if she does not go on the Cook. She will return to Lincoln in any event before starting on the journey.

DEFENSE IN THE SEARSON CASE

Effort to Show Miss Hudson Subject to Delusions.

AUBURN, Neb., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—Testimony in defense of Prof. J. W. Searson, who is on trial in district court here on a charge of assaulting Miss Katherine Hudson, one of his students, was offered today before a crowd which almost filled the court room. Among the evidence offered were drawings and diagrams showing the location of the room in which the assault is alleged to have taken place. Witnesses who had been put on the stand and they declared the slightest noise could have been heard by people who were known to have been passing the room at the time. This evidence was introduced to show that Miss Hudson did not make an outcry, as she testified she did.

Professor Howe of Lincoln Went on Stand and Denied He Had Ever Proposed Marriage to Miss Hudson, as She Testified He Had.

Professor Howe of Lincoln went on the stand and denied he had ever proposed marriage to Miss Hudson, as she testified he had. He declared he had met her but once and had only the slightest acquaintance with her. Professor Searson testified she had come to him and asked whether or not Professor Howe was the right man for her to marry. This was the purpose of the defense to show she was suffering from delusions.

Greatest interest prevails in the trial, which is attended by a number of educators and students.

BOTH JUDGES ARE FUSIONISTS

Contests Coming Up in Adams.

HASTINGS, Neb., Nov. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—The Adams county election, for superintendent of public instruction is to be contested by D. M. Ball, republican nominee. The unofficial returns gave Ball a majority of two, but the official canvass gives Willis, fusionist, a majority of three. The election will be contested on the ground that marks in the square opposite the bank space below Willis were illegally counted as votes for Willis. There is a possibility also of a contest over the election of F. E. Versaw, fusionist, as supervisor. His majority is one. If the office had been secured by the republicans the party would have a majority of the board for the next time in many years.

New Church for Hastings.

HASTINGS, Neb., Nov. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—The Congregational church of this city will erect a new church building to cost not less than $15,000. The canvass will begin with a contribution of $4,000 by Hans Hansen. It is hoped that construction may be started in the spring.

MANIA FOR INDIAN RELICS

Plea of Alleged Insane Man Accused of Stealing This Sort of Ware.

Insanity that took the form of a mania for collecting Indian relics will be the defense of Louis Miller, a young man from South Omaha, who is charged with breaking into a curio store at Sixteenth and Farnam streets and stealing a large quantity of beaded work and other Indian gewgaws.

Miller was arraigned before Judge Troup Friday morning and entered a plea of not guilty. His attorney, Ed Morearty, declared he was insane and asked that an examination be made by the insanity commission. Judge Troup directed that this be done. Mr. Morearty said Miller was before the commission a year ago and was declared insane and placed under the guardianship of his father.

About a month ago Miller appeared at the store and after looking over the stock, selected a large quantity of the goods which he asked to have sent aside for him. That night the store was broken into and a part of the goods Miller had selected was taken. The officers went to his boarding house in South Omaha and found Indian relics stored around in various places in his room and he was arrested, charged with burglary.

Nothing but build fires

That's All Papa Can See Ahead of Him When Wife's Folks

"Yes, this is lovely weather," agreed a man on a Farnam car who had heard his fellow passengers praising Nebraska autumn. "It's good weather to be out of doors, but it's more so for my part I wish it would turn cold and stay cold."

His friends looked amazed.

"That's a queer wish," observed one.

"Well, the other replied, "there's the proposition with me; I am compelled to build entirely too many fires to suit me this kind-of-weather. Have to build a fire

HEART RIGHT It Makes a Great Difference

"About two years ago I became alarmed because my husband had attacks from fainting spells caused by weak heart, from drinking coffee."

At first he did not like Postum, I had not then learned to boil it long as directions say, to get the rich flavor and brown color.

"After it was made right, he liked it, and now for more than a year he has not been troubled with his heart—in fact his general health is better than for years." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason," in the morning to take the chill off, but weather's too warm to keep a fire all day and so it goes out and at night I have another to build. Keeps me busy chopping kindling and building fires. Don't get time to visit with my wife and I'm getting mighty sick of it. Just learned this morning from the hired girl that all my wife's relatives are coming for a visit next week. They were keeping it sorter under the hat as a pleasant surprise to me, but the hired girl's aunt told her there would have to be fire in all the spare bed rooms and that it would be necessary for me to order a load of kindling today for the emergency. If the weather doesn't turn cold next week I will find time for little else than just to stay in the cellar and chop kindling and build fires."

CALVE THRILLS A NEWSBOY

Great Singer Gives Fame to Mike and Also a Dollar for a Paper.

Mike, the newsboy, is basking in the limelight of fame.

Mike sells papers, generally being located at Sixteenth and Farnam streets. He has a surmise, but it is long, Italian, unknown to most people and considered unimportant by Mike.

But about Mike's fame.

Thursday he was strenuously gathering in the pennies in exchange for papers when an elegantly dressed woman approached.

Mike didn't know that the elegantly dressed woman was Mike, Calve, one of the greatest women of the day, whose voice has charmed thousands in all parts of the world. Mike saw in her only a customer and he immediately offered her a paper.

Mike Calve smiled upon him that dazzling smile for which she is famous, the same smile that has been seen by kings and queens and millionaires, and made them melt. Then the great woman stopped and engaged the little fellow in conversation. She spoke to him in Italian, Mike's native tongue, and he answered her in the same. He became quite excited when he learned she had been in Naples, for he came from near that city.

But Mike never lost sight of business. He forgot himself only for a moment in the charm of Calve's presence, but soon he recollected his papers.

"Excuse me, lady," he said in a polite blimp he had learned once at a party given by the City Mission. "I got to sell me papers or de other guys 'll git ahead of me."

"But you haven't sold me a paper yet," insisted Calve.

"O, lemme give youse one," said Mike with instinctive Italian chivalry.

"No, indeed, that would not be fair," said Calve, opening her bag. "I want you to take this and save it for Christmas."

Mike Calve took the paper from Mike's grimy hand, left in its place a shining silver dollar, and was gone before Mike recovered speech.

That is the reason Mike is in the spot light today.

APPRAISAL DOES NOT SUIT

Figures on Opening Twenty-Fourth Street Are Found to Lack Entire Approval.

With the report of the board of appraisers for the opening of Twenty-fourth street pending before the city council members of the council are learning the amounts decided upon by the appraisers are not satisfactory to all concerned and that some property owners are considering the question of raising legal objections to the report.

The matter of the assessment for the improvement is one, it is said, which will have to be met in a comparatively short time and on the size of the district depends the cost to the interested property owners and to some extent the disposition of those from whom property is taken.

Since a large district will make their assessment lighter and leave them more from the award of appraisers. It has been suggested the district be extended two blocks on each side of Twenty-fourth street from Ames avenue to Vinton street, since property owners along the entire street claimed benefit would result from the opening of the street through its entire length. If this course is followed the cost, it is asserted, will be so light that none of the owners will feel the additional assessment, but some objections are already heard from persons living at the extreme of the street, some of whom were eager for the opening of the thoroughfare.

THINKS LID ORDER A JOKE

Saloon Man Says He Thought Police Were Trying to Be Funny.

Because he thought the order to close saloons at midnight Saturday was only an attempt on the part of the fire and police board to be funny, William Holm, a saloon keeper at Twenty-fourth and Burdette street, had his fine reduced from $100 to $25 in criminal court Friday.

Holm was a charter member of the Ancient Order of Lid Lifters and was one of the first to try to pry the top off the city after the famous order of the board. There was a dance in the hall over his place and he only smiled when warned he had better close at 12 o'clock. He was arrested about 1 o'clock and Police Judge Crawford fined him $100. He appealed to district court and Friday when his case was called he explained he had no intention of violating any real order of the board, but he thought this was merely a humorous play. He admitted that right now he could not see even the slightest element of comedy in the situation and asked the court to reduce his fine to $25, which he paid.

The bond of Art Marvin, who appealed from police court, where he was fined on a charge of frequenting an evil resort, was forfeited Friday morning. Attempts to find Marvin failed and his bondsman will be asked to pay $100 into the school funds.

Theatrical Circuit Formed.

YANKTON, S. D., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—One of the most important happenings in things theatrical that has come about in a long time in this section has just been perfected. A theatrical circuit has just been formed including all of the best towns in North and South Dakota, Minnesota, western Iowa and northern Nebraska. The circuit at present embraces some 110 towns, with many more to join in the next few weeks. The prime movers in the big project are M. W. Jencks of the Yankton theater and the Gale theater, Mitchell, and H. L. Walker of the Brookings theater. The booking for the entire circuit, which for convenience has been subdivided into two sections, will be done from two offices. It means that a company manager, by booking on this big circuit, can fill four or five months of the season on it.

Doctors Prescribe

Dr. Lorenzo Waite, a Prominent Physician of Pittsfield, Mass., Who is a Graduate of Berkshire College, Says That He Has Used Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as a Tonic Stimulant With Satisfactory Results.

In years past I have used your Pure Malt Whiskey in my practice with very satisfactory results. Recently I had occasion to administer Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as per directions to an anemic patient of mine, and I anticipate remarkably good results. With many thanks for your introducing a pure tonic stimulant for the benefit of the public and practitioners of medicine, I am, Lorenzo Waite, M. D., Aug. 20th, 1907.

The doctor's letter is one taken at random from thousands of similar ones received extolling the virtues of this great family medicine.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

Is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a malt essence, which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

It is an absolutely pure, gentle and invigorating stimulant and tonic, builds up the nerve tissues, tones up the heart, gives power to the brain, strength and elasticity to the muscles and richness to the blood. It brings into action all the vital forces of the system, makes digestion perfect, and enables you to get from the food you eat the nourishment it contains. It is invaluable for overworked men, delicate women and sickly children. It strengthens and sustains the system, is a promoter of health and longevity, makes the old young and keeps the young young.

CAUTION—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It's the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey and is sold only in sealed bottles—never in bulk. Look for the trademark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Price, $1.00. Illustrated medical booklet and doctor's advice free.
