'ANCOLN, Neb., Nov. 16 .- (Special Tele gram.)-Nebraska indulged in a romp with Lenver university this afternoon, piling up its largest score this season. Two twenty-five-minute halves of play gave the Cornbuskers & points to 0 for the visitors, who were completely out-classed and made a sorry showing, though displaying inter-The Cornhuskers resorted of frequent for-

Denver also tried the forward pass on the infrequent occasion when it had the ball, but Right End Harvey proved death to them, intercepting almost every one aimed toward his territory. Saymour displayed poor generalship in attempting this play, resorting to it when his team was hard pressed rather than when a possible fallure would cost Teast.

Nebraska sent in a bunch of substitutes early in the second half, but the visitors by that time were well worn out, and the substitutes had little trouble in adding to the score already secured by the regulars. Nebraska's line during the second half was largely composed of substitutes, who found as little trouble scoring as had the regulars. Local Team Has Its Hands Full with Brethren from South. Omaha, 20; South Omaha, 0.

This is the score, but it lacks a good deal of telling the story of the contest at Deitz Park, when the high school foot ball players of the two Omahas came together Saturday aafternoon, for the game was one of the most evenly balanced and most hotly contested of any which the Omaha High school team has won this season.

Although outwelghed, the Magic City players succeeded in keeping the ball on their opponents' ground almost as much as it was on their own.

One player from each team was put out of the game by slight injuries, both leaving in the latter part of the last half. Mo-Kinney of Omaha had his left shoulder severely bruised and strained. For a time t was thought to have been broken, but examination slowed this to be a mistake. After Reschke of South Omaha had made a long and exhausting run he fell on the ball and two other players fell on top of im, putting him out of the game.

The use of the forward pass was a strong oint with South Omaha, and its use demto the lighter team over what prevalled before this pass was recognized. It was piainly an off day for the Creighton team. Hronek was out of the game on account of an injury and his presence might have made some difference, though without better support than was given by the team he could not have done very much. The playing of the locals was also marred by dirty work on the part of Morgenthaler. The officials overlooked it when be deliberately kicked an opponent in the back when he was down, but a few minutes later when he resumed slugging tac tics, he was put off the field by the officials and the Creighton team penalized forty yards for his roughness. His work tended to antagonize a large part of the spectators who otherwise might have helped the local team by consistent rooting.

Both of his touchdowns were made after spectacular runs and the last one after he had thrown off half of the Creighton team. With the excellent failed to gain for Pennsylvania, and the interference given him he proved by far the most dangerous man on the visiting team. Brome did not play in his best form, fumbling punts badly. When he did catch the ball, however, he was able to make some good gains on returns. The Creighton line was weak and the visitors opened up big holes time after time for Whisman, Jones and Robbins to slide through.

Creighton had almost no opportunity to show what it could do on the offensive. Captain Brome was kept booting the ball out of danger territory. Bellevue, 36; Amity, 0. Bellevue, champion of Nebraska cellege foot ball teams, outclassed and defeated Amity at Bellevue yesterday by the score of 36 to 0. This is Amity's second defeat this year in Omaha, Creighton ad-ministering the former, though only by score of 16 to 0.

Amilty started out at a lively rate and by the use of tricks and forward passes coked at the start as though it' might be able to give Bellevue a run for its noney, but the spurt was shortlived and Marvel soon had his team reeling off yards toward the Amity goal.

Browne's good left foot again cut a great figure in the game, for he never falled to boot the ball from forty to nfty yards whenever his teammates were un able to make the distance. Amity, on the other hand, showed the lack of a good kicker and often tried to work the ball out of difficulty by plunging against the Bellevue stone wall when a kick was the only thing to use.

While the Bellevue students were sadly disappointed that the "schoolmastera" from Peru were not their opponents yesterday, they took the matter philosoph ically, knowing that the athletic board had done the only thing possible in taking a firm stand against the unfounds insinuation of professionalism which had been cast upon the team by Peru.
