"Katarno saved my life. I was given up by my physicians at home after having suffered with lung trouble, which ran into consumption. The doctors told me that my only chance for life was to go to colorado.

"I broke up my business, left my home and came here only to find, to my disappointment, that I kept gradually, but surely, going down to the grave.

"A friendly druggist told me not to give up hope, but to try Katarno, saying that he knew dozens of invalids who had been cured by it. I took a bottle home and began taking it at once.

"I am glad to state that my health began to improve at once. My appetite, which had been very poor, increased. While before I had lain awake nights coughing, my cough diminished so that I once more obtained restful sleep.

"This improved my general health. My lungs began to heal, I gained a couple of pounds of flesh each week, new blood surged through my veins, and in nine months I was a changed man.

"It is therefore, after a blessed experience, I feel that Katarno aved my life."
