Teachers Plan Lecture Course. The teachers of the public schools of Council Bluffs have arranged for a winter course of lectures to be given in the auditorium of the high school building. The first lecture of the series will be given Tuesday evening by Dr. D. F. Fox of Chicago, a prominent chautauqua speaker. "A Neglected Cavalier" will be the subject of Dr. Fex's lecture.

The data for the second lecture has not yet been set, but it will be given by Prof. Clark of the University of Chicago. His subject will be "Ulysses." Prof. Clark is the Merriam block, there being about in the Merriam block, there being about in the Merriam block there being about in the Merria a specialist in the teaching of reading and t is hoped to secure him also for an afternoon address to the teachers of the city on "How to Teach Reading."

According to present plans there probably will be six or eight lectures in the course. The expense of the course will be borne by the teachers themselves, who have raised a fund for financing it. The lectures, it is announced, will all be instructive in character, no effort being made to afford smusement or entertainment The purpose of the course is to keep alive in the city the spirit that seeks to tellectual improvement. We do not want to present a chautauqua program for the entertainment of the public, because people who want simply entertainment can find plenty of it elsewhere," said Superintendent Soldier at Fort Des Moines Held on Murder Charge-Attempts to Shoot Former Sweetheart, but Builet Strikes Her Sister.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Dec. 1.-(Special Telegram.)-Governor Cummina yesterday reported his finding on the charge of Major Parker that there was not evidence sufficient to warrant declaring Illegal the election of W. T. Chantland as colonel of the Fifty-sixth regiment. He stated that should all the claims of Major Parker be granted would not change the result of the election, and indicated that if what Major Parker charged is true court-martial charges were the proper thing. Immediately thereafter Attorney Stipp, acting for Parker, filed charges against Major Chantland. A number of specifications are made, but all relate to electionsering in his own behalf, with one exception, that of illegally assisting a member of the Webster City company. These charges will be submitted to the same court-martial that hears Captain Kulp's case, Soldier Held for Murder. Returning from a theater last night Mrs. Martha Pickering was shot and killed. Ray Howard, a soldier of the Second United States cavalry stationed at Fort Des Motnes, is under arrest, charged with the shooting. Mrs. Martha Pickering, with her sister, Miss Mabel Adair, had attended the Empire theater in company with Alexander McIntosh, another soldier, member of the Second. Returning home late they were met by Howard, who had been filted by Miss Adair. The story told the police by McIntosh and Miss Adair is that Howard grabbed Miss Adair by the arm and with an oath declared: "I'll fix you." He drew a revolver and snapped it, but it falled to explode. Pulling the trigger again, he was struck by McIntosh and the bullet, passing through McIntosh's coat, struck Mrs Pickring, who ran ahead about twenty feet and then fell dead. Howard and Miss Adai had been sweet nearts for the last two months and she tells the police that they fell out because he came to her house drunk. Howard is held on a charge of murder.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20 .- Dana Albee Patten of New York, advance agent and manager for Edward Payson Weston on the latter's recent walk from Portland, Me .. to Chicago, obtained an injunction against his employer today, restraining the latter from paying out certain funds in which Patten claims a share for services rendered. The suit also contains a prayer for an accounting and the Garrick theater, Herman Duce, John A. Rickson, S. M. Rumsey and the New Illinois Athletic club

Patten avers that November Il Weston employed him to precede him and to arrange benefits, entertainments and demonstrations in honor of the pedestrian. Patten claims that he was to have received one-third of all money obtained by Weston, and that in promoting the benefits, particularly one at the Garrick theater in Chicago temerrow afternoon, he spent $500. Yet on his arrival in Chicago, the complainant asserts, Weston refused to submit further to his management, discharged him and denied his right to an accounting. Judge Carponter issued the injunction this morning and notice of it was served on the defendants this afternoon while the benefit for Weston at the Garrick theater sistant District Attorney A. W. Temple.

The massive magnificence of the Branvantage as it will tomorrow, when the elaborate holiday decoration will be viewed in its completed form by thousands of Omahans. The Brandels firm has introduced an innovation in Christmas display this season which is on an immense scale, in keeping with their other notable achievements as store builders. The customary Christmas scenes, which have been used until their novelty has been practically exhausted have been supplanted by a depiction of a Roman feetival, the central theme being "A Feast of the Seasons." The entire store is arrayed to carry out this brilliant holiday theme and the general result is one of imposing grandeur. The futerior has responded to the touch of a score of skilled artists and now represents a Roman temple erected to Mercury, the god of commerce. While the decorations give grace and harmony throughout the establishment, the chief labors of the decorators have been put on the center aisle, Millions of bottles of Folsy's Roney and on the main floor, which passes beneath
