Howe Ventilator

That wonderful base burner. No other like it. Stands distinctly by itself.

LARGEST BASE BURNER IN THE WORLD

Weights 800 pounds and has the heating power of a furnace. Will heat an eight-room house up and down stairs and keep it warm day and night with half the fuel a furnace will take. It is made in six parts, so one man can set it up, take it down or move it. It burns the coarse coal, the slowest burning hard coal that can be burned in a base burner. It takes the foul air from the room and carries it out of doors through the pipe and chimney. It brings in fresh air from out of doors and discharges it in the rooms heated. It is the only base burner in the world that has a double base, four hot air pipes, a double heating and ventilating system in one stove. It is a beautiful working stove and way ahead of anything made in the shape of a base burner.

FIRE LOSSES CRUSH CONCERN

Continued Pressure Forces Nebraska Mutual to Insolvency.

RECEIVER WILL BE APPOINTED

Officers Admit Failure and Agree to Court Action Taken at Instance of State Insurance Department.

A petition asking for the appointment of a receiver for the Nebraska Mutual Fire Insurance company of Omaha was filed in district court Monday morning by Deputy Auditor Pierce on behalf of Auditor Searle and the officers of the company also filed a stipulation admitting the company is insolvent and consenting to the appointment of a receiver. According to the figures of Insurance Examiner H. B. Wiggins, who examined the company, the liabilities are $2,242,265 and the assets $116,793.50.

A formal order directing the company to come into court and show cause why a receiver should not be appointed was signed by Judge Kennedy and made returnable before Judge Redick Tuesday morning at 10 a.m. The hearing for the appointment of a receiver will be held before Judge Redick December 5. The auditor in his petition asks that Edward M. Martin be appointed and the new directors of the company have consented to the appointment, but Mr. Martin has not, insisting on another receiver.

The Nebraska Mutual Fire Insurance company is at present doing business in nine states and has $2,000,000 worth of insurance in force. Unredeemed and uncollected fire losses are given as the reason for the failure. The states in which it has insurance in force are Nebraska, Washington, Idaho, Utah, South Dakota, Wisconsin, Arkansas, Oklahoma and South Carolina. The officers are: E. M. Coffin, president; E. M. Bartlett, vice president; J. L. Marble, secretary; R. M. Taggart, assistant secretary, and C. Coffin of Lincoln, treasurer.

Losses Began Six Months Ago.

"Five or six months ago," said E. M. Coffin, president of the company, "the losses began to show an unprecedented increase, and instead of decreasing as we expected them to, they kept increasing until, instead of a loss account of about $50,000, as we had figured, the losses for this year amounted to over $250,000, wiping out our $250,000 surplus and taking as much more besides. We endeavored to find out the reason for the unusual loss and appointed a committee of the board of directors and policy holders, but we were unable to find any reason for it. The losses appeared to be an ordinary good risk. We finally told the insurance department to come down and look things over and decide on what it wanted to do. We were simply swamped with losses. We held two meetings last week to see if we could find any way out of the difficulty, but our losses were so bad we were unable to do anything. We considered turning over the company to new men with new capital to put into it, but this was not feasible, so we consented to the appointment of a receiver as the best thing to do under the circumstances."

Mr. Coffin said he could not tell just at
