He is Alleged to to Have Taken Com mon Cause with One of the Strongest Competitors of Illinois Road.

CHICAGO, Dec. 12 -- Arguments for and against the injunction obtained by Stuycasant Fish contraining the voting of 281,221 shares of Illinois Central stock at the annual meeting of that road began today in the superior court before Judge

The proceedings were commenced by the presentation by the officeness of E. H. Harriman of a long affidavit signed by Mr. Harriman, Rebert W. Goelet and Charles A. Benbody: In the affidavit it, was set forth Abat Mr. Fish was not reelected president of the company because of alleged miscenduct in office, and alleged misapplication of the funds of the com-

R is also declared in the amdavit that under the laws of Illinois the Union Pacific tallroad company has the right to vote all stock owned by it at the annual meeting on December 18.

Mr. Harriman and the other makers of the affidavit deny that they caused the defeat of Mr. Fish as president of the ratirond because he refused to yield the control of the Illinois Central to the Union Pacific. It is also denied that J. T. Harkhan, now president of the company, is under the domination of Mr. Harriman. The statement which has been made that Mr. Harriman and the Union Pacific Railroad ompany ever sought to control the Illinois Central is also denied.

Seifish End Charged. It is charged in the afficavit that Mr. Fish has made common cause with the Missouri Pacific, one of the strongest cometitors of the Illinois Central. It is doclared, also, that he weeks to control the liftness Central for his own personal

The affidavit gives the following reasons why its makers refuse to vote the election of Mr. Fish:

of Mr. Fish:

Because, in the judgment of the directors, Mr. Fish has in the past misused and misupplied the funds of the Illinois Central.

He has used his power as president to control the funds of the railroad company to the injury of the railroad.

Because he attempted to manage the railroad company in disregard of the authority of the board of directors.

It was further stated in the affidavit that the sols reason for electing Mr. Haraban president of the Illinois Central was because of his efficient management. Denial is made by the Union Pacific Railroad company that it owns stock in other transportation companies for the purpose of controlling them. The affidayita declare that Mr. Fish in and the rapid growth of the exchange and dvertising for proxies has falsely claimed that he was dented re-election because he insisted upon the independence of the IIII- to those of other primary markets, is a note Central, and it is further claimed that while Mr. Fish is seeking to prevent the coting of stock held by the Union Pacific Railroad company and the Railroad Socurities company he has often voted that

He further Cowsill, C. F. Davis and Frank Fowler. declared that in the amdavits of E. H. The other committees are: Harriman, Charles A. Peabody, John W. Auchinclose and Cornellus Vanderbilt there are sundry misleading statements, which he proposes to contradict by subsequent amdavits. After the reading of the affidavit the searing on the injunction went over until omerrow morning. Mr. Fish's counsel declared he was not prepared to present other affidavita.

After court adjourned for the day, Mr. Fish seld:

"The affidavits produced by Mr. Harriman's attorneys in court today rehash the same old slanders which I have met and answered so often. They were drawn on the lines suggested by Harriman's testimony before the Interstate Commerce commission last February, when he was compelled to invent some reason for putting me out of the presidency of the Illinois Central and did not dare give the actual cause, which was, that I stood in the way of Union Pacific communion of the Illinois Central

The manufacturers will also talk to the wool growers on the subjects of grade of wool, twine and paint used, and other matters of mutual interest. Delegates will be present from Omaha and Denver to talk to the sheepmen on creating a home market, or rather a range market for wool. The proposition of establishing at some central point in the range states of a field pathological bureau of the Department of Agriculture, will also be discussed. It is the desire of the live stock interests that contagious diseases be eradicated on the range, and the Department of Agriculture will be asked to co-operate in this matter. South Dakota Minister Begins Sentence at Grand Island.

HE IS GLAD TO START

Gratified at Being Imprisoned in Hall Instead of Bonglas County. So He Declares to Officials.

Rev. George G. Ware of Mullen, president of the U. B. I. Land and Cattle company of Hooker county, began serving his sentence of one year's imprisonment in the Grand Island jall Wednesday afternoon at

Mr. Ware was sentenced in February 1906, to one year's imprisonment by Judge W. H. Munger of the United States district court and to pay a fine of $1,000 upon conviction of conspiracy to defraud the United States out of several thousand acres of land in Hooker and Thomas counties, Nebraska, by means of false, fraudulent and fictitious filings. Mr. Ware, through his attorneys, has fought the inevitable result of his conviction through to the highest courts only to lose out in the end. The ultimatum was received only a month ago by the United States court denying the writ of certiorari applied for by his attorneys. Glad to Begin Sentence.

United States Marshal W. P. Warner went to Grand Island Wednesday, where Mr. Ware met him, and he was at once taken to the Hall county jail and turned over to the juiler there. Mr. Ware expressed himself as glad to begin upon his entence, and particularly that it was to be carried out in the Hall county jail instead of Omaha, where has was first sentenced. The prisoner was assigned to a comfortable room in the second story of the jail, with Reuben W. Mahaffey, who is serving a forty-five days' sentence for a like offense of which Mr. Ware was convicted.

Mrs. Ware and the children will remain at Mullen looking after Mr. Ware's ranch interests. By good behavior Mr. Ware will receive a reduction of sixty days in his sentence of imprisonment during the year. Nothing will be undertaken at present looking toward securing his pardon. > BIBLICAL SCENE AT BRANDEIS A Miniature Holy City with Hundreds of Mechanical Figures Now > > on Display.

As an appropriate display at holiday times, a wonderful miniature "Holy City" is now being shown at Brandels' store, illustrating the birth of the Savior and a scene outside the city of Jerusalem. This mechanical device, which represents years of work on the part of the inventor and builder, is now one of the greatest features of the Brandels' holiday showing.

The contrivance occupies a space within a ten-foot square at the junction of the arcade and the basement, and it is a truly marvélous work as an artisan. The scene shows the city of Jerusalem and the out-laying hills as a background, while as a central group in a grotto are shown the Infant Christ, the Virgin Mary and her husband. Outside the grotto are shown in minature the wise men, with their servants and their beasts of burden, who have come to pay homage. Above the central group are the figures of angels announcing the birth of Christ to the shepherds on the hillside of Judea. The star above the grotto shines to guide the wise men to the

The minature city was built by a European craftsman, who was filled with the spirit of reverence and devotion when he gave his best endeavors to his task. It is a representation in general outline of the gospel narrative.

The scene is rich in brilliant coloring and is a marvel of exact carving. Each of single block of wood, and there is an absence of the crudity usually seen in mechanical figures. The scene shows moving figures of soldiers, marching outside the city of Jerusalem, wood choppers, millers. smithles and others, plying their crafts. Mill wheels turn, minature sheep and goats gambol on the hillside, a bugle call is sounded at intervals, and the whole scene is one of animation and beauty. The display of mechanical scenes of a religious character are seen but seldom in America, but they are quite too common in Italy, where families often devote entire rooms in their home; to the proper display of minature "Holy City" periodically invite the populace to visit them. It is a particularly appropriate display at Christmas time and will no doubt be viewed with great interest by thousands in Omaha. Are easily distinguished from other types of Caucasian origin on account of their very heavy and firm texture, while the bold, striking figures and strong colorings at once betray the general characteristics of their wild weavers. Warp and weft are wool: sides are finished with a narrow flat edge, never have much of a fringe, the short looped ends of the warp being left loose on one end, while the other is finished with a narrow selvedge, and that doubled under and hemmed. Their durability is phenomenal. In color they are very rich and rather bright.
