NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Owing to the impossibility of finishing all business on hand yesterday, the National Base Ball League meeting was adjourned over until today, when it is hoped by holding a long session all outstanding matters may be cleared up. A resolution by George Dovey of Boston was adopted providing that at the spring meetings of the major league the meeting shall be held with a view of discussing the advisability of legislation for the regulation of reserve lists. No agreement could be reached on Mr. Dovey's proposition to restrict the number of players to be carried by clubs on tour.

Advertisement for State Medical Institute for Men, featuring text: 'Every day we are helping weak, nervous, broken-down young and middle-aged men back to ruddy health, ordinarily without interfering with their usual business pursuits. Many are discouraged, depressed, nervous, tired, languid, etc. Some are on the brink of nervous exhaustion, caused by hurry, overwork, overstudy, neglect, dissipation, who thought, "I wish you could see these change after consulting treatment with us. The result is a new vitality, a new health and a new alertness in their face and bearing as the new red blood of health courses through their veins, and they are infiltrated with new hope, new vitality and new energy. They go away feeling all new, strong, both physically and mentally.'
