GAY TIME AHEAD FOR SOCIETY

Christmas Shopping and Affairs Large and Small Occupy Fashionables.

SCHOOL FOLKS HOME NEXT WEEK

Calendar for Christmas Week Begins Filling with Promising Affairs, Dancing Parties Having Auspicious Place.

Social Heat.
 'Twas winter time, the climber sat A-shivering with the cold. Her throat was wrapped about in pearls. Her dress was thick with gold.
 Unheated was the dining room. 'Twas arctic in the hall. And even in the kitchen stove There was no heat at all.
 No fire was blazing where she sat. No light to warm the room. The Social Register was all She'd have in any room.
 The Satirist.

The Social Calendar.

MONDAY—Mrs. J. A. N. Baldwin, Monday bridge. Mrs. J. A. N. Baldwin, Monday Bridge club.

SATURDAY—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carmichael, Week-End club.

Society is chiefly occupied with Christmas shopping just at present, although the fashionables have given a generous share of their time to entertaining and being entertained. Besides numerous club meetings, luncheons, Kensingtons and card parties of a more or less formal nature the last week has seen several affairs that stand out conspicuously on the season's calendar. First among these was the dancing party given Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Yates in honor of their granddaughter, Miss Mary Morgan. While not announced as Miss Morgan's formal introduction the party was generally accepted as such. Miss Morgan is a graduate of the University of Nebraska and one of the few possible debutantes this season.

A few of the larger affairs that have been announced for the holidays are a subscription dance to be given New Year's eve at Chambers', with Mr. Chat Shiverick, Mr. Julius Brown, Mr. Stanley Ineson, Mr. Denise Barklow and others as promoters. On Saturday, December 28, the members of the Winfield club will give a dancing party known as a "Versailles fete nouvelle." For this party the committee in charge is making elaborate preparations and the nature of the affair is causing a great deal of conjecture among the members. Omicron Alpha Pi will also give a pretentious party, which will be a cotillion, December 24, and special attention is being paid to new and unique gifts, as well as favors. Then the Gamma Sigma fraternity of the Omaha High school promulgates a beautiful dancing party to be given the evening of December 30 at the Rome hotel, which will be one of the notable affairs of the holidays.

When the present glitter of good times and the Yuletide festivities are in the past, the many popular young women of the smart set who have recently announced their engagement will come to the fore as honor guests at a round of entertainments.

This week the young people will be returning from the various colleges and boarding schools in the east to spend their Christmas vacation with their parents and relatives in Omaha. Among those who are expected are: Miss Amy Gilmour, who has been attending school at the National Park seminary, Washington; Miss Caroline Barklow, Miss Porter's school at Farmington, Conn.; Miss Bess Baum, Miss Jean Cudahy, Miss Helen Cudahy and Miss Frances Nash, from Washington; Miss Elizabeth Sweet, Smith; Miss Louise Fiske, Miss Wanda Olive Baker and Miss Louise Lord, Burnham; Miss Myra Breckenridge, Miss Mandelberg, Smith; Miss Elizabeth Davis, Chicago; Miss Helen Sholes, Miss Maxeyne Thompson, Miss Oia Belle Hervey, Miss Alice McCullough, Miss Dorothy Ringwall, Miss Margaret Guthrie, Miss Irene Jaynes, Miss Faba, Miss Ruth Rinehart, the Misses Frye and Miss Rohrbough, University of Nebraska; Mr. Prentiss Lord and Mr. Carol Belden, Amherst college; Miss Edith Fisher, University of Wisconsin; Mr. John Caldwell, Andover, Mass.; Mr. Lane Summers, Ann Arbor; Mr. Charles Meyer, University of Nebraska.
