Offerings Are Light and Prices All Along the Line Hold Well After the Becent Bulge.

OMAHA, Dec. 17, 1907. There are indications of an improved foreign demand and the crowd was firm and had confidence.

Offerings were very light, but some were inclined to the show side.

Prices all along the line held well after the late buige.

The crowd started buying wheat at the opening on cables, commission houses sold opening on cables, commission houses sold and longs took advantage and sold on the bulge for profits. Prices were pushed very much higher and all offerings were well taken.

much Signer and all offerings were well taken.

May wheat opened at 28% and closed at $1.01%.

Corn firther and was well supported by a good demand. Selling by longs was liberal at the opening, but was checked by heavy scattered buying on resting orders. Country receipts are more liberal, but are not expected to hold long. May corn opened at 12% and closed at 54%.

There was heavy selling of old May oats by elevator interests at the start, but the crowd was buillish and very confident of their position and took all oats offered. May option opened at 52% and closed at 53%.

Firmary wheat receipts were 942,000 bu. and shipments were 255,000 bu., against receipts last year of 700,000 bu. and shipments of 304,000 bu.

Corn receipts were 670,000 bu. and shipments were 445,000 bu., against receipts last year of 755,000 bu. and shipments of 207,000 bu. bu.

Chearances were 197,000 bushels of corft.
6,000 bushels of cats and wheat and flour
equal to 467,000 bushels.
Liverpool closed unchanged on wheat and 3d lower on corn.

while prices were generally about steady, the demand was by no means urgent, so that the market was more or less of a drag throughout the whole session.

Some of the best feeders sold to good advantage, but the market could hardly be quoted very much different from yesterday. While the demand seems to call for a few cattle each day, it is by no means large and is easily satisfied by the moderate runs at the present time, here this morning, but while there was a little toppy stuff in the yards, the receipts as a whole were on the trashy order. The market did not show very much change, remaining in about the same condition as yesterday.

Packers were inquiring after a few good killing cattle but the demand was by no means urgent, and the trade was slow and dull from start to finish. The prices paid did not show very much change as compared with yesterday and there were some right good steers that sold up to $5.00. Half fat kinds, however, were slow sellers at the low figures prevailing at the present time.

Cows and helfers were also slow, and while prices were generally about steady, the demand was by no means urgent, so that the market was more or less of a steady in the yesterday.
