AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Packers Anxious for Cold Weather to Commence Ice Harvest.

WOULD MEAN WORK FOR MANY

City Treasurer Objects to Remission of Taxes on Lots Owned by the Northwestern Railroad Company.

Of late laborers from Chicago and the east, where the money stringency is much more acute, have been coming in too rapidly for the demand here. The packers have laid off same at different times, but have taken them back again whenever possible.

The packers are anxious for a little severe weather so that a big force may be employed in the annual ice harvest. Last year during the ice cutting season it was very hard to secure enough men to work the machinery, but apparently there will be plenty of applicants this year, R. C. Howe, general manager of Armour & Co., said yesterday that the ice harvest at Memphis would require 1,000 men. The Cudahy ice houses at Seymour lake will require almost as many. The Swift houses at Cut Off lake will require more yet. All of the ice houses have been overhauled and are in readiness for work with the first weather which will produce a foot of ice. The Cudahy company has made some addition to the capacity of their houses

Knows Nothing of Elevator. R. C. Howe stated yesterday that he knew nothing of a proposed elevator for South Omaha, which rumor was fostered in two Sunday papers. He said: "The High school: meat business is entirely separate from the Armour grain interests. However, I have been in Sloux City for a few days and have just returned. I telegraphed Chicago this morning concerning the elevator, but received no reply. I take it from that there is no weight to be attached to the report."

The story in circulation was to the effect that Armour & Co. were about to erect an elevator with a 2,000,000 bushel capacity at Thirty-seventh and M, just west of the stock yards district.

The council has taken no action as yet in the matter. It is likely from the statements issued by the deputy treasurer last night that the city treasurer will not be inclined to cancel the tax without an order from court, even should the council agree. It is claimed by certain authority that the council has not the power to abate or cancel taxes under the city charter. The tax amounts to $1,300.

Meet with Commandant to Discuss Arrangements for Annual Drill and Camp.

The High School cadets drilled inside the uilding Tuesday afternoon, on account of the snow. Guns were assigned in the various companies, and instruction in the rifle drill was begun. This year a receipt is required for each rifle or other piece of equipment issued, so that a systematic check may be kept on all the equipment supplied to the cadets by the school author-

After Tuesday's drill the cadet officers met with Captain Oury, the commandant, to talk about camp and means of raising money. It is proposed to hold the annual competitive drill in the Auditorium, and use the proceeds to help pay for the encampment. This would decrease the amount paid by each cadet considerably, so the officers are in favor of it, as an increased attendance at the camp would result. It is understood that the cost of over $3 per cadet last year prevented many lovs from going.

STRANGER FOUND DEAD IN BED Nothing But an Indistinct Laundry Mark as a Clue to His Identity.

About 1 o'clock Monday morning a young man about 23 years eld applied for room at the Japanese hotel, conducted by Y. Maruyama at Ninth and Leavenworth streets and was found dead in bed by the proprietor about 7 o'clock the same evening. As his room was locked all day and he did not respond to repeated knockings at the door the room was broken into. The coroner was notified and took charge of the body, and from indications he died from natural causes. Nothing was found upon his person or clothes to identify him except a blurred laundry mark reading D. M. D., or D. McD. He was dressed in a dark gray, mixed suit of clothes bearing a Burg-Swanson label. The proprietor of the hotel could throw no light on his identity except that he the name of "Jack" when asking for lodging.

Myers-Dillon Drug Co., Omaha, Neb.

Gentlemen:—I suffered for more than six months with what I supposed to be atomach and bowel treatle. I tried every remedy suggested to me all of this time without receiving any benefit. I saw your advertisement of Fruitola, and one of your clerks advised me to try it. I took the Fruitola in connection with Traxo, as directed, and the result was antonishing. After taking one bottle of Fruitola more than a hundred gall-stones were removed. I continued the use of Fruitola and Traxo until the cure was complete. The satisfaction of having my health restored is worth more than money to me, and I am correspondingly grateful to you. I have recommended Fruitola to a great many of my friends, and in every instance, as in my own case, it has some more than you claim for it.

It will give me pleasure to allow you to use my name in your advertising.

Yours Gratefully. W. C. HEYDEN.
