NEW YORK, Jan. 11.-Four men, this of them firemen, were killed and abo $5,000,600 worth of property was destroyed by fire, which rulned the thirteen-story

Parker building at Fourth avenue and Nineteenth street, between midnight and daylight this morning. The firemen are believed to have gone down in the blazing ruins when one of the floors fell, but none of their comrades witnessed their deaths.

The fire began on the sixth floor of the building. Baffled by weak water pressure and bursting hose, the firemen worked at a great disadvantage. Water could not be forced above the eighth story. Falling floors cut off the escape to the street not only for firemen, but of other occupants, and they were rescued only by the most daring work. The foundations of the buildings abutted against the subway and the walls, bulging when the steel posts and girders first expanded and then contracted, Traffic Suspended.

All traffic in the subway between Fourteenth street and the Grand Central station at Forty-second street was suspended while the fire was at its worst in the carly hours, but was resumed during the height of the early rush of passengers down town, only to be guspended again under urgent orders of the fire and building departments. For hours after the fire was practically extinguished it was still dangerous to run trains by the building, and subway passengers were forced to resort

At dawn today firemen began searching in the ruins of the Parker building at Nineteenth street and Fourth avenue for the bodies of the three firemen who were reported missing from the companies that fought the spectacular fire which destroyed the thirteen-story building last night, causing a loss variously estimated at amounts reaching $6,000,000. Although accounted fire-proof, the great building burned almost like tin-der, the upper stories being far beyond the reach of even the water towers. Five men on the top floor sought the roof. From the top of an adjoining building, several stories lower, a line was shot up from a mortar. With this the beleaguerd men drew up a stout rope which they fastenede to a chimney and slid down to the lower

Move to Transfer Clerks. Members of the Nebraska delegation have received a letter from W. F. Whitten, secretary of the Commercial club of Lincoln, Neb., advising them that a movement is on foot to transfer the headquarters of railway and requesting the senators and Representative Pollard to enter a vigorous protest at the Postoffice department.

The people of Billings, backed by the influences in Wyoming, assert that the transfer of headquarters of the rallway mail itate the more prompt delivery of mail throughout Montana and Wyoming.
